RE: Meeting with Motorola PAC Advisory Council
Wednesday, November 13
Mayflower Hotel

*You will be meeting with approximately 15 people, all members of the Motorola PAC Advisory Council or Motorola officials. A list is attached.

*I spoke with Bruce Ladd, Vice President of Legislative Affairs, who said there's no reason for you to prepare any remarks. He just wants you to drop by, say what's on your mind, answer a few questions, and he'll have you out of there no later than 9:30.

*Bruce did say that it would be a nice touch if you could congratulate Travis Marshall, who will be retiring as Head of the Government Relations Office and PAC Chairman at the end of the year. He will continue as a consultant to Motorola.

*His replacement is Veronica "Roni" Haggart, a Nebraskan, who, according to Bruce, was appointed, with your help, to the International Trade Commission several years ago. (Haggart will introduce you, and you might want to mention that Nebraska beat KU this past weekend.)

Dear Bob:

The Motorola Employees Good Government Committee (M-PAC) is supported by a high-level Advisory Council which meets here in Washington annually. The Council's 1991 meeting has been set for Tuesday and Wednesday, November 12 and 13, at the Mayflower Hotel.

I am writing to invite you to be our special guest at the Council's dinner on November 12. We convene at 6:30 p.m. for cocktails, sit for dinner at 7:15 p.m., and everyone is on their way home by 9:00 p.m. There would be no need to prepare any remarks. It is very informal. You might offer a thought or two about PACs in general, for example, and a discussion would ensue.

I would very much appreciate your advising me as to your ability to join us. If there is any question, either I or M-PAC Manager Gail Schneider would be glad to try to answer it.

With every good wish.

Sincerely,

6939

Director of Legislative Affairs

Dear Bob:

We are delighted that you will be our featured guest at Motorola's annual PAC Advisory Council meeting on November 13.

As I mentioned, the meeting will be held at the Mayflower Hotel in the Maryland Room on the second floor. I will meet you at 9:00 AM at the Connecticut Avenue entrance of the Mayflower.

I am attaching a list of meeting participants. This will be the last PAC Advisory Council meeting for Travis Marshall, who is retiring at the end of the year (although he will be staying on with Motorola as a consultant). As such, it will be the first council meeting for Roni Haggart, who is replacing Travis not only as Chairperson of the PAC, but also as head of Motorola's Government Relations Office.

The post-breakfast session is an informal event, so your comments can be candid and "off the record." Since this is a gathering of our PAC officials, any Senatorial insight you might share with us on the 102nd Congress, the elections next year, your comments on the anti-PAC sentiments we so often hear, or just the current political climate would be very appreciated.

Bob, thanks again for agreeing to participate in our meeting. We promise to have you on your way back to the Hill no later than 9:30 AM.

Please have a member of your staff call me (371-6934) if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
