MEMORANDUM TO THE LEADER

FROM: JOHN DIAMANTAKIOU John

SUBJECT: POLITICAL BRIEFING

Below is an outline of your briefing materials for North Carolina. Enclosed are the following:

1. Campaign briefing:
 - talking points - issues
 - Taylor biography
 - District overview
 - Event preview
2. North Carolina Election Results
3. State Statistical Summary
4. State GOP/DFP Supporter list
5. District Map

Talking Points

- * Charles Taylor won an historic victory in 1992 -- overcoming the Democrat's gerrymander of the 11th District and the targeting of the race by the DCCC in Washington
- * Taylor's victory margin of 22,205 votes is more than the margins of the previous five elections combined
- * The great victory is a tribute to Charles, but also a tribute to the hard work of the hundreds of volunteers and supports attending Monday's Victory Dinner
- * As a founder and member of "The Gang of Seven," Charles Taylor has fought for meaningful reforms in Washington -- like the Line-Item Veto, the Balanced Budget Amendment, and Congressional Term Limits
- * Taylor and "The Gang of Seven" stood up to the House Democrat leadership and demanded full disclosure of the House Check Bouncing Scandal
- * Charles has also been an effective advocate for Western North Carolina
- * He won funding for a new $12.6 million nursing home at Asheville's Veterans Hospital; Charles won an agreement with TVA to delay the annual drawdown of its lakes in North Carolina, which will help create new jobs in the district
- * In just two years, Charles Taylor has already emerged as an effective voice in Washington for the people of Western North Carolina

The District

North Carolina's 11th District won fame during the 1980s as the most competitive congressional district in the country. Between 1980 and 1990, five of six incumbents were defeated and every race since 1980 was decided by fewer than 4300 votes.

11th District voters took turns bouncing Republican Bill Hendon and Democrat James McClure Clarke out of office between 1980 and 1986. In 1988, Clarke broke the string of incumbent defeats when he beat Republican newcomer Charles Taylor by 1573 votes. But in the 1990 rematch, Taylor defeated Clarke by 2653 votes -- the first win by a Republican candidate in an off-year election since 1896.

Taylor faced several new obstacles in the 1992 campaign. Redistricting gave the Democrats an even greater registration edge, raising their 56%-37% advantage to a 60%-34% gap by replacing 15,000 registered Republicans with 15,000 Democrats.

The Democrat challenger in 1992 was Jack Stevens, a prominent lawyer from Asheville who served 8 years in the N.C. House in the 1970s. Large contributions from his fellow trial lawyers and out-of-state labor unions helped make Stevens the best-funded challenger in North Carolina.

These factors make Taylor's victory margin of 10 percentage points and 22,000 votes even more impressive.

The Eleventh District comprises all or parts of the 16 western-most counties in North Carolina. With 65,000 people, Asheville is the largest city in this mountainous district.

The historic Biltmore House, Pisgah National Forest and the Great Smokies National Park are major factors in the region's large tourism industry. Textile, furniture and paper products make up the district's manufacturing base. Tobacco is the major cash crop.

In recent years, waves of affluent retirees have moved into the region, giving the 11th District the largest percentage of people 65 and older in North Carolina.

1992:	Charles Taylor (R)	130,208	55%
	Jack Stevens (D)	108,033	45%
1990:	Charles Taylor (R)	101,991	51%
	Jamie Clarke (D)	99,318	49%
1988:	Charles Taylor (R)	106,907	49%
	Jamie Clarke (D)	108,436	51%

The Event

"The Charles Taylor Victory Dinner" is a two-tiered fundraiser at the Grove Park Inn in Asheville. The dinner and reception, which will raise funds to retire campaign debt, is the major Republican event of the year in Western North Carolina.

Senator-elect Lauch Faircloth, Congressman Cass Ballenger, N.C. GOP Chairman Jack Hawke and N.C. State Supreme Court Judge Bob Orr -- the only Republican judge elected in the statewide races this year -- are all attending.

At 5:35 PM, there will be a news conference with Senator Dole and Rep. Taylor at the Grove Park Inn. Short remarks from Rep. Taylor welcoming Sen. Dole to Western North Carolina. Sen. Dole then says how glad he is to be here and compliments Rep. Taylor on his victory. Questions and answer period for media. News conference should take no more than 20 minutes.

At 6:00 PM, there will be a $125 per person reception preceding the dinner. 150-200 people are expected. Members of Taylor's "Committee of 100" ($1,000 campaign contributors) will have their photograph taken with Sen. Dole and Rep. Taylor.

At 7:00 PM, the $25 per plate dinner begins. 350-400 people are expected. Sen. Dole is introduced by Rep. Taylor. Sen. Dole gives a 20-25 minute speech (suggested talking points are attached.)

By 8:00 PM, Sen. Dole departs for Asheville Airport.

CHARLES H. TAYLOR

Rep. Charles Taylor, who was first elected to Congress in 1990, is a native of Western North Carolina's 11th Congressional District. He graduated from Brevard High School and earned his B.A. and law degrees at Wake Forest University.

Taylor, a tree farmer, served from 1967-1973 in the N.C. State House, the last four years as the Minority Leader. He then served one term in the N.C. State Senate, again as the Minority Leader.

In the U.S. House of Representatives, Taylor sits on the Committees on Public Works and Transportation, Interior and Insular Affairs, and the Select Committee on Aging. He is also a member of the House Republican Research Committee.

Taylor's 1992 reelection was an historic victory -- Taylor is the first 11th District Republican to win two consecutive terms since 1896 and his victory margin of 22,205 votes is the largest margin in over 12 years.

Charles H. Taylor is married to the former Elizabeth (Betty) Bryan Owen. They have three sons: Owen, 13; Bryan, 11; and Charles Robert, 10.

SPECIAL GUEST

Honorable Bob Dole Republican Leader United States Senate

Recognized as one of America's towering political figures, Senator Bob Dole has a distinguished record of public service that spans four decades. A decorated and wounded combat veteran of World War II, Bob Dole was born and raised on the plains of western Kansas. This tough, common sense conservative from America's heartland has experience few can match: he has been the Senate Majority Leader, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, a two-time candidate for President, his party's nominee for Vice President, a member of the House of Representatives, the Chairman of the Republican Party, a state legislator and a county attorney.

LEADERSHIP

Currently in his fourth term as the Senate Republican Leader, Bob Dole is the President's point man on Capital Hill, a job the Kansas Republican has handled so effectively, President Bush said, "I count my blessings that he's Leader in the Senate for our party. He's been a great Republican Leader, as great as any in the past." As one of only 15 Americans to serve as Senate Majority Leader, Senator Dole won praise nationwide, and according to Congressional Quarterly, "it is against his performance and ability to use power that Senate leaders in the foreseeable future will be judged."

SACRIFICE

During the second World War, Bob Dole was a platoon leader in the legendary Tenth Mountain Division in Italy. In 1945, he was gravely wounded on the battlefield and was later twice decorated for heroic achievement. His decorations include two Purple Hearts and a Bronze Star with Oakleaf Cluster.

FAMILY

Senator Dole was born in Russell, Kansas, on July 22, 1923. He is married to Elizabeth Hanford Dole, President of the American Red Cross. Senator Dole also has a daughter, Robin, who resides in Washington, D.C.
