DOLE TO ADDRESS ANNUAL AL SMITH DINNER;
LEGENDARY CATHOLIC CHARITY BENEFITS HOSPITALS

NEW YORK -- At the invitation of Archbishop John Cardinal O'Connor, Kansas Senator Bob Dole will be the speaker tonight at this year's annual Al Smith Dinner in New York City. The dinner benefits the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation -- established in the memory of the legendary Catholic Governor of New York -- which awards grants to hospitals.

The dinner, first held in 1946, is one of New York's most well-known annual events. Previous speakers have included Dwight Eisenhower, John F. Kennedy, Lyndon Johnson, Richard Nixon, Gerald Ford, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, George Bush and Bob Hope.
