*Tonight's dinner is billed as a "Salute to Caspar Weinberger and the Victims of the Walsh 'Witch Hunt.'"

*You will be introduced by Lyn Nofziger.

*David Keene reviewed draft remarks and thought they were right on target.

SENATOR BOB DOLE
CPAC SALUTE TO CAP
WEINBERGER
FEBRUARY 18, 1993

THANK YOU.
ON MONDAY NIGHT,
PRESIDENT CLINTON SAID HE HAD BEEN IN WASHINGTON, D.C.
FOR 27 DAYS, AND HE HADN'T
BEEN ABLE TO FIND MUCH

COMMON SENSE. I TOLD HIM
ALL HE HAD TO DO TO CORRECT
THAT SITUATION WAS TO COME
TO THE 20TH ANNUAL CPAC CONFERENCE.

IT IS A PLEASURE TO BE HERE
TONIGHT, AND TO BE SURROUNDED BY SO MANY FELLOW "COMMON SENSE"
CONSERVATIVES. THIS CPAC

GATHERING IS VERY DIFFERENT
FROM THE ONES YOU'VE HELD
THESE PAST DOZEN YEARS.

FROM 1981 TO 1992, WHEN
YOU MET IN WASHINGTON, YOU
KNEW THAT WHILE CONGRESS
MIGHT BE AWASH WITH LIBERALS, THERE WAS A
CONSERVATIVE AT THE OTHER END OF PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE.

THIS YEAR, OF COURSE,
THINGS HAVE CHANGED.
LIBERALS CONTROL THE HOUSE.
LIBERALS CONTROL THE
SENATE. LIBERALS CONTROL
THE WHITE HOUSE. AND, BY THE WAY, LIBERALS ALSO CONTROL LAWRENCE WALSH.
THE MEDIA "SPIN" AFTER LAST NOVEMBER'S ELECTION WAS

THAT IT WAS A DEFEAT OF CONSERVATIVE PRINCIPLES.
SINCE PRESIDENT CLINTON WAS ELECTED WITH 43% OF THE
VOTE, THIS IS LIKE SAYING THAT THE SUPER BOWL WAS A
DEFEAT FOR THE DALLAS COWBOYS.

I BELIEVE THAT THE VAST MAJORITY OF AMERICANS STILL

SUPPORT CONSERVATIVE
VALUES...VALUES SUCH AS LESS TAXES, LESS SPENDING, AND FEWER GOVERNMENT
MANDATES...VALUES LIKE
ENSURING AMERICANS ARE SAFE--FROM TYRANTS ABROAD, AND FROM CRIMINALS HERE AT HOME.

THOSE VALUES ARE NOW BEING CHALLENGED BY PRESIDENT CLINTON, WHO TOLD US LAST NIGHT THAT AMERICA
NEEDS A 361 BILLION DOLLAR
TAX INCREASE--AN INCREASE
THAT WILL REACH ALL AMERICANS WHO MAKE AT LEAST $30,000.

I BELIEVE THAT AMERICANS
NEED A TAX INCREASE ABOUT
AS MUCH AS RUSH LIMBAUGH
NEEDS ASSERTIVENESS TRAINING.

BUT I DON'T WANT TO GET INTO DEBATING ECONOMIC POLICY, FOR THERE WILL BE
PLENTY OF TIME FOR THAT LATER.

TONIGHT WE ARE GATHERED FOR A DIFFERENT REASON.
TONIGHT WE ARE GATHERED TO SALUTE AN AMERICAN HERO.
IN HIS MONDAY NIGHT
SPEECH, PRESIDENT CLINTON
ALSO TOOK IT UPON HIMSELF
TO DEFINE 'PATRIOTISM'. IN HIS VIEW, IF YOU SUPPORT HIS CALL FOR TAX INCREASES, YOU'RE A

PATRIOT. IF YOU DON'T SUPPORT IT, YOU'RE NOT A
PATRIOT.

WELL, TONIGHT, I WANT TO GIVE MY OWN DEFINITION OF A
"PATRIOT."

MY DEFINITION OF A PATRIOT IS SOMEONE WHO HAS DEVOTED HIS ENTIRE LIFE TO SERVING AMERICA.

A PATRIOT IS SOMEONE WHO BEGAN HIS CAREER AS A BUCK
PRIVATE IN THE ARMY, AND ROSE TO THE RANK OF CAPTAIN, SERVING AS THE INTELLIGENCE OFFICER TO GENERAL MACARTHUR.

A PATRIOT IS SOMEONE WHO SERVED HIS STATE IN THE LEGISLATURE AND AS DIRECTOR

OF FINANCE.

A PATRIOT IS SOMEONE WHO SERVED HIS COUNTRY AS CHAIRMAN OF THE FTC, AS DIRECTOR OF THE OMB, AND AS SECRETARY OF HEALTH, EDUCATION AND WELFARE.

A PATRIOT IS SOMEONE WHO SERVED FOR SIX AND A HALF YEARS AS SECRETARY OF

DEFENSE, AND WHO, ALONG WITH RONALD REAGAN AND
GEORGE BUSH, RE-BUILT
AMERICA'S MILITARY, AND RESTORED THE MORALE OF THE
MEN AND WOMEN WHO DIG THE TRENCHES, SWAB THE DECKS, FIX THE ENGINES, DRIVE THE TANKS, FLY THE PLANES, AND FACE THE ENEMY FOR ALL OF US.

