RE: Remarks to Congressional Intern Program

*You will be meeting with approximately 250-300
Congressional interns.

*As in past years, our contact has requested that you speak for a few minutes on current issues, and then open it up for Q&A.
The whole program should last between 30-45 minutes.

*A few thoughts about opening remarks are attached

SENATOR BOB DOLE
CONGRESSIONAL INTERN PROGRAM

*Thank you. It's a pleasure to be here and to talk to this group of Congressional interns.

*The Congressional Intern Program is one of the most outstanding programs in Washington, and, come to think of it, it's about the only program that Senator Byrd hasn't tried to move to West Virginia.

*You know how fortunate you are. For every one of you, there's probably 100 or 1,000 young people out there who would like to be in your shoes.

*I would urge you to make the most of your experience...to read the mail, to attend the hearings, to ask your boss questions.

*I know that most of you aren't being paid...and while you won't get rich in money this summer, you will get rich in experience and, hopefully, in appreciating public service.

*It's not very fashionable right now to be involved in politics--we're taking a lot of criticism--some of it deserved, some of it not.

*Hopefully, however, what you see here will leave you with the impression that public service is a honorable and worthwhile calling.

Dear Bob:

On behalf of the Congressional Intern Program, sponsored by the Committee on House Administration and the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, we would like to invite you to participate, as a guest speaker, in this year's Intern Lecture Series.

Over 4,000 students, from across the United States, served as Congressional Interns in 1991. Our objective is to offer an educational program on the important issues facing our Nation and the world. Your participation, in this year's Lecture Series will be both informative and inspiring to these young, enthusiastic Americans.

Thanks to the participation of many of our colleagues, last year's series was a great success. Our staff is now planning the schedule for the 1992 Spring/Summer program. Please have your office contact Hilary Lieber, Director of the Congressional Intern Program at 226-3621, regarding a mutually agreeable date and time between June 2nd and August 14th.

Thank you for your consideration of this invitation.

Sincerely,

Charlie Rose
