FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mark Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill E. Haynes, 800 Brentwood, Olathe, was one of four young Kansans who met with U.S. Sen. Bob Dole (R-Kans.) this week while participating in A Presidential Classroom for Young Americans.

The four high school seniors talked with the Senator in his Senate office and then followed him to a meeting of the Select Committee on Nutrition and Human Needs where this photograph was taken. From the left, the students are: Haynes, Virginia Boling, Coffeyville; Janet Corns, Wichita; Barbara Brown, Kansas City. The students are among 25 Kansas students selected to participate in one of the series of an intensive, week-long familiarization course in government. In all, some 1900 students will participate in one of the six successive Presidential Classroom sessions being conducted this year.

Haynes will return Olathe Feb. 27.
