WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Senator Bob Dole today announced that John E. B. Smith has been offered an appointment to attend the United States Air Force Academy for classes commencing this summer.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Smith, 501 Poplar, Wamego. He is a graduate of Wamego High School in 1973 and has been attending the United States Military Academy Prep School, Ft. Belvoir, Virginia the past year.

While at Wamego High School, John was captain of the Senior wrestling team and was selected Most Outstanding Sportsman of the Year. At the Prep School, John has excelled in athletics and church related activities.

John is the sixth of the Senator's nominees to be offered an appointment to attend the United States Air Force Academy for the class of 1977.
