DAVID MATTHEWS OF TOPEKA WORKS AS INTERN FOR SEN. DOLE

WASHINGTON -- David Matthews, son of Philip and Jacqueline Matthews, Topeka, KS, has begun work as a fall intern for Kansas Senator Bob Dole.

Matthews, who graduates from Georgetown University in 1987, will assist Sen. Dole and his staff in Washington, D.C. Matthews has been assigned to the personal office. His duties will include working closely with legislative correspondents on constituent matters and compiling data for the legislative assistants.

Matthews is in the School of Foreign Service at Georgetown while volunteering two days a week to assist Sen. Dole and his staff.
