Enough Aronoff

Cincinnati afflicted by Riffe-itis, names two buildings after senator

Nobody has done more for Cincinnati than Ohio Senate President Stanley J. Aronoff. We're fans of Stan. But putting his name on two new state-financed buildings is a little much.

Aronoff says he didn't ask for the honor. He called it a coincidence. Local leaders seemed to have simultaneously come up with the same idea. So the University of Cincinnati will soon break ground on the Aronoff Center for Design and Art, due to open in 1996; and the Stanley J. Aronoff Center for the Arts will open downtown in 1995.

OK, so Cincinnati already has Pete Rose Way and the Ronald Reagan Highway. But naming buildings after politicians who are not only still living but still thriving in office is, well, tacky.

It has the ring of Riffe-itis — the mysterious affliction that has left the whole state of Ohio blemished with buildings bearing polished plaques engraved with the name of forever Speaker of the House Vern Riffe.

Coming just as Cincinnati is going begging in Columbus for a $360 million wish list of public works projects that Aronoff must approve, it looks like the city is stroking the powerful Senate president's ego in hopes of a big payoff.

That's not all. Naming buildings after incumbents is free political advertising that automatically boosts an incumbent's name recognition with public money. That sends the wrong message. It gives the impression that an incumbent politician has written a check out of his own pocket through pure generosity.

We don't question that Aronoff has Cincinnati's best interests at heart. He has been a dedicated patron of the arts, and delivered funding for both local buildings.

Sen. Aronoff

Aronoff has probably single-handedly provided state funding to build a good share of the UC campus. His efforts during the trying battle to build the new downtown arts center deserve the gratitude of all who recognize how important the project is to revitalize the arts and downtown nightlife. Aronoff is one of the best friends Cincinnati ever had in the state legislature.

He deserves recognition, and he is getting it. Governor George Voinovich visited Cincinnati yesterday to dedicate the arts center on Walnut Street and honor Aronoff.

But let's not forget: That's taxpayer money that is being spent. Those are public buildings, paid for mainly by Joe Sixpack and Jane Chablis. Why should any politician be honored with such a permanent public tribute for returning some of Cincinnati's state tax dollars for local spending?

To his credit, Aronoff seemed a little embarrassed by the twin monuments of worship.

So are many local taxpayers. Putting Aronoff's name on local buildings was inappropriate.

RE: Ohio GOP State Senate Fundraiser

*This is annual big-money event for Ohio Republican State Senate campaign.

*Republicans control State Senate by 20-13 margin. They have controlled the Senate since 1984. There are 17 Senate seats up in 1994, eight of which are held by Republicans.

*Attached talking points include themes you've focused on the last couple of days.

*Opening remarks refer to fact that Cincinnati was recently named as "America's most livable city," and the fact that the Cincinnati Bengals are the only NFL team with a worse record than the Redskins.

'Jobs bill' contains everything but jobs

I met Bob Dole when he was in Cincinnati two weeks ago. Dole is revelling in his leadership of the "loyal opposition" to President Clinton's "economic stimulus" bill.

Despite the fact that the media is attempting to do to him symbolically what Los Angeles police officers did to Rodney King physically, the Kansas senator and Senate Minority Leader is worth listening to if you really desire to know the reasons behind the Republicans' successful filibuster.

The legislation under contention is the "Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act of 1993." On the surface, the act appears harmless, if not vague. If enacted, its provisions, for the most part, would expire for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1993.

The Department of Agriculture, for example, receives "additional amounts" to the tune of hundreds of millions of dollars for "buildings and facilities," "salaries and expenses," "watershed and flood prevention operations," the "rural housing insurance fund," "rural development insurance," and "very low income housing repair grants."

The District of Columbia receives an additional $28 million "to provide for essential jobs, public safety, health, and other municipal services in the face of its financial crisis." The exact definition of "essential," or what constitutes "public safety," is, of course, missing from the legislation, implying that it is up to the Washington city elders to determine their meanings.

The Interior Department has over $22 million earmarked for a "Historic preservation fund," and over $83 million designated simply to "construction." Indian affairs receives over $100 million, in addition to its original funding,

Jerry Sullivan 4/21/93

On the Record

under the heading of "Energy Conservation," no less than about $26 million will be spent "for the acquisition of alternative-fuel vehicles for the Federal fleet and for the conversion of existing vehicles in the Federal fleet to alternative fuels."

What are the common threads running through all of the budget items? The word "additional." Every one of these programs already receives a sizeable slice of tax dollars; while the act carries the word "emergency" in its title, these are hardly emergency economic times compared with previous periods in our history.

In case you're wondering what's been done with the funds previously targeted for these areas, the answer is frequently "nothing." For example, the economic stimulus contains $2.5 billion for additional "community development grants." As of last week, there was $4 billion in funds still waiting to be spent. Why, therefore, is an additional $2.5 billion needed?

The answer to this question, which is also the second common thread, comes from for "construction" ($10 million), school operations ($26 million), and the rest ($66 million) for "operation of Indian programs."

Over $150 million goes to the Forest Service for "maintenance, repairs, rehabilitation, and natural resource conservation activities" along with almost $28 million for "recreation facility and trail construction." Meanwhile,

George Mitchell (D-Maine), the Senate Majority leader. At the time the stimulus package was being developed, the Office of Management and Budget solicited city mayors, to "send in their wish lists" for potential funding.

