Pittsburg, Ks. trip

Mrs. Hite has applied for an appointment - she is a math teacher in Pittsburg. She indicated that she has written and asked for Senator Dole's support. - Walt Riker took this info to follow up.

Senator wanted to drop a note to Cora Smith, 1904 S. Elm, Pittsburg, Ks 66762. She was at the Chamber of Commerce reception Friday eve. She is the widow of Carmie Smith, football coach at Pittsburg State U. (Carmie Smith Stadium).

Mr. & Mrs. Bill Hagman, Sr., 301 Winwood, Pittsburg, also were at the reception. Senator wanted to send a tie pin to Bill.

That's all

INTRODUCTION OF
PRESIDENT NIXON

JUNE 26, 1992

IT'S BEEN QUITE A MONTH
HERE IN WICHITA. LAST WEEK,
BORIS YELTSIN DROPPED IN TO CELEBRATE THE END OF THE COLD WAR AND LEND A HAND WITH THE WHEAT CROP. AND TODAY WE ARE HONORED BY

1 —→

THE PRESENCE OF ANOTHER
DISTINGUISHED VISITOR, ONE
WHO HAS SPENT HIS LIFETIME
TOILING IN THE FIELDS OF INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND FREEDOM. OF COURSE
PRESIDENT YELTSIN DIDN'T "JUST HAPPEN" - ANY MORE THAN THE
BERLIN WALL FELL OF IT'S OWN
WEIGHT, OR COMMUNISM
COMMITTED SUICIDE.

NO: RUSSIAN DEMOCRACY IS THE PRODUCT OF FORCES SET IN MOTION DECADES AGO BY THE MAN I AM ABOUT TO INTRODUCE.

NO DOUBT ABOUT IT,
RICHARD NIXON HAS BEEN A
MAN OF VISION -- A MAN WHOSE
BOLD VISION OF A WORLD FREE
OF THE YOKE OF COMMUNIST OPPRESSION IS AS REAL TODAY

AS BORIS YELTSIN IN KANSAS.
IT WASN'T ALWAYS EASY -- OR POLITICALLY CORRECT -- BUT RICHARD NIXON KNEW THAT THE ONLY WAY TO WIN THE BATTLE OF IDEAS WAS TO STAY
TOUGH, TO TAKE THE HEAT, TO NEVER BLINK IN THE FACE OF AGGRESSION.

IN 1959 RICHARD NIXON
ENGAGED IN THE FAMOUS

"KITCHEN DEBATE" WITH A DIFFERENT KIND OF RUSSIAN
LEADER. IT WAS THERE THAT AMERICANS WERE TOLD IN NO
UNCERTAIN TERMS THAT OUR GRANDCHILDREN WOULD LIVE
UNDER COMMUNISM. WELL, MR.
PRESIDENT, I WISH NIKITA
KHRUSHCHEV'S
GRANDCHILDREN COULD BE HERE TODAY TO HELP US

CELEBRATE THE TRIUMPH OF FREEDOM.

HISTORY HAS VALIDATED
RICHARD NIXON'S VISION, WHICH IS WHY LEADERS FROM WASHINGTON TO MOSCOW TO BEIJING TO LONDON TO NEW YORK STILL SEEK HIS COUNSEL AND WISDOM, WHETHER IT'S HELMUT KOHL, JOHN MAJOR,
MIKHAIL GORBACHEV, BORIS

YELTSIN, MARIO CUOMO, OR ROSS PEROT.

THROUGHOUT HIS CAREER,
RICHARD NIXON HAS ALSO BEEN A VOICE FOR TENS OF MILLIONS OF AMERICANS DISTINGUISHED
BY THEIR LOVE OF COUNTRY, THEIR FAITH IN GOD, THEIR DEVOTION TO FAMILY AND THEIR CAPACITY FOR HARD WORK. HE HAS SPOKEN UP FOR THEIR

7 →

IDEALS -- JUST AS HE HAS DARED TO SPEAK OUT AGAINST THOSE WHO SCORNEED SUCH VIRTUES AS HOPELESSLY
OUTDATED. IF PRESIDENT
NIXON HAS DISDAINED
INTELLECTUAL FADS AND OPINION MAKING ELITES - AND HE HAS - PERHAPS IT'S BECAUSE HE KNOWS THE TRUE STRENGTH OF THIS COUNTRY IS

TO BE FOUND IN WICHITA, NOT
WASHINGTON, D.C. - AND IN THE
SEEMINGLY ORDINARY PEOPLE WHOSE EXTRAORDINARY QUALITIES GIVE MEANING AND SUBSTANCE TO THE AMERICAN DREAM.

