

SENATOR BOB DOLE

STREET SURVIVAL '93

AUGUST 31, 1993

GOOD MORNING AND
THANK YOU, LIEUTENANT
GROSSI, FOR THAT KIND
INTRODUCTION.

IT'S A PRIVILEGE TO BE HERE TO HELP KICK-OFF THE STREET SURVIVAL SEMINAR.

AND I WANT TO THANK CALIBRE
PRESS AND THE WICHITA
POLICE DEPARTMENT, WITH ITS FINE CHIEF, RICK STONE, FOR GIVING ME AN OPPORTUNITY TO PARTICIPATE.

YOU KNOW, WHEN I WAS READING THE BROCHURE FOR THE SEMINAR--WITH ITS ADVICE ON "TACTICS FOR

APPROACHING DANGEROUS
PEOPLE," "HOW TO SURVIVE HIGH-IMPACT EVENTS," AND
"HOW TO 'READ' IMMINENT ASSAULTS," I THOUGHT I WAS READING A "HOW-TO" BOOK ON DEALING WITH CONGRESS.

THIS IS THE CONGRESSIONAL RECESS--THE TIME WHEN MEMBERS RETURN

TO THEIR HOMES TO HEAR
WHAT'S ON THE MINDS OF THEIR CONSTITUENTS. AND I DON'T WANT TO PASS UP THE OPPORTUNITY OF HEARING
WHAT'S ON THE MINDS OF PEOPLE, LIKE YOURSELF, WHO ARE ON THE FRONTLINES IN THE WAR AGAINST CRIME.

NEARLY SIXTY YEARS AGO,

DURING A TIME OF ECONOMIC CRISIS, FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT
UTTERED THOSE FAMOUS
WORDS THAT ARE NOW ETCHED
IN HISTORY--"WE HAVE NOTHING TO FEAR BUT FEAR ITSELF."

TODAY, AMERICA FACES
ANOTHER CRISIS. IT'S A CRISIS
CAUSED BY THE FACT THAT ROOSEVELT'S WORDS NO

LONGER ARE TRUE. THERE IS SOMETHING TO FEAR BESIDES
FEAR.

AND THAT'S TRUE NOT JUST ON THE STREETS OF OUR MAJOR CITIES, BUT IN OUR SUBURBS, AND EVEN OUR RURAL COMMUNITIES. IN FACT, NOT LONG AGO, THE
WASHINGTON POST RAN A

FRONT PAGE STORY ON THE
PROBLEM OF YOUTH GANGS
HERE IN WICHITA. ANYTIME THAT CRIME IN WICHITA IS FRONT PAGE NEWS IN WASHINGTON, D.C., YOU KNOW
THERE'S A PROBLEM. AND YOU KNOW THERE'S SOMETHING TO FEAR.

IT IS FEAR THAT CAUSES US

TO LOCK OUR DOORS AT ALL
TIMES. IT IS FEAR THAT MAKES PARENTS WORRY WHEN THEY SEND THEIR CHILDREN OFF TO SCHOOL. IT IS FEAR THAT MAKES PEOPLE LIKE YOURSELF
COME TO A "STREET SURVIVAL"
SEMINAR.

IT IS A FEAR THAT EACH AND EVERY DAY BECOMES A

REALITY FOR MANY AMERICANS, AND THAT THIS PAST FEBRUARY
BECAME A REALITY FOR TIMOTHY RILEY.

A 33-YEAR-OLD HUSBAND AND FATHER OF TWO YOUNG CHILDREN, TIMOTHY RILEY WAS KIDNAPPED OUTSIDE HIS HOME
IN TOPEKA, AND FORCED AT GUNPOINT INTO THE TRUNK OF

HIS OWN CAR.

SHORTLY AFTER THE KIDNAPPING, MR. RILEY WAS SHOT TO DEATH, HIS LIFELESS BODY DUMPED ON THE SIDE OF A HIGHWAY, JUST SOUTH OF
TOPEKA. TWO TEEN-AGERS WERE ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH THE CARJACKING AND MURDER.

THE MURDER OF TIMOTHY
RILEY, LIKE ALL MURDERS, IS A
TRAGEDY. BUT ANOTHER SAD
TRAGEDY IS THE FACT THAT THE
STORY OF WHAT BEFELL
TIMOTHY RILEY PROBABLY DOES NOT SHOCK ANYONE HERE
TODAY...NOR DOES IT SHOCK
MOST AMERICANS.

AMERICANS HAVE BECOME

USED TO CRIME. INSTEAD OF OUTRAGE, FAR TOO MANY AMERICANS NOW REACT WITH A
SHRUG...WITH AN ATTITUDE THAT RANDOM MURDER IS NORMAL OR ROUTINE.