A PATRIOT IS SOMEONE WHO STOOD HIS GROUND AND WOULDN'T BUCKLE UNDER WHEN FACED WITH AN
UNPRINCIPLED PERSECUTOR WITH UNLIMITED STAFF, AN UNLIMITED BUDGET, AND AN UNLIMITED EGO.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, I'M PROUD TO SAY THAT MY DEFINITION OF A PATRIOT IS CASPAR WEINBERGER.

AND YOU AND I KNOW THERE
ARE SOME OTHER PATRIOTS ON THIS PODIUM. PATRIOTS LIKE
CLAIR GEORGE, ELLIOT ABRAMS,
DEWEY CLARRIDGE, AND LYN NOFZIGER.

I MENTIONED A LITTLE EARLIER THAT CAP ONCE
WORKED FOR GENERAL
MCARTHUR. AS YOU KNOW,
MCARTHUR WAS FAMOUS FOR THE STATEMENT "I SHALL RETURN."

WELL, I WANT TO SPEND A FEW MINUTES TONIGHT TALKING ABOUT LAWRENCE WALSH--A

MAN WHOSE MOTTO SEEMS TO BE "I SHALL NEVER LEAVE."

IT USED TO BE SAID THAT THE ONLY "SURE THINGS" IN LIFE
WERE DEATH AND TAXES. NOW
THERE'S A THIRD "SURE THING."
AND THAT'S THE FACT THAT EACH AND EVERY DAY,
LAWRENCE WALSH WILL CONTINUE TO STICK THE

AMERICAN TAXPAYER WITH AN EVER-INCREASING BILL FOR HIS ONE MAN VENDETTA.

OVER THE YEARS, I'VE TAKEN TO THE SENATE FLOOR ON COUNTLESS OCCASIONS TO DETAIL THE DISMAL RECORD OF LAWRENCE WALSH.

I'VE DISCUSSED HIS RECORD OF COURTROOM

EMBARRASSMENTS.

I'VE DISCUSSED HIS
VIOLATION OF WASHINGTON,
D.C. TAX LAWS.

I'VE DISCUSSED THE FIRST
CLASS AIR FARES, THE LAVISH
OFFICE SPACE, THE WATERGATE
HOTEL ROOM, THE BREAKFASTS,
AND THE DINNERS, PROVIDED BY THE AMERICAN TAXPAYER.

I'VE DISCUSSED HIS BLATANT INTERFERENCE INTO THE AMERICAN POLITICAL PROCESS.

I'VE DISCUSSED HIS FREQUENT VIOLATION OF
NATIONAL SECURITY
REGULATIONS.

BESIDES ALL THAT, I DON'T HAVE ANY COMPLAINTS.

IT TOOK A WHILE FOR THE MEDIA TO HEAR WHAT I WAS SAYING ABOUT MR. WALSH, BUT WITH THE HELP OF SOME OF
THE PEOPLE HERE IN THIS ROOM, THEY ARE FINALLY GETTING THE MESSAGE, AND MANY ARE FINALLY ASKING THE QUESTIONS THAT NEED TO BE ASKED.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, I TRULY BELIEVE THAT WHEN THE
HISTORY OF OUR TIME IS FAIRLY
AND ACCURATELY WRITTEN, IT WILL REFLECT THE FACT THAT
COMMUNISM DIDN'T COLLAPSE
ON ITS OWN. IT COLLAPSED
BECAUSE OF THE STEELY RESOLVE OF MEN LIKE RONALD

REAGAN, GEORGE BUSH, AND CAP WEINBERGER.

IT WILL REFLECT THE FACT
THAT THE VICTORY IN THE
PERSIAN GULF WAS DUE IN PART TO THE VISION OF CAP
WEINBERGER, WHO ENSURED
THAT AMERICA HAD THE BEST-
TRAINED SOLDIERS ARMED WITH THE BEST EQUIPMENT.

IT WILL REFLECT THE FACT THAT IT WAS THE CONSERVATIVE LEADERSHIP OF
MEN LIKE RONALD REAGAN,
GEORGE BUSH, AND CAP
WEINBERGER THAT
PERMANENTLY MOVED BACK
THE HANDS OF THE NUCLEAR DOOMSDAY CLOCK.

AND IT WILL REFLECT THE
FACT THAT WHILE LAWRENCE
WALSH MAY HAVE MADE A FEW
HEADLINES IN THE LIBERAL
MEDIA, CAP WEINBERGER MADE A DIFFERENCE.

I THANK YOU FOR INVITING ME HERE TONIGHT TO PAY
TRIBUTE TO CAP, AND I HOPE THAT THE NEXT TIME WE ARE

TOGETHER WILL BE AT MR.
WALSH'S RETIREMENT PARTY.
THANK YOU.

I've been acquainted with the American Conservative Union since its conception and know it to be a dynamic organization. ACU's activities provide an important means to rally conservatives throughout America.

— RONALD REAGAN

Conservatives all across America can be proud of what ACU has accomplished over the years. Moreover, its future promises a vital role in the struggle to return our nation to the principles upon which it was founded.

