GRANT TO AID FAMILY PRACTICE PROGRAM AT KU MED

WASHINGTON, D.C.--Senator Bob Dole today announced a $66,424 Health, Education and Welfare grant to the University of Kansas Medical Center. In his announcement, Dole praised the Family Medicine Training Grant Program, now in its third year at the K U Med Center. Dole said the Program can mean a great deal to family practice in Kansas, especially in rural areas where physicians are in short supply.

The Family Medicine Training Grant Program is designed to provide assistance to schools of medical education in the development of training programs for primary care physicians of the family practice type with special emphasis placed on preparation for rural medical practices.