BUT, NO MATTER HOW YOU
LOOK AT IT, THERE'S NOTHING
NORMAL ABOUT THE FACT THAT,
SOMEWHERE IN THIS COUNTRY,

AN AMERICAN IS MURDERED
EVERY 21 MINUTES, RAPED VERY
5 MINUTES, ROBBED EVERY 46
SECONDS, AND ASSAULTED
EVERY 29 SECONDS.

TO HELP FIGHT BACK AGAINST THIS EPIDEMIC OF VIOLENCE, I RECENTLY
INTRODUCED A BILL CALLED
"THE NEIGHBORHOOD SECURITY

ACT." WE INTRODUCED THIS BILL BARELY THREE WEEKS
AGO...SO THIS IS ONE OF MY FIRST OPPORTUNITIES TO DISCUSS IT WITH PEOPLE IN THE
LAW ENFORCEMENT COMMUNITY.

I HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO GET COMMENTS FROM THE FRATERNAL ORDER OF POLICE,

THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF POLICE
CHIEFS, THE NATIONAL SHERIFFS ASSOCIATION, THE NATIONAL TROOPERS COALITION, AND FROM REPRESENTATIVES OF OTHER
LAW ENFORCEMENT
ORGANIZATIONS. AND I WANT TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO

GET YOUR INPUT AS WELL.

LET ME ADD THAT REPUBLICANS INTEND TO WORK
TOGETHER WITH PRESIDENT
CLINTON, WHO RECENTLY
UNVEILED HIS OWN ANTI-CRIME
PROPOSAL. AND LET'S FACE IT:
CRIME SHOULD NOT BE A
PARTISAN ISSUE. A THIEF
DOESN'T ASK YOU IF YOU'RE A

DEMOCRAT OR A REPUBLICAN BEFORE HE STICKS A GUN IN YOUR RIBS.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD
SECURITY ACT RECOGNIZES THAT AMERICA DESPERATELY NEEDS A TOURNIQUET, A SHORT-TERM PLAN TO STOP THE
BLEEDING AND RESTORE ORDER ON OUR STREETS.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD
SECURITY ACT SEEKS TO ACCOMPLISH THIS SHORT-TERM
GOAL IN THE FOLLOWING WAYS:

FIRST, IT PROVIDES $2 BILLION IN FUNDING FOR THE HIRING OF THOUSANDS OF
ADDITIONAL POLICE OFFICERS
AND FOR THE PURCHASE OF MODERN POLICE EQUIPMENT.

THROUGHOUT THE 1950s,
FOR EVERY VIOLENT FELONY
THAT WAS REPORTED, THERE
WERE MORE THAN 3 POLICE OFFICERS. TODAY, FOR EVERY POLICE OFFICER, THERE ARE MORE THAN 3 VIOLENT CRIMES
REPORTED. IF WE ARE TO WIN
BACK OUR SECURITY, WE MUST REVERSE THIS DANGEROUS

TREND.

AND WHEN PEOPLE LIKE YOURSELF ARE OUT IN THE
FIELD OR IN THE STATION, YOU ARE ENTITLED TO THE MOST MODERN EQUIPMENT AVAILABLE.

SECOND, THE
NEIGHBORHOOD SECURITY ACT
PROVIDES $3 BILLION IN

ADDITIONAL FUNDING FOR NEW PRISON CONSTRUCTION.

WITH THE DECK STACKED AGAINST YOU BOTH ON THE STREET AND IN THE
COURTROOM, BEING A POLICE
OFFICER IS, NO DOUBT, ONE OF THE TOUGHEST JOBS IN AMERICA. AND I CAN ONLY
IMAGINE HOW DISCOURAGING IT

MUST BE FOR YOU TO ARREST
SOMEONE AND GO THROUGH
THE PROCESS OF A LENGTHY TRIAL, ONLY TO SEE THE CRIMINAL SOON OUT ON THE STREETS BECAUSE OF A SHORTAGE IN PRISON SPACE.

THAT'S NOT FAIR TO YOU...AND IT'S NOT FAIR TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

WE CAN'T EXPECT THE POLICE TO PUT THEIR LIVES ON THE LINE IN MAKING ARRESTS, IF WE'RE NOT WILLING TO ENSURE THAT THOSE WHO ARE ARRESTED AND CONVICTED SERVE SOME REAL TIME.

AND ONE OF THE SIMPLE TRUTHS OF THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM IS THAT

INCARCERATION WORKS. OUR COMMUNITIES ARE SAFER--AND OUR LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS ARE SAFER--WHEN THE CRIMINALS ARE BEHIND BARS.