THE AMERICAN CONSERVATIVE UNION
38 IVY STREET, SE • WASHINGTON, DC 20003

DAVID A. KEENE, Chairman

60s

- About 90 young people gather at the Sharon, Connecticut estate of William F. Buckley, Jr. to lay the groundwork for a new national conservative youth organization. It is here that Young Americans for Freedom is born and our statement of principles, the Sharon Statement, is drafted.
- New Guard magazine makes its debut as the official magazine of YAF.
- YAF spearheads the campaign of Barry Goldwater for President. Goldwater's campaign catalyzed YAF more than any other event in its history. A highlight of YAF's movement to make Goldwater the Republican nominee is an astonishing rally in New York's Madison Square Garden where 18,500 conservatives gather to show their support for Senator Goldwater. Lee Edwards, former New Guard editor, said "Barry Goldwater made YAF, but YAF also made Barry Goldwater."
- Ronald Reagan joins the YAF National Advisory Board in 1962 and continues on today, 28 years later, as Honorary Chairman.
- "STOP RED TRADE" becomes a hallmark of YAF's 30-year history. IBM, Mack Truck, and Firestone Tire and Rubber are targeted for engaging in high visibility trade with the Soviet bloc. YAF successfully stops Firestone's attempt to build a synthetic rubber plant in Communist Rumania through letter-writing campaigns, boycotts, and demonstrations. YAF's plan to distribute 500,000 flyers at the Indianapolis 500 is seen as a key to the decision by Firestone executives.
- YAF goes on the offensive against radical left-wing groups like Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and New MOBE in support of a U.S. victory in Vietnam. These fights carry YAF into its second decade.

70s

- YAF continues its support of the U.S. efforts in Vietnam. While U.S. soldiers are fighting in the fields of Vietnam, YAF is fighting on the college campuses and in communities across the country. YAF, though opposing the draft, supports the move to resist communism in Southeast Asia and in American classrooms.
- YAF goes on the offensive when President Nixon sells out the free Republic of China and opens relations with communist Red China.
- A number of YAF projects are started as ad hoc committees and affiliated groups to address specific issues. These groups include Youth For the Voluntary Prayer Amendment, Students Committee for the Right to Keep and Bear Arms, Young America's Foundation, Free Campus News Service, STOP-NSA Committee, and the National Student Committee for Victory In Vietnam. Today some of these organizations still exist, independently, and continue "to fight the good fight."
- In 1974, YAF, along with the American Conservative Union, sponsors a modest but ambitious gathering called the Conservative Political Action Conference (CPAC). CPAC has become the largest annual gathering of conservatives in America and is still going strong sixteen years later.
- YAF begins and continues a number of projects to support Vietnam veterans and their causes. "Project Appreciation" gives YAFers the opportunity to write, visit, and provide needed supplies to hospitalized veterans. YAF works on various POW/MIA issues and treasonous "Hanoi" Jane Fonda becomes a target of YAF attacks.
- The Carter Administration is an easy target of YAF. With huge, unprecedented government growth the order of the day, Carter's policies fly in the face of all that YAF stands for. YAF is active in opposing the give away of the Panama Canal and the SALT treaties.
- The Iran Hostage Crisis opens the eyes of many people to the failures of the Carter Administration and provides YAF a rallying point in 1979. YAF holds a campaign to generate thousands of letters of encouragement to the hostages and presses the Administration to take action.

80s

- YAF's long time friend and advisor, Ronald Reagan is elected 40th President of the United States. The election of Reagan ushers in the conservative decade. YAFers around the nation mobilize in support of Reagan's 1980 agenda. Many YAFers receive appointments to the Reagan Administration.
- Reagan Administration officials and prospective appointees who are targeted by the radical left are strongly defended by YAF. YAFers rally to the support of both Labor Secretary Raymond Donovan, Interior Secretary James Watt, Circuit Court Judge Dan Manion, Supreme Court nominee Robert Bork, and NSC staff member Lt. Colonel Oliver North.
- The conservative decade also brings a new resurgence of left-wing intolerance on college campuses. Radical left-wing administrators, faculty, and students go on the rampage in their attempts to silence conservative students by blocking conservative student organizations and publications. YAF continues to fight to bring First Amendment rights to our college campuses.
- YAF scores a victory for free speech when the Supreme Court renders its decision in the case Boos v. Barry. The ruling overturns a D.C. ordinance that forbids demonstrators against a foreign government to carry their protest within 500 feet of the nation's embassy.
- YAF stands solidly behind the Reagan Doctrine and supports Freedom Fighters around the globe through campus activities. YAF sponsors a variety of speaking tours by representatives of the Nicaraguan Resistance, the Mujahaddin of Afghanistan, UNITA from Angola, and the ARENA Party of El Salvador.

90s

- YAF opens the decade after launching the most successful Fall Offensive in recent history. YAF recruiters were active in 16 states and on over 75 college campuses. The drive centered around a push to Pardon Oliver North and generated tremendous response in support of this American hero.
- In August 1991, YAF held its 16th National Convention in Washington, D.C. YAF members from around the country gathered to reaffirm our commitment to conservative principles and heard such speakers as William F. Buckley Jr., Secretary of Defense Dick Cheney and G. Gordon Liddy.
- YAF National Chairman meets with Vice President Dan Quayle and delivers over 40,000 petitions in support of the Vice President.
- YAF launches Anita Hill Truth Squad to expose the lies of Anita Hill. YAFers confront Anita Hill on college campuses across America.
- YAF pushes 1992 Republican National Convention to continue strong support for conservative issues. YAF's New Guard touts Quayle's accomplishments and lauds Pat Buchanan's contributions to the conservative movement.

The RULING

Inside the

CLASS

ERIC FELTEN
The Heritage Foundation

...Takes you inside the Imperial Congress to reveal what legislators prefer to keep hidden — the remarkable abdication by Congress of its lawmaking role. The Ruling Class combines startling new revelations of Congressional shenanigans with lucid explanations of the constitutional issues at stake.

