Senator Bob Dole today released the following statement:

"George McGovern has already vowed that when he loses he will make no attempt to unite the country and rally his supporters to help the President to achieve the great goals of his second term.

"Congressman Bill Roy, not one to be outdone by Senator McGovern, has already made a habit of that kind of carping negativism. Mr. Roy has made it his stock in trade to oppose the President and to try to obstruct the Nixon program of peace, progress and prosperity.

"From the record, I would have thought in fact, that there was no one in the Congress more dedicated to tying the President's hands than Mr. Roy. The latest issue of the Congressional Quarterly, however, proves me wrong. There is one Congressman -- but only one -- with a more consistent record of opposing Administration-backed legislation.

~~"Certainly Mr. Roy's brand of hidebound negativism and politically motivated obstructionism of the legislation introduced by the President is a far cry from anything that even remotely approaches what is truly representative of the people of the Second District of Kansas.~~

"Congressman Roy has voted against Revenue Sharing.

"Congressman Roy has joined with Senator McGovern to vote naively for heavy cuts in our defense budget.

"Congressman Roy is a staunch member of McGovern's bug-out brigade on Vietnam.

"On three out of five votes, in fact, where he could oppose the President's stated position, Mr. Roy did just that.

"The people of the Second District ~~deserve better. They~~ deserve a man in Congress who will represent their thinking, not just the thinking of George McGovern and ~~the cozy little band of hotter-than-thou elitists who surround him.~~

"And Charles McAtee is the man who can give them that responsive voice in the Congress. He is the kind of a man we need on the Kansas Congressional delegation and he is the kind of thoughtful responsible man Richard Nixon is going to need on his side during his second term."