THAT'S A MESSAGE THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT BEGAN
TO UNDERSTAND IN THE 1980'S,
WHEN WE INSTITUTED PRE-

TRIAL DETENTION, AND ELIMINATED PAROLE AND PROBATION. UNDER TODAY'S FEDERAL SYSTEM, A VIOLENT
FELON, ONCE APPREHENDED,
CAN REMAIN BEHIND BARS
FROM THE MOMENT OF ARREST
UNTIL HIS FULL SENTENCE HAS BEEN SERVED.
UNFORTUNATELY--AND

TRAGICALLY--THIS IS DEFINITELY NOT THE CASE IN MANY OF OUR STATES, AS YOU WELL KNOW.

TO KEEP VIOLENT CRIMINALS BEHIND BARS, MY LEGISLATION WOULD CREATE
TEN NEW REGIONAL PRISONS.
AND THE STATES WOULD BE ALLOWED TO SEND THEIR STATE
PRISONERS TO THESE PRISONS-

-BUT ONLY IF THE STATES
REFORM THEIR OWN CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEMS BY ADOPTING A "TRUTH IN SENTENCING" LAW,
WHEREBY CONVICTED CRIMINALS MUST SERVE AT LEAST 85% OF THEIR SENTENCE.

TO BE ABLE TO USE THESE NEW REGIONAL PRISONS, STATES WILL ALSO HAVE TO

ADOPT MANDATORY MINIMUM
SENTENCES FOR GUN
OFFENSES AND VIOLENT CRIMES
AND PROVIDE FOR THE PRE-
TRIAL DETENTION OF THE MOST VIOLENT OFFENDERS.

BY INCREASING PRISON SPACE, AND BY PROVIDING
INCENTIVES FOR STATES TO PUT THAT SPACE TO USE, THE

AMERICAN CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM CAN RETURN TO ITS BASIC OBJECTIVE OF
PROTECTING THE INNOCENT AND PUNISHING THE GUILTY.

AND THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT THAT AN INCREASING
NUMBER OF THE GUILTY WHO NEED TO BE PUNISHED, AND THE VICTIMS WHO NEED TO BE

PROTECTED, ARE YOUNG AMERICANS.

INDEED, ATTORNEY
GENERAL JANET RENO SAYS YOUTH VIOLENCE IS "THE GREATEST SINGLE CRIME
PROBLEM IN AMERICA TODAY."
FROM 1987 TO 1991, THE
NUMBER OF TEENAGERS ARRESTED FOR MURDER IN

AMERICA INCREASED BY AN ASTOUNDING 85%. AND TEENAGERS AREN'T JUST
CRIMINALS, THEY'RE VICTIMS, AS WELL. ACCORDING TO THE
FBI, MORE THAN 2,200 MURDER
VICTIMS IN 1991 WERE UNDER 18--AN AVERAGE OF MORE THAN SIX YOUNG PEOPLE KILLED PER DAY. THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

ESTIMATES THAT EACH YEAR,
NEARLY A MILLION YOUNG
PEOPLE BETWEEN 12 AND 19
ARE RAPED, ROBBED OR ASSAULTED, OFTEN BY THEIR PEERS, AND OFTEN WHILE AT SCHOOL.

TO HELP COMBAT THIS EPIDEMIC, THE NEIGHBORHOOD
SECURITY ACT ESTABLISHES

FEDERAL SAFE SCHOOL DISTRICTS. IN A SAFE SCHOOL
DISTRICT, ANY JUVENILE 16 YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER WHO USES OR CARRIES A GUN IN OR NEAR A SCHOOL WOULD BE PROSECUTED AS AN ADULT. NO
EXCEPTIONS. IF CONVICTED OF A GUN-RELATED CRIME, TOUGH,
NEW PENALTIES WOULD APPLY.

AGAIN, NO EXCEPTIONS.

SAFE SCHOOL DISTRICTS
WOULD BE ELIGIBLE FOR $500
MILLION IN FEDERAL GRANTS TO PURCHASE METAL DETECTORS,
CLOSED-CIRCUIT CAMERAS,
GUN HOTLINES...AND TO BEEF-UP POLICE PATROLS IN AND AROUND SCHOOLS.

NO DOUBT ABOUT IT, IT'S A

SAD DAY WHEN METAL
DETECTORS AND CLOSED-
CIRCUIT CAMERAS TAKE THE
PLACE OF BOOKS AND WRITING
PADS AS THE MOST IMPORTANT
PURCHASES A SCHOOL
ADMINISTRATOR CAN MAKE.
BUT DO WE HAVE ANY CHOICE
WHEN THE SECURITY OF OUR CHILDREN ARE AT STAKE?