And, like a pack of 5-year-olds competing to be the first in line to see Santa Claus, they did just that. OMB reserves the right to approve or disapprove individual projects, but the nature of the wish lists is what irks Dole and Senate Republicans.

So, there's construction of a new fire station in Kansas City, Kansas Bicycle paths through cemeteries. Movie theater renovation or construction projects in Arizona and Ohio. And there's swimming pools (or, in Clinton-ese, "cement ponds"), lots and Senate have swimming pools, why shouldn't those people? Of course, the White House has its own pool as well, but if the government was in the business of giving everyone what government has, we would all require secret service protection (from each other) and would have to find a television network to broadcast, for the public record, even our most mundane conversations.

In reading the list, one is moved to immediately inquire as to whatever became of the functions of city government, and why oh why should federal counterparts be getting involved with, among other things, beach parking garages in Florida and plant stress labs in Texas.

Dole's anger is warranted, as well as his leadership efforts to guarantee that the minority voice is heard. He's in keeping with the best spirit of preventing the oft-warned "tyranny of the majority."

FROM: SUZANNE HELLMANN

SUBJECT: TRIP TO CINCINNATI, OHIO

The following is a list of the information provided for your trip to Ohio for the Republican Senate.

1. Suggested Talking Points
2. Press release on event
3. List of Ohio State Senators
4. U.S. Senate Race/NRSC update/clips
5. Gubernatorial Race/RGA update/clips
6. State Demographics
7. Congressional district map
8. GOP Leadership bios
9. DFP Leadership

Suggested Talking Points

The following are some suggestions for issues Senator Dole may want to touch on in his speech during the Cincinnati event. The audience obviously would be interested in hearing his views on what is happening in Washington on issues such as, health care, foreign policy, etc.

General Information

- Bill Keating is the honorary chairperson of this event. Other co-chairmen are H.C. Buck Niehoff, John Schiff, and Wes Shell.
- Ohio is often noted for serving as a composite of the United States. It is a good "testing ground" for ideas and products.
- Cincinnati recently was recognized as the most livable city in North America by the Places Rated Almanac. Almanac authors David Sabageau and Richard Boyer write: "With a million and a half people, it ought to be strong and big city amenities, and it is."
- Ohio will be holding its first March Primary during the next presidential election (under legislation sponsored by Senate President Stanley Aronoff).

1994 Elections

- Our main theme for the event is the importance of retaining a Republican Majority in the Ohio Senate to work with Governor George Voinovich (who also is running for re-election.) There are 17 senate seats up for re-election, including eight currently held by Republicans.

Those Republicans who are running for re-election are as follows:

Senator Richard Finan (Senate President Pro Tempore)
Senator Ben Gaeth
Senator Ted Gray (may be retiring prior to election)
Senator Scott Oelslager
Senator Roy Ray (Senate Majority Whip)
Senator Dick Schafrath
Senator Tony Sinagra

The eighth seat currently is held by Senator Steve Williams, who is resigning in order to become a Fairfield County Municipal Judge. His replacement (to be determined) will take office in January.

- A three-way Republican primary is expected in the race for U.S. Senate between State Senator Gene Watts, Lt. Gov. Mike DeWine and Bernadine Healy. (Both Watts and DeWine will be attending the luncheon.)

Background on the Republican Senate Majority

- Republicans took control of the Senate in 1981 by a margin of 18-15. The control of the Senate was lost after the 1982 elections by one seat. This loss, brought on by an under-performing economy, led to the 17-16 party-line passage of a 90% income tax hike under Governor Dick Celeste.
- With the 90% tax hike as a key issue, Republicans once again gained control of the Senate (18-15) in 1984 by electing senators Cupp, Horn and Watts and retaining 9 of 10 Republican seats.
- Since the 1984 elections, the Democrats never have regained control. In 1988, the Republican margin increased to 19-14 with the election of Senator Chip Henry. In 1990, it increased to 21-12 with the election of senators Tony Sinagra and Steve Williams.
- In 1992, Senator Chip Henry was defeated, but Republicans currently remain in control by a 20-13 margin. The goal for 1994 is to retain or, possibly, add to this margin.

KICK-OFF EVENT

COLUMBUS -- Ohio Senate President Stanley J. Aronoff (R-Cincinnati) today announced that U.S. Senate Minority Leader Bob Dole will be the featured speaker at a November 5 Republican Senate Campaign Committee kick-off event for the 1994 elections. Aronoff said more than 1,000 people are expected to attend the noon luncheon at the Cincinnati Convention Center.

"We are very fortunate to have Senator Dole as our guest speaker at this time, because he will be able to discuss some of the hot topics currently before Congress," Aronoff said. "We're looking forward to his comments on foreign policy, the Clinton Health Care Plan, NAFTA and other issues.

"Senator Dole is always a crowd-pleaser, and the advanced registration demonstrates that many people are anxious to hear his views," Aronoff continued.

"We're looking forward to a great kick-off event, with an eye on retaining a Republican Majority in the Ohio Senate in 1994," Aronoff concluded.

