MITCH ROSE JOINS SEN. DOLE'S STAFF IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

WASHINGTON -- Senate Majority Leader Bob Dole announced today that Mitch Rose has joined his personal staff as a press assistant for Kansas media.

"Mitch will make a great addition to the press staff," said Dole. "His knowledge of political affairs and communications made him the ideal choice for the job."

Rose will be responsible for monitoring Kansas issues, working with the Kansas press and assisting the press secretary by drafting press releases and informational mailings.

Rose, son of Dave and Fran Rose of Juneau, was a 1985 summer intern for Alaska Senator Frank Murkowski. Rose is a recent graduate of the University of Washington in Seattle. He was born in Anchorage in 1963 and graduated from East Anchorage High School in 1981. He began his communications career as a reporter for KYAK Radio in Anchorage.
