RE: Al Smith Foundation

*Material has been changed to reflect fact that Governor Cuomo will not be attending.

*D'Amato's people said the Senator would love the "Mama D'Amato" reference.

*D'Amato thought the speech was great. He was a bit uncertain about the "miracle" joke regarding the Mayor's race. I expressed his concerns to Jim Gill, who said he thought the joke was a winner. It can be removed without affecting the flow of your remarks.

*A reference to Joseph McGovern was also added. He will be honored before your remarks. His biography, which will appear in the program, is attached.

*I also reviewed the humor with Ray Price, who thought they all worked very well.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
HARRISBURG

THE GOVERNOR

October 13, 1993

The Honorable Bob Dole
United States Senate
141 Hart Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510-1601

Dear Senator Dole:

Thank you very much for your thoughtful note and best wishes. You have served your country with great distinction in war, as well as in peace. Your words of encouragement mean a great deal to me, and I am grateful.

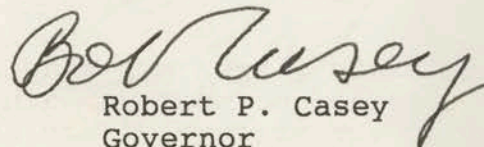

I understand that you are to address the Al Smith dinner this year. I hope you don't run into competition from the baseball playoffs, as I nearly did when I spoke there last year.

When you are in New York, please extend my best wishes to Cardinal O'Connor and to all those attending this year's dinner. I greatly enjoyed being with them last year.

And please convey my gratitude to all those who have expressed, as you have, their support and concern for me during the last few months. I believe that this outpouring of support from across the country is the main reason my recovery has been so strong. I'm looking forward to returning to my office duties with great anticipation and enthusiasm.

Ellen joins me in thanking you and Elizabeth for your kindness.

Sincerely,

Robert P. Casey
Governor

Alfred Emanuel Smith

*A*lmost under the Brooklyn Bridge in New York, in an old tenement on South Street, Alfred Emanuel Smith was born on December 30, 1873.

He attended St. James School on the lower east side and sold newspapers on Park Row. His father died when Alfred was only thirteen. His school days ended and he undertook the care of his mother and younger sister.

Alfred started work in his father's trucking business. Soon he saw an opportunity to earn a little more money at the Fulton Fish market. Later he worked for a steam pump company in Brooklyn as a laborer.

Growing up in his neighborhood with a lively interest in all that was going on around him, he turned naturally to politics.

He married Catherine A. Dunn in 1900 and they raised five children: Alfred E., Jr., Emily, Catherine, Arthur and Walter. In 1903 he was elected to the New York State Assembly. He served in the Legislature for twelve terms being elected majority leader of the Assembly, then minority floor leader and, finally, Speaker of the Assembly.

In 1915 Alfred E. Smith was elected Sheriff of New York County and two years later, President of the Board of Aldermen. He was elected Governor in 1918 and served four terms.

Governor Smith was nominated for the Presidency of the United States by the Democratic National Convention at Houston in 1928.

Al Smith was known for his keen interest in the needs of people. His record was marked by great strides in the fields of public welfare and education. His legacy is epitomized by the slogan "people come first."

This annual dinner of the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation, Inc. is a tribute to the memory of a great man. His care for the less fortunate is continued in the work of the Foundation which supports programs of numerous hospitals and agencies in New York City and State.

The Foundation That Honors Him

*T*he Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation, Inc. was founded by His Eminence, Francis Cardinal Spellman, and chartered on May 14, 1946 to honor the memory of New York's legendary governor and to help care for the needs of the poor and the sick.

The Foundation supported the building of the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Hospital at St. Vincent's Hospital and Medical Center in New York City. Since then, the Foundation has helped numerous hospitals and agencies in the ten counties of the Archdiocese of New York through the proceeds of this dinner.

As a result of the 1992 dinner, the Board of Directors approved grants totalling $475,000 for sixteen programs for those in need — regardless of race, color or religion.