Co-chairmen of the event are William J. Keating, H.C. Buck Niehoff, John J. Schiff, and Wes Shell. For ticket information, contact Mary Lonneman at (513) 744-7582.

State Senator Gene Watts

Lt. Governor Mike DeWine

Dr. Bernadine Healy, former Director of NIH

UPDATE: With Metzenbaum's decision to retire, Ohio Democrats are now lining up to run for this open seat. Joel Hyatt, who already has $681,293 on hand, is considered the early front runner for his father-in-law's Senate seat. Hyatt's strengths are that he has personal resources to fund his campaign and has high name recognition because of Hyatt Legal Services' ads. But his weaknesses are high negatives already and some simmering resentment over his being "anointed" heir to the Metzenbaum seat. Currently, announced candidates include Lt. Governor Mike DeWine, State Senator Eugene Watts, and Dr. Bernadine Healy, former Director of the National Institutes of Health.

Mary Boyle. Other possible Dems: Reps. Louis Stokes (D-11) and Marcy Kaptur (D-09).

FRANKLIN CO. POLL: A COLUMBUS DISPATCH poll, conducted 10/25-30, surveyed 1,412 registered Franklin Co. voters; margin of error +/- 3%. Tested: Hyatt, Watts, Healy and DeWine. Match-ups: DeWine 46% -- Hyatt 37%; Healy 41% -- Hyatt 33%; Watts 44% - Hyatt 35%. None of the announced GOPers "appears to have an advantage" among Franklin Co. voters when matched against the "most visible" Dem, Hyatt. The Franklin Co. electorate is "not representative" of OH, but it's "an important battleground in any statewide election and is especially significant" in GOP primaries. It is "almost impossible" for a GOPer in a statewide election "to win without carrying" Franklin Co. (Curtin, COLUMBUS DISPATCH, 11/2). In a statement, Hyatt dir. Melinda Swan: "These results provide one more barometer of the growing strength of Joel Hyatt's campaign" (release, 11/2).

OHIO: GOP REJECTS HEALY OFFER

OH GOP Chair Bob Bennett rejected an offer by ex-NIH Dir. Bernadine Healy (R) to end the dispute over Healy's use of an unauthorized GOP donor list. Her campaign sent Bennett a check for $12,625 and a letter outlining Healy's terms for ending the dispute, including assurances that the list had not been made available to others. Healy consultant James Nathanson said he "regretted" Bennett's rejection but did not rule out further discussions: "Should Bob come back with new ideas, we will listen. This isn't two hostile sides." Bennett said Healy had "undervalued" the list but declined to say how much he thought she should pay for it (Hershey/Hoffman, Akron BEACON JOURNAL, 10/26). Bennett had earlier said that the list's value was closer to $50,000 than to an earlier Healy offer of $1,800 (BEACON JOURNAL, 10/22). COLUMBUS DISPATCH's Curtin reports a settlement reached 10/21 called for Healy's campaign "to apologize in writing, verify that no copy of the contributor list has been made, cooperate in determining how the list was stolen and make financial compensation." The party "will make no public statements about culpability;" it believes that neither Healy nor Healy chair/Cleveland Browns owner Art Modell "had prior knowledge of the use of the data base and will take no further action against the Healy campaign" (10/22). Also running for the GOP nod: LG Mike DeWine (R), state Sen. Gene Watts (R). Dems: Legal entrepreneur Joel Hyatt and Cuyahoga Co. Commis. Mary Boyle. Possible: Reps. Marcy Kaptur (D-09), Louis Stokes (D-11).

HOTLINE 10/15/93

OHIO: HEALY CAMPAIGN TO BE "PUNISHED" FOR STEALING LIST

GOP Chair Robert Bennett "has determined" that Bush-NIH dir. Bernadine Healy's (R) campaign "stole a computer list of contributors" to the OH GOP. Bennett "announced that the Healy campaign will be punished by the party and be required to make compensation." Neither Healy or her campaign dir. Rex Elsass could be reached for comment. Bennett said because Healy is a first-time candidate, "her campaign had a need to create a list of potential contributors": "She needs good, solid names" (Curtin, COLUMBUS DISPATCH, 10/15). BEACON JOURNAL's Hoffman writes, "at this early stage, Healy has plenty of time to recover, especially since there is no evidence she had any knowledge of what was happening. Still, some of the luster has been worn from her shiny outsider image" (10/15). Cleveland PLAIN DEALER header: "Healy campaign faces penalties for using list" (10/15). Earlier in the week, Healy: "Obviously, we need an investigation. I want to know the facts. If there's a wrong, I want to right it ... I'm not prepared to hang anybody based on what I've read in the newspaper." Bennett "said the party had no plans to get the police involved, or to file any formal charges." He also "said any decision made to resolve the dispute would be made public" (Tatge/McIntyre, PLAIN DEALER, 10/14). Also announced: LG Mike DeWine (R), State Sen Gene Watts (R) and, Cuyahoga Co. Comm. Mary Boyle (D). Possible Dems: Businessman Joel Hyatt, Reps. Louis Stokes (11) and Marcy Kaptur (09).

