GOP WINNING STREAK CONTINUES

REPUBLICANS 8-FOR-8 AFTER WIN IN OKLAHOMA: GOOD SIGN FOR GOP
GAINS IN NOVEMBER, BAD SIGN FOR CLINTON BIG GOVERNMENT AGENDA

WASHINGTON -- Senate Republican Leader Bob Dole last night issued the following statement regarding Republican Frank Lucas' election in Oklahoma to the U.S. House of Representatives:

"The Republican Party's winning streak continues. With Frank Lucas' smashing victory in a heavily Democratic Oklahoma congressional district, the Republican party has won all eight of the most important elections since President Clinton took the White House.

"The Republican winning streak is another sign the American people aren't buying the Clinton Administration's big government agenda.

"This win is also another good omen for Republican gains in the House and Senate this fall."
