BOB DOLE
UNITED STATES SENATE

June 22, 1987

Dear Friends:

I regret that I am unable to be with you this evening, to honor Bill Casey. I did want to take this occasion, though, to express my deep admiration for the contributions he made to our country throughout a lifetime of dedicated work and public service.

As a war hero and winner of the Navy Star; as Chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Export-Import Bank; and, most recently, as Director of Central Intelligence and senior advisor to President Reagan -- Bill Casey has left a legacy of achievement that will long-outlive the issues of the moment.

I join with you this evening in remembering and saluting Bill Casey, for what he was and what he accomplished.

Sincerely yours,