HOTLINE 10/12/93

OHIO: DeWINE CHARGES HEALY CAMPAIGN STOLE GOP LIST

LG Mike DeWine (R) charges that Bush-NIH Dir. Bernadine Healy's (R) campaign staff "has stolen" a copy of the OH GOP's fundraising database. The list, which "contains names and addresses of up to 60,000 of the state's most ardent" GOP financial supporters, has not been offered to GOP candidates because of the party's "neutral stance" on the primary. DeWine says the Healy campaign was using the list to solicit donations via mail. OH GOP chair Robert Bennett is investigating the charge and "said he has already confirmed that at least part" of the list "was obtained by the Healy campaign without the party's permission." Healy manager Rex Elsass denied the allegations: "No one in the employ of this campaign has ever had the technical capacity to access the list." Elsass was pol. dir. of the OH GOP before joining Healy. Four other former OH GOP staffers are also on Healy's campaign. In a letter to Healy, DeWine asked that she "immediately disassociate" herself from campaign members who "took part in the theft" and that she return the "stolen files" as well as any campaign contributions she received from allegedly using the database. DeWine first "became suspicious" when his mother received a campaign mailing from Healy incorrectly identifying her as "Mr." DeWine, an error that also appears when she receives mailings from the OH GOP (Luttner, PLAIN DEALER, 10/10). Others: state Sen. Gene Watts (R), Cuyahoga Co. Commis. Mary Boyle (D), businessman Joel Hyatt (D). Possible Dems: Reps. Marcy Kaptur (09) and Louis Stokes (11).

OHIO: TAPE CONTROVERSY TAKES DOWN HEALY CAMPAIGN STAFF
Cleveland PLAIN DEALER's Luttner reports 3 top staffers of ex-NIH Dir. Bernadine Healy's (R) campaign resigned "amid allegations the campaign stole a highly valued fund-raising list" from the OH GOP. Gone are campaign manager Rex Elsass, finance dir. Doug Firestone and research dir. Rob Rolf. Healy "said she asked Firestone and Rolf to resign" and Elsass "then tendered his resignation." Healy said Elsass, OH GOP's former exec. dir., "believes he created a very enthusiastic and overzealous environment and assumed responsibility for that." Healy: "I'm very saddened, but I will go on. I'm not getting out of this race." She did not say who might have taken the list but did acknowledge her campaign used the list for direct mail fund-raising. Firestone and Rolf also worked for the party, which voted 9/93 not to share the list with any of the candidates vying for retiring Senator Howard Metzenbaum's (D) seat. OH GOP Chair Robert Bennett said in a statement 10/14 he had determined that the Healy campaign "obtained the list without the authorization of the party." Healy adviser David Hopcraft said a settlement between Healy and the OH GOP could include "a donation" to the party from Healy. "One source put the donation at $25,000" (10/16). James Nathanson, ex-RNC political director and Bush-Quayle OH campaign dir., will serve as interim dir. "while the campaign reorganizes" (Curtin, COLUMBUS DISPATCH, 10/16). In the GOP primary, Healy will face: LG Mike DeWine (R) and state Sen. Gene Watts (R). Dems: Legal entrepreneur Joel Hyatt (D) and Cuyahoga Co. Commis. Mary Boyle (D). Possible Dem candidates: Reps. Louis Stokes (D-11) and Marcy Kaptur (D-09).

OHIO: HEALY ANNOUNCES; COUNTS ON HER "LACK" OF EXPERIENCE

Ex-NIH Dir. Bernadine Healy (R) officially announced her candidacy 9/10, emphasizing her "lack" of political experience and saying it's time for a "fresh perspective" and the end of "career politicians." Healy said the Senate could "use more doctors" and "fewer lawyers": "I really believe that the discipline and the training of a lawyer and a doctor are diametrically opposed. A lawyer is taught to be adversarial. It almost doesn't matter what side you're on. Whoever pays you, I guess. But you like to beat people up." Healy said doctors are taught to "heal, to make people better, to give them a better life." Healy "poked fun" at Clinton's plan to reinvent government: "That's like Madonna reinventing morality." Healy also expressed her opposition to the new gas tax and support of abortion rights, but remained "undecided" about NAFTA and "leery" of Clinton's health care reform plan. Healy will face LG Michael DeWine (R) and state Sen. Eugene Watts (R) in the GOP primary. DeWine: "With little time, base and awareness, Dr. Healy must compete with a candidate that has universal name recognition." Watts adviser Fred Wolf: "It's curious that somebody who just lost a job in Washington is working so hard to get back there" (Luttner, Cleveland PLAIN DEALER, 9/11). Possible Dems: Legal entrepreneur Joel Hyatt, Cuyahoga Co. Commis. Mary Boyle, Reps. Louis Stokes (D-11) and Marcy Kaptur (D-09).

