DOLE ANNOUNCES NEW SOUTHEAST KANSAS OFFICE;
JILL MAYCUMBER OF FORT SCOTT WILL BE NEW REGIONAL REPRESENTATIVE

WASHINGTON - Kansas Senator Bob Dole announced that he will open a Southeast Kansas Regional office in Pittsburg. Jill Maycumber, a native of Fort Scott, will be Senator Dole's new Southeast Kansas representative.

Maycumber, a 1991 graduate of the University of Kansas, Lawrence, has been working in Senator Dole's Washington, D.C. office since January, 1991.

"I'm pleased to announce Jill as my Southeast Kansas representative. A native of Fort Scott, Jill is looking forward to coming home and working with the people of Kansas. She knows the area and is eager to get started gathering information, helping our neighbors and providing assistance to get things done in Washington," said Dole.

Jill replaces Rita Riley, who staffed the Southeast Kansas mobile office. Riley moves to Topeka to pursue a law degree at Washburn University, Topeka.

"Rita did a super job for me, traveling throughout the area and providing a helping hand to many Kansans. I wish her the best as she continues her education," added Dole.

The Southeast Kansas Regional Office will be located at 310 North Pine in Pittsburg. Those interested in contacting Jill can stop by or call (316) 232-2030. Office hours will be 8:30 am - 5:00 pm.
