Dear Senator Dole:

The Republican National Lawyers Association (RNLA) cordially invites you to give the keynote address to its fourth annual National Lawyers conference to be held Friday, May 21, 1993 at The University Club, Washington, D.C. The discussion will be the revitalization of the Republican Party.

The conference will include panels on topics such as:

- The future direction of the Republican Party;
- analysis of the Clinton economic plan;
- analysis of the Clinton health reform program;
- regulatory policy under the Clinton Administration;
- a look at the Clinton Justice Department; and
- organizing to effectively impact the process

The RNLA was established in 1985 to provide a home within the Republican Party for politically active lawyers. As a national organization with a number of state chapters, the RNLA provides volunteer lawyer support to the Party and educational and networking opportunities to its members.

We hope your schedule and interests permit either a morning kick-off or Luncheon address. Your participation in our conference would be a highlight to our members.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Horn
Chairman of the Board

ATTENTION: MEMBERSHIP CONVENTION AND CLE SEMINAR

Dear Republican Colleague:

During the last several months, the leadership of the Republican National Lawyers Association (RNLA) has been considering ways to make the association more of a resource for you and an aid to the Republican Party. We are now reformatting the dues structure, reorganizing the leadership and increasing the emphasis of state chapters in the organization. These efforts will be discussed in further detail in the upcoming issues of the newsletter.

The first activity of the newly reorganized RNLA is the upcoming Membership Convention and Continuing Legal Education Seminar which will take place on May 21, 1993 in Washington, D.C. This program will take an in-depth look at the Clinton Administration's major policy initiatives and how they will affect your legal practice. As the attached agenda shows, we have scheduled speakers with extraordinary credentials, including members of Congress and former Bush Administration specialists.

The program will take place at the University Club in downtown Washington, D.C. The registration fee is only $75 ($25 for law students). We have blocked a group of rooms at the University Club for RNLA members attending this event at $85 per night. However, the room block will be released on May 6 so act quickly if you will need accommodations. The University Club has superb athletic facilities which are available to guests, so bring your sneakers! To reserve a room, call the club at 202-862-8800 and refer to # 2766.

This program will be a real opportunity to learn about the policies of the new Administration. More importantly, it provides you with a way to get involved in the RNLA at a critical time for the association.

I look forward to seeing you in May.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Horn

THANK YOU. I USED TO SAY

I'VE TRAVELLED TO QUITE A

EVERYWHERE I GO, I SENSE THE
SAME THING--REPUBLICANS ARE REVITALIZED AND RE-

ABOUT THE FUTURE, AND THEY'RE EXCITED ABOUT HOW

BUT SOMETIME BETWEEN

THEM YESTERDAY--THE

I'VE NEVER MET MS.
GUINIER, AND SHE MAY BE A

ALTHOUGH I CAN'T UNDERSTAND WHAT SHE MEANS
BY THOSE WORDS, I SUSPECT THAT CONSERVATIVES LIKE

WOULD FLUNK HER TEST.

YOU CAN HELP. I'D BE HAPPY TO ANSWER TO ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS.

RE: GOP National Lawyers Association

*You'll be speaking to approximately 75-85 Republican lawyers, many of whom are members of Inside the Beltway law firms.

*They'd like 10 minutes of remarks on the Republican agenda and current events, followed by Q&A.