OHIO: DEWINE RESUMES CAMPAIGN

LG Mike DeWine (R) "is resuming his campaign" this week, "after nearly a month layoff following the death of his daughter," Becky, who died in a car accident 8/4. DeWine has scheduled a press conference today "at which he will outline campaign developments" since then. "Speculation is recent weeks had been that DeWine might discontinue his campaign," but DeWine chair Barry Bennett "attributed that to Republicans who support other contenders." Bennett: "We are putting back on schedule all the things we had to postpone. There were numerous political and fund-raising meetings. We are trying to get those back on the schedule." DeWine travels to DC next week to meet with Senate Min. Leader Bob Dole and NRSC chair Phil Gramm. Meanwhile, Bush-NIH dir. Bernadine Healy's (R) exploratory cmte. is "negotiating to hire" ex-RNC political dir. James Nathenson as "general consultant" for her campaign. And state Sen. Eugene Watts (R) has hired Wilson Communications Services for his advertising and Public Opinion Strategies for polling (Curtin, COLUMBUS DISPATCH, 9/1).

Tested: DeWine, state Sen. Eugene Watts (R), Bush NIH dir. Bernadine Healy (R), atty/businessman Joel Hyatt (D). Not tested: Reps. Louis Stokes (D-11) and Marcy Kaptur (D-09) and Cuyahoga Co. Commis. DeWine spokesperson Barry Bennett "said the poll shows that Ohio Republicans are much more familiar with DeWine than either Watts or Healy." Bennett also noted the poll results "would be included in future campaign fund-raising solicitations." Spokespersons for Healy and Watts "discounted the poll." Watts spokesperson Fred Wolf: "I don't think that much of it this early in the process" (Luttner, Cleveland PLAIN DEALER, 8/25). Healy exploratory cmte manager Rex Elsass: "This poll tells me that if Mike DeWine doesn't have an opponent, he has a good chance of winning the primary." Wolf: "We'll be releasing our polls next year, when it really matters." Akron BEACON JOURNAL's Hoffman notes with Celeste out, Boyle "appears the most likely primary contender against Hyatt" (8/25).

OHIO: HEALY'S PARTISAN HISTORY PUT TO THE BURNER

In an 8/3 letter sent to 1,100 GOP officeholders, county chairs, central and executive cmte members and other activists, Franklin Co. Commis. Dorthy Teeter wrote she is "offended" that Bush-NIH Dir. Dr. Bernadine Healy (R) is making moves toward the GOP primary. Teeter wrote that Healy "is not a registered Republican. She has never voted in a party primary in Ohio. Can we actually consider nominating someone to represent our party in the U.S. Senate who is not officially a Republican?" Teeter is a supporter of state Sen. Eugene Watts (R), who along with LG Mike DeWine (R) have announced their bids. Rex Elsass, manager of Healy's exploratory cmte said Teeter and Watts "would rather distort the facts than discuss the issues. This is an example of the politics of the past that has fueled public sentiment that there needs to be a change." Elsass "said both Teeter and Watts are former Democrats" and "should be more interested in expanding the GOP than in challenging Healy's credentials" (Curtin, COLUMBUS DISPATCH, 8/14). Cleveland PLAIN DEALER's Luttner writes, "the swiftly forming Republican primary appears to be clearer -- and could be far nastier -- than a Democratic contest," adding "at the moment, it looks like" Sen. Howard Metzenbaum's son-in-law/atty Joel Hyatt (D) "versus either Healy or DeWine." But, "It's still early" (8/15). Bob Novak: "The hottest candidate in Ohio right now is ... Bernadine Healy. ... What makes her is not only her personality but the fact that she has the support of Art Modell, the owner of the Cleveland Browns who is very deep into politics suddenly. He is able, they say, to raise $2.7 million dollars for her which will make her a real player. ... Mike DeWine ... [is] going to have a hard time raising a half a million for the primary against Art Modell's big football money" ("Inside Politics," CNN, 8/13).

KAPTUR-ING MINDS: Rep. Marcy Kaptur's (D-09) possible candidacy is profiled by TOLEDO BLADE's Nichols: For Kaptur, the "option of avoiding the 1994 mine field and waiting for a 1998 race to succeed a retiring" Sen. John Glenn (D) "has to be attractive. Still there is something alluring in the call of next year's race. The appeal lies in the notion that a woman of humble roots from a place like Toledo could take on a couple of the richest people in Ohio and maybe, just maybe, win" (8/16). Other possible Dems: Rep. Louis Stokes (D-11) and Cuyahoga Co. Commis Mary Boyle.

Governor George Voinovich has not been afraid to take the ax to the state budget. Most observers agree the economy will be the telltale as to how Voinovich's popularity holds up with voters. He's likely to seek reelection, and is pursuing an aggressive fundraising plan.

A number of Democrats may consider the race. Attorney General Lee Fisher and former congressman Dennis Eckart are at the top of most lists. State Treasurer Mary Ellen Withrow and state auditor Tom Ferguson hold state wide office, but are not considered to be particularly dynamic.

VOINOVICH BEHIND VOUCHERS: Voinovich is "expected to embrace a limited" public school-voucher program being reintroduced by GOPers after it "died" in the legislature in '92. Voinovich: "I will endorse the Ohio Scholarship Plan initiative within the next month or month and a half." Cincinnati Federation of Teachers Pres. Tom Mooney said, "if the governor does endorse vouchers, I expect we would no longer be able to support him (for re-election next year)." Similarly, the OH Education Association, the "largest" OH teachers' union, "consistently has lobbied against any type of voucher program" (Kimmins, CINCINNATI ENQUIRER, 9/15). Other Dem possibles: State Sen. Robert Burch and Ex-AG Wm. Brown.

