REMEMBERING SENATOR JOHN HEINZ

"John Heinz was a dynamic and dedicated public servant, a tireless champion for Pennsylvania, and a good and decent family man. I was proud to be his friend, his colleague and his leader. Ever since he came to Washington as a 32-year-old congressman, John had been one of the rising stars of the Republican party, but politics don't matter right now.

"Elizabeth and I are stunned by this horrible tragedy, and our prayers go out to John's family, and to the families of all those who perished in today's accident."
