FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WASHINGTON, D.C., AUGUST 3, 1971 -- U.S. Senators Bob Dole and James Pearson today announced that 55 Kansas colleges and universities will receive grants totaling $1,873,888 for work-study programs to aid 5,843 students in fiscal year 1972.

The grants provide 80 per cent of the salaries paid to campus connected work. They are from the U.S. Office of Education.

Kansas schools receiving over $100,000 were Fort Hayes Kansas State College, $165,566 for 513 students; Kansas State College of Pittsburg, $140,613 for 426 students; Kansas State University, $208,340 for 650 students; Kansas State Teachers College (Emporia), $173,890 for 540 students; University of Kansas, $176,590 for 559 students; and Wichita State University, $187,704 for 554 students. Forty-nine other schools in Kansas received work-study grants. (A list of these is attached).

In addition to the work-study grants, Kansas institutions participating in the health professions student loan program and the health professions scholarship program of the National Institutes of Health will receive $492,072 in grants and loans in fiscal year 1972. Loans for $168,968 and grants of $86,567 for medicine to the University of Kansas; loans of $40,500 and $34,494 in grants for pharmacy to the University of Kansas; and $106,817 in loans and $54,726 in grants for veterinary to Kansas State University.

Kansas schools participating in the nursing student loan program and the nursing scholarship program of the National Institutes of Health will receive $463,494 in grants and loans for fiscal year 1972. (A listing of amounts and schools in the nursing programs is attached).