FOURTH, THE
NEIGHBORHOOD SECURITY ACT
REFORMS OUR CRIMINAL LAWS TO STOP THE SEEMINGLY ENDLESS APPEALS THAT CLOG UP OUR COURT SYSTEM AND DENY JUSTICE TO THE VICTIMS
OF CRIME. IN WASHINGTON, WE CALL THIS HABEAS CORPUS REFORM, A VERY TECHNICAL

SUBJECT, BUT ONE THAT IS VITAL TO THE FAIR AND SWIFT
ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE.

AND WE'VE PROPOSED AN ENFORCEABLE FEDERAL DEATH
PENALTY FOR NEARLY 50
OFFENSES, INCLUDING THE
MURDER OF LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS WHO ARE ASSISTING A FEDERAL

INVESTIGATION.

FIFTH, THE NEIGHBORHOOD SECURITY ACT GOES AFTER CRIMINAL YOUTH GANGS, A BIG PROBLEM IN WICHITA, BY CREATING A CORPS OF SPECIAL
U.S. ATTORNEYS TO PROSECUTE GANG ACTIVITY.

AND FINALLY, UNLIKE THE OTHER CRIME BILLS CONGRESS

HAS DEBATED IN THE PAST, THE NEIGHBORHOOD SECURITY ACT
RECOGNIZES THAT SECURITY
INDEED CARRIES A PRICE TAG, A
PRICE TAG WE SIMPLY CAN'T CHARGE TO THE DEFICIT.

OUR LEGISLATION PAYS FOR ITSELF BY REDUCING OVERHEAD EXPENSES ACROSS-THE-BOARD IN THE FEDERAL

GOVERNMENT, AND BY MODESTLY CUTTING THE OVERHEAD PAYMENT RATE FOR FEDERALLY-FUNDED UNIVERSITY RESEARCH.

IF THE NEIGHBORHOOD
SECURITY ACT EVER PASSED
CONGRESS AND WAS SIGNED
INTO LAW, I TRULY BELIEVE IT WOULD TAKE A BITE OUT OF

CRIME...IN THE SHORT-TERM, THAT IS.

FOR, WHEN ALL IS SAID
AND DONE, THE BEST
DETERRENT TO CRIME IS NOT A
PRISON CELL, BUT SOMETHING CALLED CONSCIENCE--THAT LITTLE INNER VOICE THAT SAYS
"NO, YOU BETTER NOT TO DO THAT--IT'S WRONG."

DOWN THROUGH THE AGES, PEOPLE HAVE DEVELOPED CONSCIENCE THROUGH THEIR INTERACTIONS WITH SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS LIKE THE SCHOOLS AND THE CHURCH,
AND MOST IMPORTANTLY,
THROUGH FAMILIES AND THE
SET OF VALUES THAT FAMILIES TRANSMIT TO THEIR CHILDREN.

UNFORTUNATELY, THE AMERICAN FAMILY TODAY IS IN
TATTERS. SINCE 1960,
ILLEGITIMATE BIRTHS HAVE INCREASED BY MORE THAN
400%. IN 1990, A STAGGERING
TWO-THIRDS OF ALL BLACK
CHILDREN, AND 25% OF ALL
WHITE CHILDREN, ENTERED THE WORLD WITHOUT THE BENEFIT

OF A RESIDENT FATHER AND
MOTHER. THESE ILLEGITIMACY RATES CONTINUE TO RISE.

NOT ONLY IS THERE A CLEAR LINK BETWEEN FAMILY STRUCTURE AND POVERTY, AS SENATOR MOYNIHAN POINTED OUT SOME 25 YEARS AGO, BUT THERE IS ALSO A LINK BETWEEN FAMILY STRUCTURE AND CRIME.

IT'S NO WONDER THAT 70% OF
THE JUVENILES IN STATE
REFORMATORIES TODAY COME FROM HOMES WITHOUT FATHERS.

OBVIOUSLY, GOVERNMENT
IS NOT THE NATION'S NANNY. IT CANNOT, AND SHOULD NOT, BE RESPONSIBLE FOR RAISING OUR NATION'S CHILDREN. NO

GOVERNMENT AGENCY CAN IMPLANT PERSONAL MORALITY,
NOR CAN A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE BUILD CHARACTER.

BUT IF WE'RE REALLY SERIOUS ABOUT ADDRESSING
THE "ROOT CAUSES" OF CRIME,
WE NEED TO GO TO THE DEEPEST ROOT OF ALL--THE FAMILY.

IN THE FINAL ANALYSIS,
THE REAL HEROES IN THE WAR
AGAINST CRIME--AND IT IS A WAR--WILL NOT BE THE
MEMBERS OF CONGRESS, BUT THE PEOPLE THEMSELVES.
PEOPLE LIKE YOU. PEOPLE WHO WON'T GIVE UP, WHO HAVEN'T LOST THEIR SENSE OF OUTRAGE AT THE HORRIBLE

ACTS OF VIOLENCE THAT ARE COMMITTED EACH DAY ON THE STREETS OF OUR COUNTRY.

