SPECIAL TO THE WICHITA EAGLE-BEACON

WASHINGTON, D.C., JULY 19, 1972 -- Three Wichita youths served as summer interns for United States Senator Bob Dole in Washington, D.C.

Their six week internship included attending committee hearings and reports, researching legislation and greeting constituents. They also attended speeches given by many prominent Washington figures including Patrick Gray III; Director of the FBI, William Ruckelshaus; Director of the Environmental Protection Agency, and Robert Novak; syndicated columnist.

The youths are:

John Hackney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hackney, 3250 North Saint Clair. John will be a senior at the University of Kansas and is majoring in Biology and Anthropology.

Melissa Haines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Haines, 312 Lynwood. Melissa will be a junior at Southern Methodist University majoring in History.

Dave Murfin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Murfin, 150 South Pershing. Dave will be a junior at the University of Kansas majoring in Business and Engineering.
