AMY SMITH OF BURLINGTON, KANSAS JOINS DOLE OFFICE

WASHINGTON - Kansas Senator Bob Dole announced that Amy Smith of Burlington, Kansas, has joined his Washington office as a receptionist.

Amy graduated from Burlington High School in 1990, and earned a B.S. degree in political science from Kansas State University in 1994. In college, she was active in the Alpha Chi Omega sorority, the Student Senate and the University Activities Board.

"Amy represents all the best that Kansas has to offer," said Dole. "She's smart, she's a hard-worker and she'll go the extra mile to get the job done. I'm pleased to have her on our team."

Amy came to the Dole office from the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission. She has previously interned for Senator Dole, state Senator Emert, and state Senator Mike Harris. She is the daughter of George and Suzanne Smith of Burlington.