Author Eric Felten, Congressional Studies Fellow at Heritage, uncovers the real and often outrageous story of how Congress operates; analyzes the structural and political incentives that transform well-intentioned Representatives into self-serving porkmongers; and zeroes in on the changes necessary to rejuvenate the legislative powers of Congress and restore a truly representative legislature.

As David Mason, Director of Heritage's U.S. Congress Assessment Project says, "The Ruling Class maps out possibilities for tomorrow. Its advice, if heeded, would restore to Congress the degree of dignity and public approval that ought to attend the nation's highest deliberative body."

"Compelling and troubling accounts of how business is done on Capitol Hill," William J. Bennett, former Secretary of Education

"A loud and lively call for Congress to resume its legislative task... Felten's book is full of spirit and sparkle, provocative, and fully in tune with demands in our time for change in government,"

Join ISI in the Battle of Ideas

The Intercollegiate Studies Institute (ISI) is a non-profit, educational organization that has been carrying out a very specific program since 1953. ISI works with college students and faculty, articulating the importance of a traditional liberal arts education rooted in the Western heritage. ISI believes that if America is to prosper as a free society, her young people must have a solid understanding and respect for the ideas and institutions that make America great: individual liberty and personal responsibility, limited government, private property and a free market economy, the rule of law, and moral norms based on classical and Judeo-Christian thought.

Publications

CAMPUS, a newspaper written and edited entirely by students, features articles on the steady politicization of the academy and the undermining of the ideas and norms that comprise the American heritage. It reaches more than 125,000 readers at 1,000 colleges and universities.

The Intercollegiate Review, as a scholarly journal, examines important issues of the day in greater detail. Together, these two publications link ISI and students in the effort to effect reform in the academy.

In addition, ISI publishes Modern Age: A Quarterly Review and The Political Science Reviewer and makes available more than 50 books, audio cassettes, video tapes, and article reprints at very low prices.

Lecture Program

The ISI Lecture Program sponsors more than 250 lectures each year on college campuses. The program has over 450 speakers on file available to speak on such topics as Economics, Foreign Policy, History, Humane Letters, Science, Law & Public Policy, and the Political and Social Sciences.

Conference Program

The ISI Conference Program conducts over 20 educational conferences and seminars around the country each year. Designed to augment a true education, the conferences offer students an opportunity to study under top scholars in an environment conducive to learning.

Awards Program

ISI awards over $140,000 a year in fellowships to graduate students who intend to pursue teaching careers. The fellowship programs assist future professors who appreciate the need for a true liberal arts education and who seek to restore distinction and worth to university studies.

The ISI Membership Network

ISI works closely with over 2,100 student Campus Representatives and Faculty Associates. These special ISI representatives introduce fellow students and faculty to ISI, promote ISI publications and programs, and arrange ISI lectures on their campuses. In return, they receive complimentary books and advance notice of ISI events. If you are interested in serving as an ISI Campus Representative or Faculty Associate, please contact ISI National Director Christopher Long at 1-800-526-7022. If you just want to receive CAMPUS and The Intercollegiate Review free, call the same number.

Ashland University

Accent on the Individual

- A private, liberal arts institution located in the Midwest between Cleveland and Columbus, Ohio, Ashland University believes in the philosophy of "Accent on the Individual."
- The student-faculty ratio of 16-to-1 means students receive the individual attention essential for educational growth.
- Academic instruction is further enhanced because classes and labs are taught by professors, not graduate assistants.
- Because the faculty are teaching oriented, they spend whatever time is necessary to ensure that students attain a quality education.

School of Arts and Humanities

- Ashland University features a radio/TV program considered one of the best in the country. Students receive hands-on experience beginning in their freshman year.
- Ashland's theatre department, which is recognized nationally, features graduates such as actor Dwier Brown, who portrayed Kevin Costner's father as a young man in the 1989 film "Field of Dreams" and actress Amy Stock, a former cast member of the TV show, "Dallas."

School of Business

Administration/Economics

- Ashland University's Gill Center for Business and Economic Education offers a dialogue program which provides students an opportunity to interact with business executives.
- Ashland is one of a limited number of private institutions offering a major in hospitality administration with instruction in hotel and restaurant management.

School of Education and Related Professions

- Ashland University's Education Programs received accreditation by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, and Ashland is one of only nine private schools in Ohio that meets the national standards set for education curriculum.
- Ashland was selected by the Ohio Department of Education as one of four schools in the state to participate in the "Classroom of the Future" project. Designed to prepare youngsters to live and work in the 21st century, this project puts Ashland education students at the forefront of shaping higher education for the future.

Ashland University's John M. Ashbrook Center provides a unique opportunity for the study and research of the principles and practice of American constitutional government and politics. The Ashbrook Center offers $1,000 scholarships per semester for political science majors or public affairs minors. The Center provides unique internship opportunities in state and federal government. As part of its activities, the Center hosts a Major Issues Lecture Series and other academic forums on contemporary political and scholarly issues. Speakers at the Center's Memorial Dinners have included Ronald Reagan, George Bush, Caspar Weinberger and Dick Cheney. The Center's director is F. Clifton White.

School of Sciences

- Ashland University is one of only six schools in the nation to offer an undergraduate degree program with a major in toxicology.
- Pre-Professional studies are offered in a number of pre-professional programs, including pre-engineering, pre-law, pre-medicine, pre-dentistry, pre-pharmacy, pre-medical technology, pre-physical therapy, pre-seminary and pre-veterinary medicine.

