FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 5 --- The Kansas Wheat Queen and members of the Kansas Wheat Commission met with U.S. Sen. Bob Dole (R-Kans.) last week when they were in Washington to serve as cosponsors for a Congressional wheat growers breakfast.

Queen Evelyn Ebright, a K-State junior from Lyons, Kans., was the official hostess at the breakfast for members of Congress who represent major wheat grower states. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Ebright, Route 2, Lyons.

The "bouquet of Kansas Wheat" on the Senator's desk was a gift from the Kansas Wheat Commission to Dole.

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 5 --- Evelyn Ebright, who is this year's Kansas Wheat Queen, met with Kansas Senator Bob Dole recently when she was in Washington to serve as official hostess at a Congressional Wheat Growers Breakfast.

Miss Ebright, a K-State junior majoring in music composition, has had occasion to travel while representing the Kansas wheat grower. Earlier this year, while in Portland, Ore., attending the National Association of Wheat Growers Convention, Miss Ebright taught the convention delegates an original song she has written about wheat. Since that time, her composition has been performed on radio.

Miss Ebright's parents Mr. and Mrs. Wendal Ebright, have a wheat ranch in Lyons.
