

BOB DOLE
KANSAS

STANDING COMMITTEES:
AGRICULTURE, NUTRITION, AND FORESTRY
FINANCE
RULES

United States Senate

WASHINGTON, DC 20510

December 11, 1985

Dear Friends:

I wish I could be with you this evening. In between tackling the federal deficit, rolling back the Red Sea of red ink and performing a highly delicate operation to install a little backbone in the spineless wonder of Big Government, I wanted you to know that I was thinking of you all. And especially of Mrs. Loeb, whose husband anticipated the conservative agenda long before anyone else, and who continues in her own right to speak with the voice of authority and serve as the conscience of an entire movement.

Whatever may happen in the years ahead, you, Max, your colleagues and everyone who cares about individual freedom and the triumph of principle can take pride in having known Bill Loeb, and in carrying on his fight. There's never been a time more than now when we needed the example of his courage, the inspiration of Nacky's commitment, or the transcendent idealism of a man who taught us all to "Live Free or Die."

Elizabeth joins me in sending you our warmest regards for a successful gathering, and our pledge to be at your side in the unending struggle for human liberty. Bill Loeb could have no finer tribute than a roomful of friends like yourselves.

All the best.

Sincerely yours,

BOB DOLE
United States Senate

BOB DOLE
KANSAS

STANDING COMMITTEES:
AGRICULTURE, NUTRITION, AND FORESTRY
FINANCE
RULES

United States Senate

WASHINGTON, DC 20510

December 11, 1985

Dear Friends:

I wish I could be with you this evening. In between tackling the federal deficit, rolling back the Red Sea of red ink and performing a highly delicate operation to install a little backbone in the spineless wonder of Big Government, I wanted you to know that I was thinking of you all. And especially of Mrs. Loeb, whose husband anticipated the conservative agenda long before anyone else, and who continues in her own right to speak with the voice of authority and serve as the conscience of an entire movement.

Whatever may happen in the years ahead, you, Max, your colleagues and everyone who cares about individual freedom and the triumph of principle can take pride in having known Bill Loeb, and in carrying on his fight. There's never been a time more than now when we needed the example of his courage, the inspiration of Nacky's commitment, or the transcendent idealism of a man who taught us all to "Live Free or Die."

Elizabeth joins me in sending you our warmest regards for a successful gathering, and our pledge to be at your side in the unending struggle for human liberty. Bill Loeb could have no finer tribute than a roomful of friends like yourselves.

All the best.

Sincerely yours,

BOB DOLE
United States Senate

Dear Friends:

I wish I could be with you this evening. ~~Unfortunately, there's a revolution going on in Washington - the Reagan Revolution - and I find myself in the enviable position of storming the bureaucratic Bastille, and tackling the forces of status quo, yesterday's dogma - and federal red-ink which are collectively known as the~~ In between tackling the federal deficit, rolling back the Red Sea of red ink and performing a highly delicate operation to install a little backbone in the spineless wonder of Big Government, I wanted you to know that I was thinking of you all. And especially of Mrs. Loeb, whose husband anticipated the ~~Reagan-Revolution long before anyone else, and who continues to~~ conservative agenda long before anyone else, and who continues in her own right to speak with the voice of authority and serve as the conscience of an entire movement.

Whatever may happen in the years ahead, you, Max, your colleagues and everyone who cares about individual freedom and the triumph of principle can take pride in having known Bill Loeb, and in carrying on his fight. There's never been ~~an evening when I've been -~~ a time more than now when we needed the example of his courage, the inspiration of Nacky's commitment, or the transcendant idealism of a man who taught us all to "Live Free or Die!"

Elizabeth joins me in sending you our warmest regards for a successful gathering, and our pledge to be at your side in the unending struggle for liberty. Bill Loeb could have no finer tribute than a roomfull of friends like yourselves.

Human

All the best,