SO, I WANT TO THANK YOU
FOR YOUR KIND ATTENTION THIS MORNING.

BUT, MORE IMPORTANTLY, I WANT TO THANK EACH OF YOU
FOR YOUR INVALUABLE SERVICE TO AMERICA.

June 24, 1993

Dear Concerned Police Professional:

I'm writing to inform you of an opportunity that I'm sure will be of interest to you and other officers in your agency. Calibre Press will be presenting the STREET SURVIVAL '93 Seminar in Wichita, Kansas on August 31 & September 1 & 2, 1993 at the Wichita Marriott. This program, the nation's most respected and popular officer survival training, is being sponsored by the Wichita Police Department.

"With agency head approval, all training hours provided during the Calibre Press 'Street Survival Seminar' are applicable for training credit under K.S.A. 74-5607a. Each attendee is responsible for reporting these training credit hours to their agency head."

STREET SURVIVAL has recently been extensively updated, ensuring that officers are receiving only the most current information; that the topics covered remain relevant; and that the tactics taught continue to be state-of-the-art as well as court defensible and practical. An expanded drug interdiction portion, emphasizing drug-related threats and counter-tactics, now makes it possible for agencies to use federal drug funds to subsidize officers' attendance. In light of national publicity regarding current events, special emphasis has been placed on: proper selection and use of force; civil disobedience, management and more.

I've enclosed information detailing the contents of the program. Please take the time to look over the material carefully and to seriously consider attending and/or sending officers. I hope that this will assist you in making the information available to all interested personnel.

If you have any questions regarding the seminar, or if I can be of assistance to you in any way, please feel free to contact me at the above toll-free number. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best regards

Street Survival • Tactical Edge
SURVIVING EDGED WEAPONS

CHOOSE A 3, 2, OR 1-DAY PROGRAM OF TACTICS FOR SAFELY CONTROLLING VIOLENT OFFENDERS.

DAYS 1 & 2

The Tactical Edge® Seminar

Proper use of force to avoid personal and departmental disasters.

How to "read" imminent

assaults and defeat them fast.

Tactics for approaching dangerous people and places to reduce your risk of attack.

Edged weapon survival — how to use positioning, verbal skills, your gun, your baton and your empty hands to overcome the fastest-growing threat to law enforcement and correctional officers.

Pat-down and search tactics — legal and tactical guidelines for protecting yourself from needles, guns, other hidden weapons.

Manipulating emotionally disturbed persons, including drug abusers, whose volatility and super strength mean special danger.

How to balance the new demands of "Community Policing" with your survival concerns.

What to do after a force confrontation to control the suspect — and keep yourself safe legally and physically.

Pursuit tactics that will protect you on the street and in court in one of the most liability-fraught responsibilities of your job.

Disguised and improvised weapons that can kill you — unless you recognize them instantly.

Civil disobedience — how to deal with active and passive resisters when too much force makes you "the torture police."

Street gangs — their exotic weapons, tactics, warning signs and the measures you need to control them.

Proper deadly force decision-making that gives you the winning edge over armed assailants and helps you justify your force response.

Latest firearm tactics for successfully delivering necessary deadly force — without being shot yourself in the process. Emphasis on the semi-automatic pistol and shotgun.

Fastest reloading in a gunfight — even if one hand is incapacitated.

Drug interdiction tactics that will alert you to drug couriers, help you get consent to search their vehicles and reveal their hidden "stash."

The mind-set it takes to win against violent offenders, while controlling fear and stress.

Vehicle stop tactics that give you extra protection and control in suspicious situations.

And much, much more, including new equipment evaluations, unforgettable visuals and startling stage demonstrations.

“Days 1 and 2 showed me how to save my ass. Day 3 helped me save my mind!”

*Sgt. Rick Carothers
Bertie Smith, Orlando
Tulsa City Police Dept.*

DAY 3

The Win® Seminar

How to survive psychologically after any high-impact event... and how to win legally any time your use of force is challenged by criminal, civil or internal affairs investigations. Includes special legal content for Canadian officers.

Unvarnished truths from survivors who've "been there" that will prepare you for your next Critical Incident and help you understand ones you've experienced.

Practical techniques you can use alone or with your spouse to guide you toward personal growth and away from emotional traps like guilt, depression, fear and anger after a shooting.

Family communication — how it can enrich your life, strengthen your marriage and help you survive tough times.

What you, your department and fellow officers can do to help officers in trauma — and not make a bad situation worse.

Latest court decisions on civil rights considerations and how they affect you — plus rarely discussed rights you may not know you have.

Questions you need to ask to keep your statements from backfiring against you... and how to write your report with a lawsuit in mind.

