

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(April 1, 1962)

The annual Kansas Society of Washington, D.C. meeting was held Saturday evening at the Mayflower Hotel with over 200 Kansans attending.

Highlights of the evening were dinner, dancing and crowning of the Kansas Princess. Former Governor George Docking, the outgoing president of the group, presided and crowned the Princess, Kay Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Robinson of Wichita.

New officers elected were Cong. Bob Dole, President; Paul Aiken, Vice President; Mrs. Floyd Breeding, Treasurer; and Mrs. Garner Shriver, Secretary.

Entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Larry Langdon of Lucas, Kansas, who played the marimba.
