Dear Bob:

On behalf of the Republican Eagles and the Presidential Trustees, I want to invite you to a special meeting during the first week in January. As you know, the Eagles and the Trustees are the Republican Party's premier donor groups.

On Thursday, January 7, we are arranging a brunch and political briefing for our members in the Ballroom of the Mayflower Hotel. We are hoping you will be able to join us. Brunch will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. If it fits in with your schedule, we would like you to address the Eagles and Trustees from 12 noon-12:30 p.m. Our usual format consists of ten minutes of remarks, followed by twenty minutes of questions. Invitations have also been extended to RNC Chairman Rich Bond and Bob Teeter.

Of course, this is entirely dependent on your schedule. I realize how much you are currently in demand. If the above time is not feasible, please let us know. We are more than willing to accommodate you. The Eagles and Trustees would truly like to hear from you, one of the undisputed leaders of our Party.

In addition, the President and Mrs. Bush have graciously invited this group to the White House for receptions on January 6 and January 7. We certainly want to include you and Elizabeth in this event on either evening of your choice.

Bob, please have a member of your staff contact Dulce Zahniser in my office at (202) 863-8720 to let us know if you will be able to address the Republican Eagles and Presidential Trustees on January 7, 1993.

I hope you will join us.

Sincerely,

RE: Remarks to Republican Eagles and Presidential Trustees
Thursday at 12:00

*You will be speaking to approximately 300 RNC Eagles and Trustees in town for two days of meetings and White House receptions.

*I based these talking points on comments you made to me the other night that these people are probably tired of being tired of giving money, and not being asked for their advice.

*These remarks envision you talking for about 5 minutes, and then spending about 25 minutes in a Q & A session, letting them air their complaints, and inviting their thoughts on the future of the Party.

MARYLAND REPUBLICAN PARTY

Joyce Lyons Terhes
Chairman

November 23, 1992

The Honorable Robert Dole
United States Senate
141 Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Dole;

It is my honor to invite you to be the guest of honor at the Third Annual Red, White and Blue Dinner to be held at the Hyatt Regency in Baltimore. All proceeds will benefit the Maryland Republican Party.

The Maryland Republican Party is gaining by leaps and bounds in a State that is traditionally a strong hold for the Democrat Party. Not only were we successful in re-electing our three Republican incumbent Representatives, but we also added a new Congressman to our delegation - Roscoe Bartlett. Maryland Republicans may now enjoy, for the first time since 1974, a fifty per cent voice within their delegation in Washington.

While we celebrate our victories in 1992 we are eagerly preparing for 1994. Maryland Republicans have the best chance in two decades to capture the Governorship. We also believe it's time for Maryland Republicans to recapture a U.S. Senate seat while carving an equal voice in the Maryland General Assembly, along with every local office.

The Annual Red, White and Blue dinner traditionally attracts between 250 and 300 Republican activists from across the state. We have targeted the days of February 9th, 10th, 23rd, 24th, or 25th as opportune days for an event of this nature. The dinner will be held at approximately 7 -9 pm with a private reception at 6:30.

I hope you will consider speaking at our Third Annual Red, White and Blue Dinner and I look forward to confirming a date that will suit your schedule. Please do not hesitate to call me if you require any additional information.

Sincerely,

Joyce Lyons Terhes
Chairman

*Senator, we'd be honored