How to defeat courtroom tricks lawyers use to trip you up, especially in civil suits where you may be personally responsible for heavy money damages.

How to meet the media — and control the outcome.

Hottest new area of police litigation: How you can sue offenders and win!

investigation, arrangements were made to utilize a delivery truck and a uniform, as an undercover detective was going to make the controlled delivery.

On April 13, 1989, at about 2:15 p.m., the delivery was made. It was established that Mr. Roesch would be willing to cooperate with the investigation. The person who had sent the "valium" to Mr. Roesch was a Mark Gould, whom Roesch and his wife had met in Florida.

DEA in Florida and the Broward County Sheriff's Office were contacted and apprised of the controlled delivery and possible continuing investigation. Barbara Bookholdt of the DEA Compliance Unit in Miami was notified of the results of the investigation and anticipated continuing investigation.

With the cooperation of Mr. Roesch, numerous recorded phone calls were placed to Mark Gould and two more packages of "valiums" were sent to Mr. Roesch via air carriers. The total amount received was in excess of 50,000 valium tablets.

Detectives Morrissey and Isnardi then flew to Miami, Florida, where they were assisted by Diversion Investigator Barbara Bookholdt and Special Agent Terry Long of DEA, Miami. Detectives Morrissey and Isnardi confronted Mark Gould with the case against him and he agreed to cooperate. Agent Long set up a buy-bust and arrested Terry Loy for illegal distribution of a controlled substance. Agent Long seized another 25,000 counterfeit "valium" tablets. Defendant Loy later surrendered an additional 16,000 tablets.

As a result of the cooperation of the agencies involved and innovative investigation tactics, three persons were arrested and convicted and over 96,000 counterfeit "valium" tablets intended for the American public were seized. Information was developed regarding the illegal manufacture of the tablets which is the subject of a continuing investigation.

LIEUTENANT DAVID M. GROSSI

Irondequoit Police Dept.

Irondequoit, New York

Lt. David M. Grossi is presented the Association's SPECIAL AWARD OF HONOR for his outstanding contribution to the field of drug enforcement.

Lieutenant David Grossi is concluding an eminent twenty-year career as a member of the Irondequoit New York Police Department—fourteen of those years being a member of the INEOA. During that time he has distinguished himself by participating in or directing over 300 successful controlled substance arrests—either as an undercover investigator or commanding officer. He received recognition while performing duties with his own department as well as when volunteering for special assignments with various other law enforcement agencies. He has demonstrated the unique ability and expertise to function equally well during covert infiltration investigations which have resulted in street sale/midlevel dealer arrests, as well as during diversion control investigations of registrants while detached to the NYS Bureau of Narcotic Control.

Lt. Grossi has twice been honored for meritorious service by the Monroe County District Attorney; he has been cited for heroism by the Chamber of Commerce; he has been selected as Officer of the Year; and he has received a multitude of commendations from other agencies.

David Grossi has also gained national and international recognition, as he has trained thousands of police officers in this country and Canada in drug interdiction tactics, and in the judicious use of deadly force and firearms. His articles have appeared in numerous professional journals. In 1988, he was selected as a member of the United States delegation to China as part of a team of police firearm experts. To recite his professional associations, training credentials and special honors would require more space than is available here.

The above named officers of the New Rochelle New York Police Department are presented the Association's SPECIAL AWARD OF HONOR for their outstanding drug investigations.

In November 1988, the Special Investigations Unit of the New Rochelle Police Department began an undercover narcotics operation that would last for approximately seven months. This operation was dubbed "OPERATION CRACK-DOWN" and was designed to attack New Rochelle's increasing crack cocaine problem head on.

In order to assure its success and to protect the integrity of this operation, reporting Sergeant was aware that heavy pressure against both users and the sellers of crack cocaine would have to be maintained throughout this investigation in a way that would not interfere with the operation. To accomplish this, reporting Sergeant assigned Detectives Dooley, Marshall, Correia and Lemma to this investigation. In addition, various other operations such as buy bust, surveillance bust and search warrants were conducted, in order to satisfy the need of maintaining the pressure on the streets and to aid in procuring identification of the various sellers, many of whom were from outside of New Rochelle, but were operating in this city. These other operations were carefully planned, coordinated and executed so as not to jeopardize the primary operation.

Detectives Dooley, Marshall, Correia and Lemma were often required to change tours and work additional hours without compensation in order to satisfy the needs of this investigation. Despite this added burden the aforementioned detectives did conduct an exceptional investigation that resulted in the indictment of seventy-five drug dealers for multiple sales of crack cocaine, and felony warrants for forty-nine other dealers of crack cocaine. In addition to the aforementioned indictments and warrants, Detectives Dooley, Marshall, Correia and Lemma did maintain pressure on the streets, averaging approximately thirty arrests per month throughout this investigation.

