

11
SPECIAL TO WICHITA EAGLE

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 17, 1972 ---- U.S. Sen. Bob Dole
(R-Kans.) expressed his sorrow today at the untimely death
Thursday of Wichita's former mayor A. Price Woodard.

The Kansas Senator said that he had known the former mayor to be "an exceptionally warm person" and "a truly selfless public servant."

"For all those who were privileged to know him personally," Dole said, "he was a friend for all circumstances. He constantly worked for the betterment of Wichita and its people with no concern as to personal sacrifice."