OHIO: VOINOVICH STUFFS THE COFFERS

"Cincinnati's business community raked in $600,000" for Gov. George Voinovich's (R) re-election campaign in two fund-raising events. Voinovich consultant Curt Steiner said the events pushed Voinovich's '94 coffer over $3M. In '90, Voinovich spent $8.25M, while '90 Dem. nominee spent $7.8M "in what was the most expensive Ohio gubernatorial race ever." Steiner: "There's an assumption going in that it is going to be as least as expensive as it was the last time" (Wilkenson, CINCINNATI ENQUIRER, 9/1).

MORNING WITH WILLARD: Voinovich appeared with Willard Scott this a.m. on "Today." Both men noted how they have recently lost weight. Voinovich: "I've lost 15 pounds since I've been governor." Asked how he did it: "Stress" (NBC, 9/2).

SACRIFICIAL OFFERING: Cleveland PLAIN DEALER's Sharkey writes on State Rep. Jane Campbell's (D) possible entry into the race after ex-Gov. Dick Celeste (D) took himself out. "Campbell is getting a strong nudge" from House Speaker Vern Riffe (D) to get in to divert GOP attention from taking over the state House. "That means she will have the money and support for a serious run." One Dem adviser: "Nobody expects Jane to really win it. But she will run a respectable enough race that it won't be a rout by the Republicans. Jane can help Vern hold onto the House." Another Dem: "She has absolutely nothing to lose. ... She will win the undying gratitude of the Democratic Party for her sacrifice" (9/1). PLAIN DEALER's Suddes: "Rightly or wrongly, it's evident the Voinovich camp doesn't take [Dem state Sen. Robert] Burch seriously, despite Burch's hard work" (9/1). Other possible Dems: Ex-Rep. Dennis Eckart, Treas. Mary Ellen Withrow, Auditor Tom Ferguson, Cuyahoga Co. Commis. Mary Boyle.

HOTLINE 8/26/93

OHIO: CELESTE'S DEPARTURE CRACKS DEM FIELD WIDE OPEN

Ex-Gov. Dick Celeste's (D) "decision to take a job pitching President Clinton's health care plan rather than seek public office next year is the most dramatic development in the 1994 campaign for governor." Aside from Gov. George Voinovich (R), "Celeste was the one politician whose moves caused the political landscape to quake." Ex-OH Dem Chair Jim Ruvo: "Without Dick Celeste in the primary, it is a wide open contest ... No one can campaign as effectively as he can and he has the proven ability to raise the kind of money needed to win a major campaign." State Sen. Rob Burch (D) is the only announced candidate. Auditor Tom Ferguson (D) "has indicated he is considering the campaign," and Treasurer Mary Ellen Withrow (D) "has expressed interest." One "frequently mentioned name" is state Rep. Jane Campbell (D). Campbell "would most likely receive the support" of House Speaker Vern Riffe (D), "who is generally considered the most powerful Democrat in the state with a proven ability to raise large amounts of campaign funds" (Miller, DAYTON DAILY NEWS, 8/22). Other potential Dems: AG Lee Fisher and Cuyahoga Co. Commis. Mary Boyle.

HOTLINE 8/18/93

OHIO: VOINOVICH DOCUMENTS UNFUNDED FEDERAL MANDATES

Gov. George Voinovich (R) "released results of a first-of-its-kind study showing that unfunded federal mandates will cost Ohio $308 million this year. Costs to the state of such mandates are expected to jump to $355.6 million next year and $389.2 million in 1995." Voinovich presented the study at the NGA meeting in Tulsa, OK. "Acknowledging the governor's frustration," VP Gore said "Let's take a look at those unfunded mandates. Let's make sure that Washington consults with state and local officials." Adds Toledo BLADE's Hallett, "For years, governors and local government officials have grouched about the costs of regulations imposed by the federal government without providing money to pay for them. But this is the first time a state has documented the costs according to the NGA" (8/16).

DEMS PIN HOPES ON CELESTE: "Some [state] House Democrats are saying that" ex-Gov. Dick Celeste (D) "could help them by running for governor ... even if he were to lose to" Voinovich. "The private talk is mostly among members whose seats may be targeted next year in a heavily funded GOP assault on the House. they see an uphill battle for any Democrat against Voinovich, whose favorable ratings remain intact. ... The thinking is that a Celeste bid would spur Republicans into spending most of their money on the governor's race, rather than the House, which is within their grasp for the first time in more than two decades" (Miller, AP/CINCINNATI ENQUIRER, 8/8). Other possible candidates: State Sen. Robert Burch (D), Cleveland Mayor Mike White (D), AG Lee Fisher (D), ex-Rep. Dennis Eckart (D), Treas. Mary Ellen Withrow (D), Auditor Tom Ferguson (D), Cuyahoga Co. Commis. Mary Boyle (D) and state Rep. Jane Campbell (R).