On 15 June 1989, members of the Special Investigations Unit, with the assistance of the General Investigations Unit, Property Theft Unit and the Youth Division of the City of New Rochelle Police Department, and the Westchester County Drug Enforcement Task Force, conducted a predawn sweep that resulted in the arrest of eighty percent of the drug dealers sought in "Operation Crack-Down 89."

In conclusion, reporting Sergeant recommends that Detectives Dooley, Marshall, Correia and Lemma be given a special award of honor for having made an outstanding contribution in the area of drug enforcement, i.e., the arrest and conviction of over one hundred crack cocaine dealers in "Operation Crack-Down 89," the results of which are still being experienced in the reduction of related crimes. It should be noted that not only was this the largest undercover narcotics Attached are articles by two new voices in the black community--Joe Perkins and Brent Staples. Both argue for the adoption of middle-class values by the black underclass as the key to success.

It's interesting that Time-Warner, the company that owns Time magazine (which recently celebrated the demise of the Reagan Revolution with a cover story showing an upside-down photo of Reagan), is the same company that has a corner on the "rap music" market. Remember the controversy surrounding Ice-T and his album "Cop Killer," which Time-Warner produced? As Brent Staples points out, rap music, with its glorification of violence, can be very destructive to young people.

The Politics of Gangster Rap

The most dangerous myth facing African-Americans today is that middle-class life is counterfeit and that only poverty and suffering, and the rage that attends them, are real.

Anyone who doubts the power of this myth need only think back to the Clarence Thomas confirmation hearings, and how Judge Thomas's status as "a sharecropper's grandson" was put forth as a qualification for the Supreme Court. The poverty fetish is also dangerous; anyone who doubts this might recall Edmund Perry, the black Exeter graduate who was shot to death by an undercover cop in Morningside Heights. At Exeter, Edmund had played the swaggering tough without risk. At home, in the streets of New York, the role reared up and killed him.

Tom Wolfe's essay "Radical Chic," published in 1970, is still the best window into the notion that a magical nobility is somehow conferred on the dispossessed. The essay lampoons the party thrown by the conductor Leonard Bernstein for a group of Black Panthers at which the Panthers were fawned over by New York's elite.

It was there, Mr. Wolfe wrote, that "a Park Avenue matron first articulated the great recurrent emotion of Radical Chic: 'These are no civil rights Negroes wearing gray suits three sizes too big — these are real men.'" The central tenet of radical chic is that urban primitivism is romantic and that middle-classness is passé.

A generation has passed since Park Avenue swooned for the Panthers. The black middle class is larger than ever, but its influence is much diminished in the inner city. The ghetto, once a palatable mix of the middle class, the mildly poor and the very poor, is now made up of the very poor alone. Adolescent murder and pregnancy are endemic; more black men go to jail than to college.

And then there's gangster rap.

For those who haven't caught up, gangster rap is that wildly successful music in which all women are "bitches" and "whores" and young men kill each other for sport. It's hard-core, and bristles with guns. Hear a band called Onyx, recently number one on the charts, urging its listeners to "Throw ya gunz in the air/ And pop-pop like ya just don't care." Hear the rapper called Dr. Dre: "Rat, tat, tat, tat/ Never hesitate to put a nigger on his back."

A Music Celebrating Murder and Misogyny

Hear The Beatnuts, in an ode to the machine pistol: "It ain't nothing you should laugh to/ I'll shoot your moms if I have to." These lyrics go out to an audience of young black men who are being murdered at five times the national average.

The rappers claim variously that they are "telling it like it is," or "reporting what we see in the streets," or "creating characters" that listeners misinterpret. The most effective rejoinder comes from Mike Davis's "City of Quartz," a history of Los Angeles, where gangster rap was born. "In supposedly stripping bare the reality of the streets, 'telling it like it is,'" Mr. Davis writes, "they also offer an uncritical mirror to fantasy power trips of violence, sexism and greed."

Rappers, take note: The key phrase is "uncritical mirror." The music "plays" at rape and murder in a way that celebrates them.

The final irony is that some gangster rappers are middle-class guys posing as inner-city killers. A rapper from Onyx recently took offense when accused of middle-class origins: "That's bull, I'm a real [expletive deleted]," Onyx's Suave told Frank Owen of New York Newsday. "I've been seeing people get shot all of my life."

Here, by way of Suave, is the problem simply put: In the streets, middle-class normalcy for blacks is portrayed as an inferior state of being. The news and entertainment industries are often in complicity with this. That's bad news because cultural ideology is powerful, especially in the lives of the young. It determines how we see them, how they see themselves and, to a large extent, what they aspire to become.

