FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 26 ---The Kansas delegates to the National 4-H Conference in Washington, last week, met with U.S. Sen. Bob Dole (R-Kans.) in his Senate office and presented him with a lapel button signifying the 4-H program.

The four young Kansans, who were among 250 delegates representing the United States and Canada, were accompanied to Washington by Dr. Glenn M. Bussett, state 4-H leader, Kansas State University.

While in Washington, the young people visited the White House, and were honored with a personal chat with the President, who showed them the White House rose garden where Tricia Nixon will be married later this spring.
