WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1973

WASHINGTON, D.C.--Senator Bob Dole and Congressman Keith Sebelius met today with Fred Malek, Assistant Director of the Office of Management and Budget to discuss the possible means of obtaining additional funds for the Fort Larned restoration project.

Possibilities discussed included OMB support for a supplemental appropriation measure, inclusion of the funds in the FY 1975 budget request, or the reprogramming of available funds for use at Ft. Larned. Malek agreed to report back to Dole and Sebelius as soon as he had an opportunity to look into the several courses of action that might be followed. Although no definitive answers were obtained both Senator Dole and Congressman Sebelius indicated that they felt the meeting had been productive and did serve to re-focus attention of the Fort Larned project and that they are hopeful additional funds can be made available during the coming year.

Both Dole and Sebelius were instrumental in obtaining a $325,000 supplemental appropriation for FY 73 for restoration activities.
