

STATEMENT OF U.S. SENATOR BOB DOLE
ON THE SENATE FLOOR

MAY 7, 1970

Mr. President, the town's press, as part of its efforts to radicalize our youth, is attempting to make much of the resignation of a fifth level official in HEW.

I am not surprised at the effort -- we see and hear it daily -- nor am I surprised at the resignation, with its accompanying attack on the President.

I'm sure it was programmed. After far out liberals finished trying to incite college students, this was a natural follow-on.

Unfortunately, however, for our young resignee, whose name by the way is Toby Moffett, the Washington Post told too much about him.

He is hardly a major executive if his pay of $11,200 is indicative. Beyond this, he is a holdover from the previous administration.

It is obvious he had no loyalty either to the Republican Party, to the President or, despite his protestations, to the Secretary of HEW. He was merely biding his time, at taxpayers expense, to see when he could most effectively hurt the Administration.

I should like to suggest to the Administration, that as long as they have this kind in their midst, they will be certain to have political trayals.

It is nothing to be surprised at, but only emphasizes what many have said all along -- it is time to throw the hold-overs out.
