WASHINGTON, D.C. Jan. 29 -- Secretary of Housing and Urban Development George Romney, and U.S. Senator Bob Dole (R-Kans.) today flew together from Washington to Topeka where Romney will be the key speaker at the annual Kansas Day Banquet tonight.

Dole's weekend speaking engagements include the Chamber of Commerce, Parsons; PTA Presidents-Principals Banquet, Topeka and the Mississippi Valley Association in St. Louis.

He will travel to Roanoke, Va., Monday for the continuation of the Public Works Disaster Relief Subcommittee hearings on Hurricane Camille.

Dole is ranking Republican on the committee.
