FOR RELEASE AM'S THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1970

WASHINGTON, D.C. June 11 -- Ten Kansas youths, nominated by U.S. Senator Bob Dole (R-Kans.) have been appointed to the U.S. Military, Air Force, Navy and Merchant Marine Academies for classes beginning this summer.

Dole earlier nominated 50 young men for academy vacancies assigned to him. Under the competitive system employed by Dole, each academy selects the best qualified candidates from the nominees on the basis of tests stressing academic ability and leadership qualities.

Those receiving academy appointments are:

U.S. Naval Academy

Patrick M. Haney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Haney, 554 Circle Drive, Derby.

David J. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard D. Ross, 5924 West 61 Terrace, Mission.

U.S. Air Force Academy

Charles E. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Jones, 1511 South Kansas, Wichita.

Brook D. Maese, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Maese, 6511 Mogard, Kansas City, Ks.

Kurt R. Steeby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Steeby, 5312 West 58th Street, Mission.

Samuel C. Stitt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Stitt, Ellinwood.

Bruce E. Wasinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lubin Wasinger, 521 W 23rd Street, Hays.

U.S. Military Academy

Kevin C. Eichner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell F. Eichner, 921 Woodson Drive, Shawnee Mission.

Roger L. Goodman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Goodman, Newton.

U.S. Merchant Marine Academy

George H. Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh R. Houston, FD 1, Glasco.