PRESIDENT NIXON IS FOND OF A PHRASE FROM THE ANCIENT GREEK DRAMATIST SOPHOCLES WHO SAID: "ONE MUST WAIT

UNTIL THE EVENING TO SEE
HOW SPLENDID THE DAY HAS BEEN.” MR. PRESIDENT, YOUR DAY HAS BEEN SPLENDID,
INDEED. BECAUSE OF YOU,
EVERY NATION ON EARTH
SLEEPS A LITTLE EASIER NOW, FREE OF THE NUCLEAR NIGHTMARES THAT ONCE
DISTURBED THEIR DREAMS.
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, IT IS

MY HONOR, AND I MIGHT ADD,
MY GREAT PERSONAL PLEASURE, TO PRESENT THE 37TH PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, A GREAT
PEACEMAKER -- RICHARD NIXON.

POW/MIA history

- o Addressed National League of Families gathering in Capitol, 1969. Was freshman Senator. About 20 POW/MIA family members in attendance.
- o Two months later addressed hundreds gathered in Rotunda. Placed POW/MIA Flag in Rotunda, where it still stands today.
- o Annually, original sponsor of "POW/MIA Recognition Day" resolution in Senate.
- o In direct discussion with President Bush and in public statements, urged establishment of Presidential Commission, 1991.
- o Introduced legislation to establish Family Liaison Office in White House, to cut through "red tape" and bureaucratic foot-dragging and provide all relevant information to families, 1991.
- o Supported establishment of Senate Select Committee on POW/MIAs, end of First Session of 102nd Congress, 1991. Appointed Senator Bob Smith of New Hampshire as Co-Chairman.
- o Since its inception, fully supported work of Select Committee, including authorization of many foreign trips (another is planned to Russia next week).

Senator Bob Dole
141 Senate Hart Building
Washington, DC 20510

Friend Bob:

Thank you for your invitation to meet with you and President Nixon in Wichita on June 26.

Unfortunately, I cannot attend - on that day I will be engaged in a salmon fishing expedition off the Oregon coast with some of my good friends whom you have met who are working with me and with you toward getting Rex Barber the credit that he deserves for shooting down Admiral Yamamoto.

However, Bob, I will be with you in spirit and I enclose my $1,000 check as evidence of my good faith.

Would you please tell President Nixon for me that:

(1) Last week, I was in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, and in the tour of the cemetery where lie the honored Union dead they showed us the grave of President Nixon's greatgrandfather.

(2) Also please give President Nixon special greetings from my sister, Olive Clift, and her husband, Bob Clift, at Whittier College - they were in school with President Nixon in the 1930s.

I'm sorry that I cannot join you in Wichita, but I have already committed to be the host and organizer of the fishing expedition of the last week in June.

My kindest personal regards.

Cordially,

George T. Chandler

United States Senate

OFFICE OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADER

WASHINGTON, DC 20510-7020

June 24, 1992

To: PRESIDENT NIXON

From: BOB DOLE

As you prepare for your visit to Wichita, I wanted to give you a bit of the flavor of the Yeltsin visit last week.

Throughout his stay in Wichita, Yeltsin displayed his impressive political/populist skills -- an earthy eloquence, a sharp wit, a sensitivity to local interests. Whether addressing a university audience, ad libbing before a large gathering on a family farm, or wading into crowds, Yeltsin won the hearts, and made an impression on the minds, of all those Kansans he met. As but two examples of his ability to think on his feet and "play" his audiences:

- o When given a souvenir jacket by the manager of a meat packing plant, he handed over his own suit coat in exchange -- to symbolize the fact that Russia wasn't looking for any handouts.

- o Both Wichita State and Kansas State universities announced new fellowship programs for Russians during his visit -- and, on each occasion, Yeltsin responded (apparently off the cuff) with his own announcement of Russian fellowships for American students.

More substantively, Yeltsin struck essentially the same themes in Kansas that he stressed in his address to Congress and other Washington appearances:

- o Communism in Russia is not only dead, but buried. His commitment to democracy is real and irreversible. He gave no evidence that he is intensely worried about his own political survival, and said to a Wichita State University audience that he would never resign, nor could he be forced out, as President. He never even hinted at the argument that we should provide aid to help him and democracy survive.

- o Russia has no interest in, and cannot afford, a menacing military posture. As in Washington, he highlighted the new strategic arms agreement and the unilateral Russian decision to start de-targeting American sites.

o Russia is extending a hand in friendship, not looking for handouts. He repeatedly remarked that our two nations now have the opportunity for unprecedented cooperation, especially in economic and commercial matters.

o Russia is going ahead full speed with economic reforms (though Yeltsin gave few details). The appointment of Gaidar as Acting Prime Minister just before Yeltsin's arrival was undoubtedly intended as a strong signal to us of Yeltsin's steadfast commitment to fundamental reform.
