KANSAN CONSIDERED FOR FHA POST

TOPEKA, KANSAS--Senator Bob Dole said today that Frank W. ^{Naylor}Naler, Jr. is being considered for the post of Associate Administrator of Farmers Home Administration. "Final processing is now taking place, but I am confident that Naler will be named to the position in the next few weeks," Dole said.

^{Naylor}Naler, a Kansas City, Kansas native, was recommended to Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz for the post by Dole. He is currently serving as executive assistant to the Administrator of Veterans Administration, and previously served a Deputy Manager of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation. ^{Naylor}Naler is a Vietnam Navy veteran and a graduate of Kansas University and Wyandotte High School in Kansas City, Kansas.
