Immediate Release
Office of Congressman Bob Dole
Russell, Kansas

Bob Dole, Congressman-elect of the 1st Kansas Congressional District, has announced the first portion of a schedule which will take him to all 58 counties in the 1st District before December 15th.

Dole announced the scheduled stops would be informal and non-political and were arranged to permit anyone to visit about their problems wherever he might be helpful. Dole said, "Two years ago this was done in the 6th District, and I found it most helpful. It gave me an opportunity not only to learn firsthand about specific areas of interest in the various counties but a chance to visit with many concerning individual problems."

Dole may be contacted at each county courthouse in the courtroom unless otherwise noted. Dole said, "Anyone wanting to contact me but unable to be at the courthouse at the specified time may leave word with the county clerk's office, and I will contact them by telephone."

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bob Dole, Congressman-elect of the new First Kansas Congressional District, announced the balance of a schedule which, when completed, will take him into each of the 58 counties in the new district before December 8. Last week Congressman Dole announced the 29 counties to be visited between November 19 and Thursday, November 29.

In announcing the remainder of the schedule, Dole said, "The scheduled stops will be informal and non-political, and I urge anyone who has any specific problem or interest to contact me at the time specified. We will continue to be available in the courtroom in each county courthouse, except in Elkhart and Oakley, where I may be contacted at the city building at the time specified. As stated in the previous announcement, anyone unable to contact me personally may leave word with the county clerk, or in Elkhart or Oakley with the city clerk, and I shall attempt to contact them by telephone." In the event the courtroom should be occupied, we will be available at some other office in the courthouse and will leave word with the county clerk.