OHIO: FERGUSON HAS GOP ALL SMILES, OTHERS IN DISBELIEF

Cleveland PLAIN DEALER's Sharkey writes Dems are reacting in "disbelief, some even with horror" at the increasing probability that state Auditor Tom Ferguson (D) will enter the race for gov. And the GOP is "delight[ed]." A consultant to Voinovich has even offered to pay Ferguson's filing fee. While Dems are "clutching at their hearts," GOPers are "pounding their chests in anticipation of a Ferguson-Voinovich matchup" (8/1). In response to OH Dem Chair Harry Meshel's remarks that Ferguson "could be an appropriate candidate," Akron BEACON JOURNAL's Chancellor asks, "How could Meshel tout a man for the governorship who has made a career of abusing the power of his office for his own sexual gratification and personal gain? ... The rancor of Ferguson's 19-year reign as auditor can't be covered up. ... Given Meshel's assessment of the political landscape -- this voter can only pray that a swarm of locusts will soon descend upon Ohio" (8/3).

INDIE: Ex-Ohio State Fair manager Billy Inmon (I), "who was fired last year after committing a series of public relations blunders and running up a big deficit," announced his bid.

SENATOR BOB DOLE

OHIO GOP EVENT

NOVEMBER 5, 1993

THANK YOU.

I WANT TO BEGIN TODAY BY CONGRATULATING CINCINNATI
FOR RECENTLY BEING NAMED BY PRENTISS-HALL AS
"AMERICA'S MOST LIVABLE CITY."

I HAVE TO ADMIT THAT I
CAST MY VOTE FOR RUSSELL, KANSAS, BUT CINCINNATI WAS MY SECOND CHOICE.

AND I HAVE TO TELL YOU
THAT A LOT OF FOLKS IN WASHINGTON, D.C. HAVE A
SPECIAL PLACE IN THEIR HEART
FOR CINCINNATI...AFTER ALL,
THE BENGALS ARE THE ONLY
TEAM IN THE LEAGUE WITH A

WORSE RECORD THAN THE REDSKINS.

BUT THERE IS ONE TEAM
THAT'S ON A WINNING STREAK, AND THAT'S THE REPUBLICAN TEAM.

IT WAS ONE YEAR AGO THIS WEEK WHEN PRESIDENT BUSH WAS DEFEATED, AND SOME WERE READY TO READ THE LAST

rites to the Republican Party.

SINCE THEN, HOWEVER,
THERE HAVE BEEN SIX MAJOR
ELECTIONS--SENATE SEATS IN GEORGIA AND TEXAS; MAYORAL
ELECTIONS IN NEW YORK AND LOS ANGELES; AND GUBERNATORIAL ELECTIONS IN VIRGINIA AND NEW JERSEY.

ALL OF THOSE SEATS WERE HELD BY DEMOCRATS. AND ALL
ARE NOW HELD BY REPUBLICANS.

WHAT'S OUR FORMULA?
WELL, I THINK IT'S THE FACT THAT WE HAVE GOOD
CANDIDATES AND WE HAVE THE RIGHT IDEAS.

THIS LAST TUESDAY, VOTERS IN VIRGINIA SAID GEORGE

ALLEN HAD THE RIGHT IDEAS IN COMBATTING THE EPIDEMIC OF VIOLENT CRIME.

VOTERS IN NEW JERSEY
SAID CHRISTIE TODD WHITMAN HAD THE RIGHT IDEAS IN GETTING GOVERNMENT OUT OF OUR POCKETBOOKS

AND VOTERS IN NEW YORK
CITY SAID RUDY GUILIANI HAD THE RIGHT IDEAS ON HOW TO

CONFRONT THE DIFFICULT
CHALLENGES OF OUR URBAN AREAS.

BUT THAT'S ALL BEHIND
US...AND NOW, WE HAVE TO LOOK TO THE FUTURE.

AND BETWEEN NOW AND NEXT NOVEMBER...IN OHIO AND IN EVERY OTHER STATE...REPUBLICANS HAVE TO PROVE TO THE AMERICAN

PEOPLE THAT WE HAVE THE RIGHT IDEAS ON ISSUES LIKE
HEALTH CARE, EDUCATION,
CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM, AND NATIONAL SECURITY.

*THERE ARE SOME IN WASHINGTON WHO THINK WE DON'T HAVE TO DO ALL
THAT...THERE ARE SOME WHO THINK THAT IT'S GOOD ENOUGH

JUST TO BE AGAINST WHAT BILL CLINTON IS FOR.

I DISAGREE. I DON'T THINK THAT'S ENOUGH.

I WANT TO BE A MEMBER OF
THE MAJORITY PARTY...AND
WE'VE STILL GOT A LONG WAY TO GO UNTIL THAT HAPPENS.

AND WE'RE NOT GOING TO BECOME THE MAJORITY PARTY

BY JUST SITTING ON THE SIDELINES.

WE'VE GOT TO GET IN DO
SOME HEAVY LIFTING...WE HAVE TO LET THE AMERICAN PEOPLE
KNOW WHAT WE STAND FOR...AND THE FUNDAMENTAL DIFFERENCES IN PHILOSOPHY
WE HAVE WITH THE DEMOCRAT PARTY.

AND AS WE'VE SEEN THIS YEAR, THERE ARE QUITE A FEW DIFFERENCES.

