WASHINGTON--The following is a statement by Senate Finance Chairman Bob Dole (R.-Kan.) on the resignation of Transportation Secretary Drew Lewis:

Drew Lewis will be sorely missed by those of us in Washington who have had the pleasure of working with him during the past two years. He has had excellent relations with Congress, and has garnered a great deal of admiration on Capitol Hill for his political skills and responsible approach to solving our Nation's transportation problems.

I wish the Secretary and his wife Marilyn the best of luck.