Athletics

- Ashland University is the only Division II athletic program in the state of Ohio. The program fields 11 men's and eight women's teams.
- Nearly 400 Ashland athletes have received All-America honors and during the past six years four athletes have been named recipients of NCAA post-graduate scholarships.

College Life

- Ashland University's dining services has received the National Association of College and University Food Services' first place award the past four years.

- Ashland's financial aid opportunities make a quality education affordable. Financial assistance is given to 95 percent of all students who attend on a full-time basis, with an average award of approximately $7,000.

- Ashland is proud of its involvement in small town life, which boasts friendly people, a pleasant atmosphere and a peaceful community - all important items in today's society.

"I'VE HATED YOU FOR YEARS!"

Ed Asner
liberal Hollywood activist.

When liberal Hollywood activist Ed Asner first met Brad O'Leary, he asked him if he was the O'Leary of the O'Leary/Kamber Report.

When Brad said yes, Asner replied, "I've been reading that newsletter and I've hated you for years"!

When you tune into America's newest radio talk show, The O'Leary/Kamber Report, you'll find out why the liberal left hates Brad O'Leary so much.

It's more than talk radio, It's "in-your-face", "fightin words", point/counterpoint radio for both America's right and left. And it's being carried on more than 200 radio stations nationwide. Whatever your politics, it will get you thinking and get your blood boiling.

Business Mail Express is a proud sponsor of the O'Leary/Kamber Report. To get a list of the stations in your area that are carrying the O'Leary/Kamber Report, stop by the Business Mail Express booth in the C-PAC exhibit hall.

Finally, a major national organization for senior citizens who support the American free enterprise system and oppose higher taxes and Big Government:

The United Seniors Association, Inc.

Almost alone among seniors' organizations, USA, Inc. backed Clarence Thomas for the Supreme Court... supported the Balanced Budget Amendment... opposed the "motor voter" proposal... favored term limits for members of Congress... and opposed the Richard Darman budget deal.

USA, Inc.'s monthly newsletter, THE SENIOR AMERICAN, has detailed the House bank and post office scandals... attacked delays in the approval of lifesaving drugs... exposed the anti-Clarence Thomas smear campaign... peeked inside the newly-opened archives of the Soviet communists... analyzed the Social Security earnings test, America's most unfair tax... examined the platform of Ross Perot... uncovered the secrets behind the foreign aid program... revealed the truth about "free" medical care... told who profited from the S&L scandal... and exhaustively listed Congressional perks.

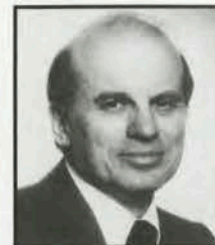

Several powerful Congressmen and the editors of The New York Times have called upon the federal government to censor THE SENIOR AMERICAN. Join the over 350,000 members and supporters of the United Seniors Association... and find out why the Big Government gang doesn't like us!

Founding Chairman: George Murphy, who died May 3, 1992, was a former actor who appeared in 55 films... a founder and two-term president of the Screen Actors Guild... former vice president of Desilu Studios and the Technicolor Corporation... former vice president of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences... former president of the National Football Foundation... and former chairman of the California Republican state committee. In 1964, in his first attempt at political office, he was elected to the United States Senate.

In an obituary National Review noted that "Ronald Reagan is so thoroughly identified with the role of actor-turned-politician that it's hard to remember that others blazed the trail. Reagan wasn't even the first Hollywood star to win public office as an outspoken conservative. That honor belongs to George Murphy."

Co-Founder: Richard Viguerie was executive secretary (director) of Young Americans for Freedom... founded the leading conservative advertising/direct mail firm... and founded Conservative Digest magazine in 1975 and served as its publisher for ten years. He is the author of The New Right, The Establishment vs. the People, and (with Steven Allen) Lip Service: George Bush's 30-Year Battle with Conservatives.

Editor, THE SENIOR AMERICAN: Steven Allen, former senior editor of Conservative Digest, former press secretary to U.S. Senator Jeremiah Denton (R-Alabama), and three-time Reagan delegate to the Republican National Convention.

Development Director: Mike Korbey, Reagan appointee to various positions in the Departments of Labor, Education, and HUD.

