FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- SEPTEMBER 11, 1972

WASHINGTON, D.C., SEPT. 11, 1972 -- Senator Bob Dole today announced that R.C. Rolfs, Lorraine, Kansas, has been re-appointed to the Kansas State Advisory Committee of the Farmers Home Administration. Rolf's new term will expire June 30, 1972.

The committee advises the state director of the Farmers Home Administration of the needs of members of the rural community. The FmHA is authorized to loan money for farm ownership and operation and to rural water districts when the districts are unable to obtain loans through existing financial institutions.
