ENTITLEMENT COMMISSION

DOLE ANNOUNCES RECOMMENDATIONS FOR SENATE REPUBLICAN MEMBERS

Washington -- Senate Republican Leader Bob Dole today recommended the following individuals to serve on the Bipartisan Commission on Entitlement Reform. In addition to a Chairman and a Co-Chairman, the Commission on Entitlement Reform will be comprised of 30 members appointed by the President to consist of: 10 senators, five each from the Democrat and Republican parties, 10 members of the House of Representatives, five from each party, and ten individuals from either the public and private sector. The Senators and Representatives are recommended by the Party Leaders in each Chamber.

Senate Republican Leader Bob Dole will recommend the following Senators to serve on the Commission:

Senator Pete Domenici (R-NM)
Senator Alan Simpson (R-WY)
Senator Thad Cochran (R-MS)
Senator Malcolm Wallop (R-WY)
Senator Judd Gregg (R-NH)