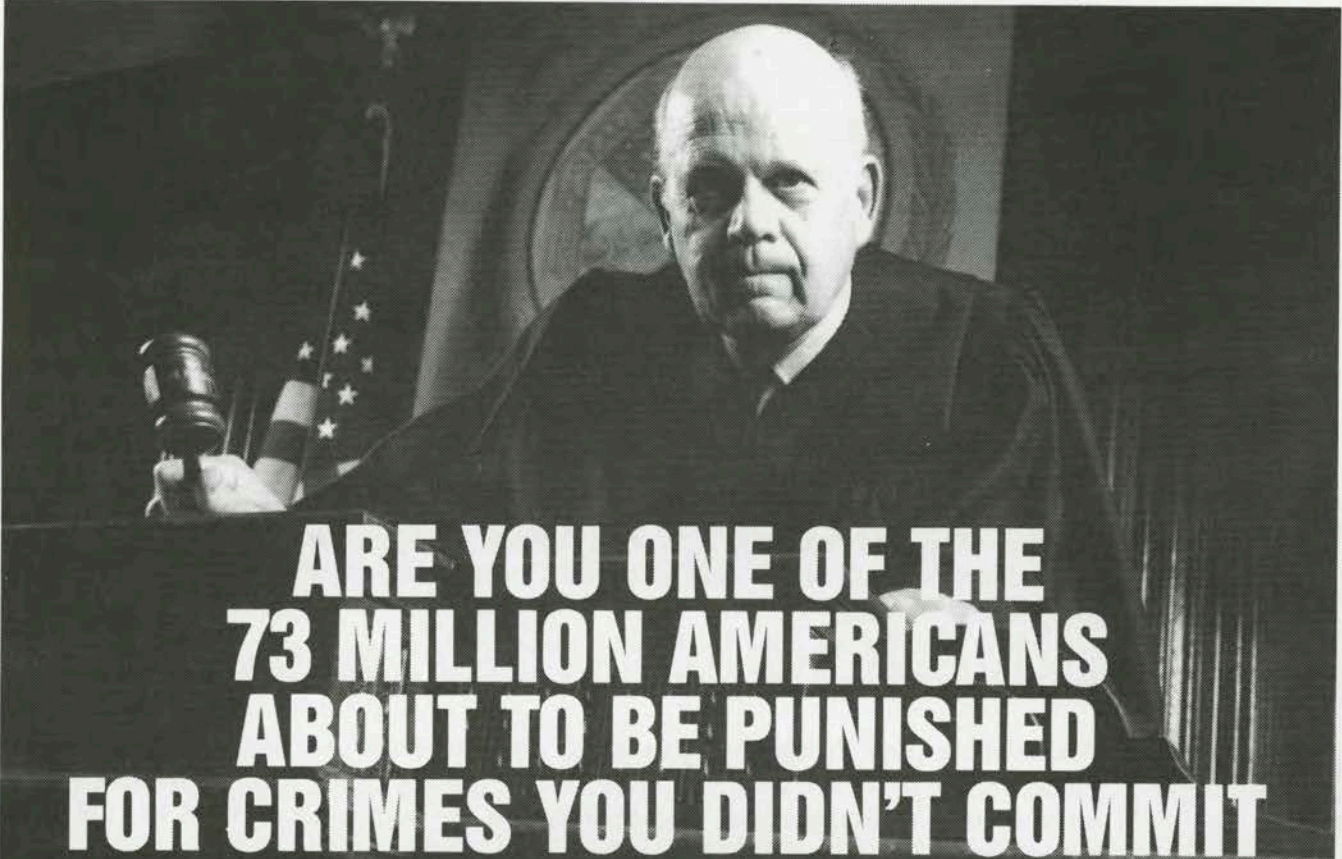

Contributors to THE SENIOR AMERICAN and other United Seniors publications include Dorcas C. Hardy, former U.S. Commissioner of Social Security; C. Colburn Hardy, author of 27 books on finances and financial planning, including numerous editions of Dun & Bradstreet's Guide to Your Investments; Lyn Hopewell, editor of the Journal of Financial Planning; Timothy J. Wheeler, associate editor of National Review; Terree P. ...a new voice for senior Americans

ARE YOU ONE OF THE 73 MILLION AMERICANS ABOUT TO BE PUNISHED FOR CRIMES YOU DIDN'T COMMIT

It seems like the world of fairness and justice has been turned upside down.

Because a mentally disturbed young man who should have been in jail after he was arrested seven times on felony counts . . . but was plea bargained free by the system so he could senselessly murder innocent children, millions of law-abiding citizens may go to jail.

Current proposals to ban so-called "assault weapons" because the legal system didn't do its job in preventing a crime, would turn up to 73 million law-abiding gun owners into criminals. Because that young man used a "scary-looking" military-style semi-automatic rifle to commit a crime, the legal owners of millions of other semi-automatic rifles, shotguns and pistols that have been used for over 80 years are at risk of being punished.

Suddenly the guns that people kept at home for protection and recreation . . . some handed down from grandad . . . would be illegal. Under one proposal, people could go to jail for 5 years and be fined $5,000 for failing to have asked for a copy of the firearm transaction record 20 years ago, when nobody ever thought or was asked to do so.

Since justice has been turned upside down, some lawmakers would do the same to the American principle of fairness.

When public officials claim they have to plea bargain away felony charges because we don't have enough room in our prisons for the real bad guys, it makes no sense to imprison the law-abiding owners of inanimate objects who have committed no crime.

When the police are over-taxed with a rampant drug problem and violent crime is escalating, it makes no sense to have them waste time chasing down law-abiding citizens because they once bought a gun.

Join us in trying to put the world rightside up again. Petition the president now. Help us fight the craziness.

Dear CPAC Participant:

There is a fine line between environmental sensitivity and environmental insanity.

All of us want clean air, clean rivers, and a planet with a future. But in our honest attempts to achieve these goals, something has gone wrong.

Over the past two decades America has spent over one trillion dollars on environmental clean-up. The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has grown from a small agency to a full one seventh of our entire Federal Government. And the EPA is about to be given Cabinet status.

But what are the results of this massive buildup and spending spree?

According to the EPA and other so called "environmental" activists, our skies are still black, our rivers are still dead, our forests are still disappearing and one precious specie after another is disappearing. So where has all the money gone - what has the EPA accomplished?

In response to the EPA's self declared apocalypse, the lumber, cattle, and fishing industries are facing shut down. Our cities, attempting to keep up with nonstop regulations are facing bankruptcy, private property is being confiscated and soon, if a spotted owl lands in your yard - even your children will be banned from playing there.