When middle-class blacks fabricate violent urban pasts, they pay homage to murder. When record company executives pose for pictures with gun-toting rappers, and when they push that murderous music, they trade in blood.

THE MESSAGE OF 'I HAVE A DREAM'

I have a dream that my four little children one day will live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character."

It was 30 years ago tomorrow that Martin Luther King Jr. uttered these famous words from the shadow of the Lincoln Memorial. The progress that much of the black population has made since that late summer day in 1963, when a quarter-million strong gathered for the now-fabled March on Washington, truly is an American success story.

Surely, the multitude that descended upon the nation's capital to hear King and other civil rights leaders could not have imagined that, in the ensuing three decades, the black middle class would nearly quadruple in size.

But it has. In 1993, nearly half of all black families will bring home more than $25,000. Of these upwardly mobile black families, one in three will earn more than $50,000.

The exponential growth of the black middle class over the last 30 years coincides with black gains in higher education. At the time of the March on Washington, roughly a quarter-million black youngsters were enrolled in the nation's colleges and universities. In 1993, there are more than four times as many black collegians.

One of the more memorable passages in King's "I Have a Dream" speech concerned black political power. "We cannot be satisfied," the Baptist preacher intoned, "as long as the Negro in Mississippi cannot vote and the Negro in New York believes he has nothing for which to vote."

30 years after Dr. King's speech, character content and work ethic remain the keys to black progress

At the time when King spoke those words, there were fewer than 300 black elected officials throughout the country. In 1993, there are more than 7,000 black office holders, including four U.S. congressmen from New York and even one from Mississippi.

Yet, despite black gains in family income, education, political clout and other important measures of progress, many if not most blacks somehow believe that, 30 years after the March on Washington, most of us have yet to overcome.

The black leadership is most responsible for promulgating this myth. For rather than celebrating the great strides of the black population since 1963, they prefer to emphasize the negative.

JOSEPH PERKINS

So they constantly remind us of the number of blacks in poverty, on the jobless rolls or collecting welfare. They persistently note the rise in black teenage pregnancies and the numbers of blacks doing jail time.

But the emphasis on pathology provides a skewed portrait of black America. The fact is most blacks are not poor, most are not jobless, most are not on welfare. Most black teen-age girls don't get pregnant and most blacks do not run afoul of the law.

An obvious reason that the black leadership prefers to dwell on black pathology rather than Many if not most blacks somehow believe that most of us have yet to overcome. The black leadership is most responsible for promulgating this myth.

Associated Press

black progress is that it enables them to continue to make claims on American society; to insist that blacks still are owed special entitlements. Thus, we can look forward to more lamentations about the continuing plight of black America when the civil rights leadership stages a 30th anniversary March on Washington this weekend.

But the mau-mauing by black leaders has gotten old and tired. After three decades, it's about time they stopped blaming society for the lingering problems of the one-third of black Americans who are poor and struggling. Their efforts would bear far more fruit if they sat down and examined why two-thirds of blacks in the thriving middle class and the earnest black working class are moving forward, and figure out how to bring along the one-third of blacks who have been left behind.

It really is no mystery why some blacks have overcome and others have not. Those who have overcome have discovered that upward mobility in America has less to do with their skin color than the content of their character — their behavior. They have moved on up because they have adopted an ethic of success. They've gotten a good education. They've worked hard. They've gotten married before having children. This simple ethic almost always produces progress. The success of the black middle class over the past three decades is a testament to this.

The challenge for the black leadership is to instill in poor and struggling blacks the ethic of success that has enabled the thriving black middle class to prosper. Only then will disadvantaged blacks realize the dream that Martin Luther King Jr. spoke of 30 years ago.

SUBJECT: SPEECH TO THE "STREET SURVIVAL '93" SEMINAR

As you know, you are scheduled to speak at the "Street Survival '93" Seminar at the Wichita Marriott on Tuesday, August 31, at 9:30 a.m. The speech describes the Neighborhood Security Act. I am told that there should be between 150 and 200 people in attendance. Most of the attendees will be from states in the Midwest.

The Street Survival Seminar is a three-day event, lasting from August 31 to September 2. You are one of the first speakers.

The Seminar has been developed by Calibre Press, Inc., a company based in Northbrook, Illinois. The Seminar is designed to provide training for law enforcement professionals to deal with the dangers that they may encounter on the streets and in the courtroom. Subjects include "the proper use of force," "pat-down and search techniques," "pursuit tactics," and "how to defeat courtroom tricks lawyers use to trip you up."

The Seminar travels around the country. After Wichita, the next stops will be Rochester, New York, and Boise, Idaho.

You will be introduced by David Grossi, one of the instructors at the Seminar and a Lieutenant in the Irondequoit, New York Police Department.

According to Calibre Press, the Seminar has been sponsored by the Wichita Police Department.
