Dear Senator Dole:

On Tuesday, June 26, 1990, I will be hosting a small group of my strongest supporters for a day in Washington and would very much like to have you as a guest speaker for a few minutes.

These "Admirals" are some of the top business and professional leaders from the Baltimore area.

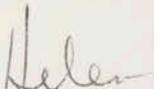

Since your time is limited, I ask that you join us for only 10 to 15 minutes to discuss some of the most critical issues and to answer a few questions.

The group will be in room 2105 of the Rayburn House Office Building from 10-2 p.m. If possible, please contact Diane Baker of my staff by Tuesday, June 12, to let her know what time is most convenient for you.

Thank you for your consideration of this request and I look forward to seeing you on the 26th.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely,

Helen Delich Bentley
Member of Congress