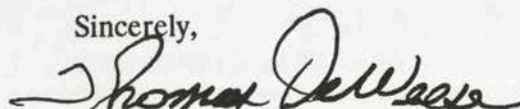

It's insanity - and it has nothing to do with the environment. It's really about power and government agency turf wars.

That's why the American Policy Center publishes EPA Watch in order to report on the latest schemes, rules and regulations being dreamed up at the EPA.

EPA Watch was the first to report that the EPA was studying the dangers of taking a shower; and the first to report that the EPA actually admitted that the "science" it uses in making up EPA regulations is really not science at all, but politics.

The American Policy Center and EPA Watch are leading the fight to expose this insanity and promote true free market solutions to what has become little more than environmental terrorism and government turf wars.

Sincerely,

Thomas DeWeese

Strong words of praise for nation's foremost grassroots conservative legal group:

Oliver North & Caspar Weinberger praise Legal Affairs Council

Legal Affairs Council President Richard A. Delgaudio (second from left) and LAC Directors Howard Lim (left), Chairman Joan Kehlhof (fourth from left) and Robert Wiacek (right) present Caspar Weinberger with a second donation check in behalf of LAC supporters, this time for $10,000, at a reception in his honor.

"Because of your (Legal Affairs Council) prompt and generous action, we will be establishing a Weinberger Defense Fund as you suggested. I had not thought to do that, so your gesture was particularly helpful and I am most appreciative."

Caspar Weinberger, 6/19/92

President Reagan's former Secretary of Defense

Oliver North presents a surprise plaque to LAC President Richard Delgaudio and LAC Chairman Joan Kehlhof at the Salute to Oliver North II, organized by Legal Affairs Council and co-sponsored by 41 conservative cause organizations, after LAC helped him raise $315,081 for his legal and defense costs. The plaque reads, "Many thanks for your steadfast and unwavering support. Your dedication to the cause of justice has been a great source of strength and comfort to our family."

"...the Legal Affairs Council was there helping me right from the start, and Betsy and I really appreciate it. When we were worried about how we were going to pay basic bills and make ends meet, you were there, and I thank you. And you've continued to be there."

Oliver North, 3/3/90

Former Staff Aide to President Ronald Reagan

LAC President Richard Delgaudio debated "Shadow Representative" Charles Morehead (DC) on the Fox TV network. Morehead accused LAC of working to "fan... the flames of hate..." Delgaudio promised that if Congress and President Clinton pushed through Statehood by a simple majority vote instead of a Constitutional Amendment, "we will be there in court to file suit."

From the transcript of the TV debate on DC Statehood, Delgaudio vs. Morehead:

MR. DELGAUDIO: "...these folks are the ones who said that people like Oliver North and Caspar Weinberger should serve hard jail time because of technicalities. Now (they) break the law, or in the case of Eleanor Holmes Norton did not file a tax return for seven years... and.. say that those things should be overlooked and in the rush for statehood we should again overlook the technicality of the United States Constitution."

A FIRM FOUNDATION

No Education Is Complete Until It Includes Us.

Young America's Foundation begins with the assumption that a college education is incomplete unless the student has a firm understanding of conservative principles. Because university education today omits this key component, the Foundation offers students an array of programs to enable them to complete their education.

National Conference

Since 1978, thousands of top students from across the country have come to this week-long summer program to hear from and meet with Jack Kemp, Jesse Helms, Malcolm Wallop, Trent Lott, Phil Crane, and Jeffrey Hart, among others.

Speakers Program

Tens of thousands of students have heard such speakers as General Norman Schwarzkopf, Ed Meese, George Will, Robert Novak, William F. Buckley, Jr., Phyllis Schlafly, Fred Barnes and Dinesh D'Souza on their campuses, thanks to Young America's Foundation.

Publications

Every year we distribute tens of thousands of books and monographs by Russell Kirk, Barry Goldwater and Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn, as well as hundreds of thousands of award-winning posters. We also publish journals and newsletters such as Continuity, Campus Leader, and Libertas.

Special Projects

In 1992 the Foundation initiated the Engalitcheff Prize ($10,000) presented to that faculty member who courageously defends academic freedom. We also conduct the Henry Salvatori Distinguished Lecture Series and the Grover Hermann Freedom Lecture Series.

“Young America's Foundation programs offer invaluable assistance to young men and women searching for the encouragement and understanding necessary to reinforce the values of a free society...”

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL TO SUPPORT THE DEMOCRACY MOVEMENTS

The National Council operates as the coordinating center for assistance to the democracy movements in republics which are in various stages of struggling against Communism.

Institution Building

In those republics where free elections have taken place, Russia, the Ukraine, Latvia, Estonia and Georgia, our programs are to assist in the Development of long term stable democratic institutions. Our projects include:

- * Assistance in writing constitutions;
- * Development of structures for independent courts, sanctity of contracts, protection of individual rights, institution of private property rights, financial system and tax policy, economic exchanges, humanitarian aid, student exchanges and training missions;
- * Promotion of trade and investment.

Resistance to the old guard

In those republics where the old guard is still in charge, the National Council has programs to assist the independent democracy movements in their quest to have free and fair elections. This includes:

- * Restraint of financial assistance and trade to those repressive regimes in order to create pressure for change;
- * Education and training in democratic institutions and political initiatives for the democracy movements;
- * Coordination of initiatives between the democracy movements in the various republics.

These programs are currently active in following repressive republics: Belarus, Moldova, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Lithuania, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan, Turkmenistan, Romania, Serbia, Croatia and Angola. These programs are also active in those countries where the democracy revolution has yet to gain a strong foothold. They include Cuba, China and Vietnam.

