DOLE ON WINN: "KANSAS WILL MISS HIM"

TOPEKA, KANSAS -- Kansas Senator Bob Dole released the following statement regarding Congressman Larry Winn's announcement today that he will not seek re-election to another term in Congress.

"Larry Winn has been a close personal friend and a truly outstanding Congressman. Few have worked so hard or done so much for their constituents. His hallmarks have been integrity, dedication and a deep affection for the people of his district. Larry's constituent services are legendary and it will be difficult to find a replacement who can approach the standards of service established by Congressman Winn's offices."

"I am saddened that Larry will be leaving the post he has distinguished for so long, but I respect his decision. Kansas will miss him but we wish him the best in his future plans."
