DOLE APPOINTS DR. DONALD MCCOY OF KANSAS TO THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON THE RECORDS OF CONGRESS

WASHINGTON -- Senate Republican Leader Bob Dole announced the appointment of Dr. Donald McCoy, of Lawrence, Kansas, to the Advisory Committee on the Records of Congress.

"Well respected by his peers, Don's impressive background in history, research and preservation makes him a superb choice for this important Advisory Committee," Dole said.

The Advisory Committee was established to review the management and preservation of the records of Congress and report to and advise the Congress and the Archivist on management and preservation. The Committee is to conduct a study and submit a report to Congress.

McCoy has written a book on the history of the National Archives and biographies on Alf Landon, Calvin Coolidge and Harry Truman. He serves as a University Distinguished Professor at the University of Kansas and is a member of the Kansas Historical Records Advisory Board.
