CLINTON/DOLE WICHITA BOATHOUSE LETTER

WASHINGTON -- President Bill Clinton and Senate Republican Leader Bob Dole today sent the following joint letter to be read Friday evening at the opening ceremony of the "Jayhawk" America's Cup exhibit at the Wichita Boathouse site. Tonight's event, sponsored by the Arkansas River Foundation, is part of the ongoing Wichita River Festival.

To Our Friends in Wichita:

While we are unable to appear in person at tonight's opening ceremony, we certainly didn't want to miss the boat on this event.

Our political parties may be different, but our homestates are linked by the Arkansas River, and we both celebrate Bill Koch's America's Cup triumph.

We hope the $23 million worth of free publicity we have generated for this project will make for smooth sailing in Wichita.

We join Governor Finney, Congressman Glickman and Mayor Broadfoot in wishing the Arkansas River Foundation all the best, and in offering Wichita our warmest wishes for a successful River Festival.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton

Bob Dole
