WASHINGTON, D.C., JAN. 31, 1971 --- Linda Keim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Keim, McPherson, will return home this week after completing a six-week internship in the Washington, D.C. office of U.S. Sen. Bob Dole (R-Kans.)

Miss Keim is a junior at McPherson College where she is studying history. Her Washington internship was part of an independent study program that she participated in during McPherson College's "inter-term" period. While in Washington, Miss Keim researched information about the seniority system utilizing material from the Library of Congress and from resources available in Sen. Dole's and Rep. Garner E. Shriver's offices.

While a student Miss Keim has been active in political and college affairs. Presently she serves as State Women's Chairman for Kansas College Republican Federation and chairman of McPherson College Republicans. She was elected McPherson College 1970 Homecoming Queen.