TIME AND AGAIN WE'VE SEEN THAT PRESIDENT CLINTON AND
THE DEMOCRATS SINCERELY AND HONESTLY BELIEVE THAT GOVERNMENT IS THE
ANSWER...THAT UNCLE SAM SHOULD TELL YOU HOW TO SPEND YOUR MONEY, HOW TO

RUN YOUR BUSINESS, AND HOW TO EDUCATE YOUR CHILDREN.

AND REPUBLICANS BELIEVE THAT YOU ARE THE
ANSWER...AND THAT IF WE STAY
OUT OF YOUR LIVES, STAY OUT
OF YOUR BUSINESS, AND STAY
OUT OF YOUR POCKETBOOKS,
YOU'LL MAKE THE RIGHT DECISIONS.

AND NOW THERE'S A LITTLE HEALTH CARE DEBATE GOING ON IN WASHINGTON. NOBODY--
BE THEY REPUBLICAN OR DEMOCRAT--DENIES THAT
PARTS OF OUR HEALTH CARE SYSTEM NEED TO BE FIXED.

BUT WHAT A LOT OF PEOPLE IN WASHINGTON FORGET IS THAT WE ALREADY HAVE THE WORLD'S BEST HEALTH CARE

DELIVERY SYSTEM. THEY FORGET THAT OUR DOCTORS, OUR HOSPITALS, AND OUR RESEARCH FACILITIES ARE THE
ENVY OF EVERY COUNTRY. AND THEY FORGET THAT AMERICAN'S
DON'T HAVE TO WAIT IN LINE TO SEE THE DOCTOR OF THEIR CHOICE.

AND THE WAY TO FIX OUR HEALTH CARE SYSTEM IS NOT

TO DENY AMERICANS THE QUALITY AND CHOICE THEY HAVE COME TO EXPECT.

THE PRESIDENT AND MRS.
CLINTON ARE VERY SINCERE ABOUT WANTING TO FIX THE HEALTH CARE SYSTEM...AND THEY SHOULD BE CONGRATULATED FOR PUTTING IT ON TOP OF AMERICA'S AGENDA.

BUT REPUBLICANS HAVE A
LOT OF QUESTIONS.
QUESTIONS LIKE WHO WINS,
WHO LOSES, AND HOW MUCH
DOES IT COST...AND QUESTIONS LIKE "DO WE REALLY NEED TO PUT THE GOVERNMENT IN CHARGE OF ONE SEVENTH OF OUR ECONOMY?"

AND WE'VE GOT A LONG ROAD AHEAD OF US UNTIL

THOSE QUESTIONS ARE ANSWERED.

REPUBLICANS HAVE PUT A NUMBER OF HEALTH CARE
PLANS ON THE TABLE...AND
THERE'S SOME GOOD IDEAS IN EACH OF THEM...BUT IN THE COMING MONTHS, I THINK WE NEED TO UNITE BEHIND ONE
PROGRAM THAT WE CAN TAKE TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

AND WHILE WE PROVIDE HEALTH CARE SECURITY, WE ALSO HAVE TO PROVIDE SOME SECURITY IN OUR STREETS.

YOU CAN TAKE A POLL ANYWHERE IN THE UNITED STATES, AND YOU'LL FIND THAT THE NUMBER ONE CONCERN OF AMERICANS IS CRIME.

AND WE'VE JUST STARTED TO DEBATE A CRIME BILL ON

THE FLOOR OF THE
SENATE...AND REPUBLICANS
ARE GOING TO BE ADVANCING
SOME IDEAS...IDEAS LIKE
REGIONAL PRISONS...WE'VE DISCOVERED THAT IF WE LOCK
CRIMINALS UP IN PRISON, THEY DON'T GO OUT IN COMMIT MORE
CRIMES, SO WE NEED MORE PRISON SPACE.

AND WE'VE ALSO DISCOVERED THAT IF YOU
SENTENCE SOMEBODY TO 15 YEARS IN PRISON, AND LET THEM OUT AFTER FIVE, THAT THEY'RE LIKELY TO GO OUT AND COMMIT MORE CRIMES.

SO, WE'RE TELLING THE STATES THAT IF THEY WANT TO PUT THEIR PRISONERS IN OUR REGIONAL PRISONS, THEN

THEY'LL HAVE TO ADOPT "TRUTH IN SENTENCING."

THAT MEANS WHEN A JUDGE
SENTENCES A CRIMINAL TO 15
YEARS, HE'LL DO EVERY DAY.
NO PAROLE. NO PROBATION.
NO KIDDING.

LET ME FINISH BY SAYING THAT ALONG WITH GOOD
CANDIDATES AND GOOD IDEAS, ONE OF THE KEYS TO OUR

PERFECT SIX FOR SIX RECORD
THIS PAST YEAR IS GOOD ORGANIZATION.

AND WE'LL NEED A GOOD
ORGANIZATION NEXT YEAR
HERE IN OHIO TO RE-ELECT
GOVERNOR VOINOVICH, TO ELECT A REPUBLICAN
SENATOR...AND ELECT MORE
REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMEN, AND TO MAINTAIN CONTROL OF

THE STATE SENATE.

SO I THANK YOU FOR YOUR
THE PARTY...I THANK YOU FOR
ALL YOU'VE DONE TO MAKE 1993
"THE YEAR OF THE REPUBLICAN." AND I'M CONFIDENT WE CAN DO THE
