DOLE RECEIVES SOUND DOLLAR AWARD

Washington, D.C. -- Kansas Senator Bob Dole has been presented with the 1988 Sound Dollar Award by The "MORE ... Common Sense" Organization.

A 'Sound Dollar' rating is given relative to the position taken by each congressional member on such important economic issues as less government interference; reduction of hidden taxes; support for the line veto and the balanced budget; free trade; less welfare waste; and more privatization.

"MORE ... common sense" is an organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of government and how it spends, or saves, taxpayer dollars.

Senator Dole consistently receives high rankings from organizations dedicated to cutting back government spending, lowering taxes and promoting less government.