For these and other projects, the National Council has openings for volunteers and interns.

Strong Families Should Be A Priority In Every House.

With American society in chaos, families need an advocate. Parents and children need a voice. That's why The Family Research Council exists.

Our goal is to strengthen American families, on whom our nation's very survival depends. We're fighting against the consequences of rising crime, violence in the streets, out-of-wedlock pregnancies, and runaway taxes.

As an independent, nonprofit advocacy organization, FRC promotes a pro-family agenda in legislation, tax laws, regulations, and public policy. We're dedicated to promoting values that endure, through research and policy studies, Capitol Hill briefings, media opportunities, and outreaches to corporations and communities.

And to keep you informed, we publish Washington Watch—a monthly newsletter focusing on current family issues in the Nation's Capital—and Family Policy, a bimonthly publication of insight and analysis.

For more information, write The Family Research Council, Gary L. Bauer, President, 700 Thirteenth Street NW, Suite 500, Washington DC, 20005 or call (202) 393-2100. We're your voice for the family. And we're being heard.

Christian Action Network

P.O. Box 606 Forest VA 24551

Reception Honoring Congressman William Dannemeyer

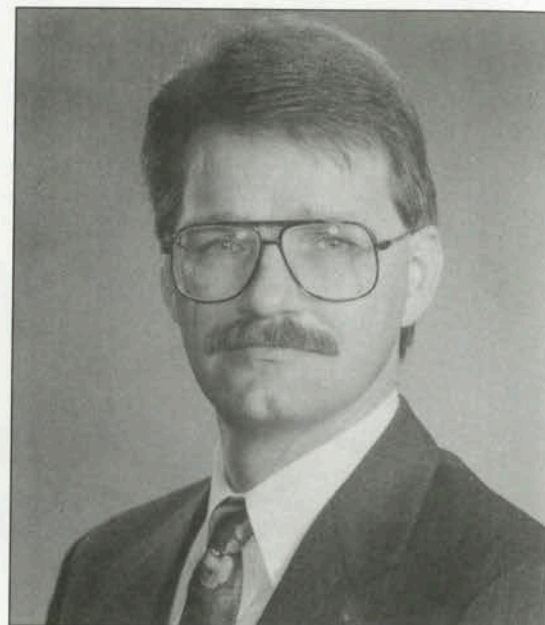

The Christian Action Network will host a reception honoring Congressman William Dannemeyer in the Diplomat room at 10:00 p.m., Friday, February 19, 1992.

The reception is open to all CPAC attendees.

Congressman Dannemeyer served in the United States Congress for fourteen years as a representative of California's 39th district.

Author of "Shadow in the Land," Congressman Dannemeyer was a leader in the House of Representatives in protecting pro-family values, opposing federally-funded hate "art", promoting public school prayer, and opposing special rights based on sexual practices.

Come and enjoy refreshments and light fare as Congressman Dannemeyer defends military policy excluding homosexuals from the United States Armed Forces.

"I have been impressed with NSC and their President, Richard Delgaudio, for the years they have fought the Panama Canal giveaway and been a leading force for a strong national defense. NSC distributes the only regular grassroots publication opposing the giveaway of the Panama Canal. And NSC has fought for President Reagan's Freedom Shield, the Strategic Defense Initiative (SDI). Now NSC is leading this nationwide fight to 'Stop the Foreign Aid Giveaway.' You can bet the liberal news media isn't going to tell the American people how Congress has shipped another $14.6 billion of our tax dollars overseas."

"David Funderburk is a genuine American hero, who went behind the enemy lines and as an Ambassador he championed America and our values. That is no small thing, for so many U.S. Ambassadors champion the other country's values. Ambassador David Funderburk always kept the faith, he was always willing to pay the price. Little wonder then that today, the foreign policy establishment is deathly afraid of David Funderburk. They have good reason to be."

Twenty Years of Service to Conservative Principles

The “mainstream” of politics was a cliché — much abused — when in 1973 a handful of true believers in real values of America met in the Nation’s capital. Their sole purpose was to affirm their support of the Conservative ideal.

What they started — with that first CPAC conference — has become over the ensuing nineteen years the stellar Conservative gathering of the year and one of the most important political events of both parties.

Its mushrooming growth attests not that the “right” has moved “center” but that Conservatism is the true nucleus of American thought. We may attribute its “sudden popularity” to the excesses of liberalism over many a year and we wouldn’t be wrong ... although it runs deeper than that. America, itself, was founded on the principles of Conservatism and has yearned to return to that basic philosophy.

The spectacular growth of CPAC and now the celebration of its twentieth anniversary isn’t all that surprising. Twenty years ago it was warranted and timely and today it remains the same. It was anything but a temporary swing of the pendulum, rather, a steady course set — strengthened and renewed with each year’s growing power of CPAC.

In 1993 — our 20th Annual Conference opens one month into a new administration, one dominated by liberalism. There is hope, look around at the many Americans and world participants in this Conference and take comfort in the ideals that we all hold. The sponsoring organizations, the depth and scope of the speakers and the attention shown by the national media reenforce the knowledge that Conservative ideals are a part of the American dream.

However, what really makes this process work in the long run, is the commitment and enthusiasm to a Conservative philosophy and you, the men and women who make service to the freedom of this country their life’s goal.

The Co-Sponsors of the 20th Annual
Conservative Political Action Conference
