- * THIS RACE IS ONE OF THE HIGHEST PRIORITIES FOR THE REPUBLICANS THIS YEAR.
- * THIS IS A VERY WINNABLE RACE AND FRED IS A VERY QUALIFIED CANDIDATE. FRED BRINGS A DEPTH OF EXPERIENCE THAT IS RARE FOR ANY CHALLENGER.
- * FRED HAS DEMONSTRATED HIS STRONG LEADERSHIP THROUGH HIS ROLES IN THE WATERGATE COMMITTEE AND THE CLEAN UP OF TENNESSEE'S PARDON AND PAROLE SCANDAL UNDER GOVERNOR BLANTON.
- * FRED CAN NOT WIN WITHOUT YOUR SUPPORT AND THAT OF YOUR COLLEAGUES. I VERY MUCH APPRECIATE YOUR EARLY SHOW OF SUPPORT BY BEING HERE TODAY. PLEASE PASS THE WORD.

TENNESSEANS SUPPORT THOMPSON WHILE COOPER COURTS HEALTH-CARE INDUSTRY

U.S. Senate candidate Fred Thompson out-raised Congressman Jim Cooper in support from Tennesseans last year. According to The Tennessean (1/30/94), "Thompson raised $664,000 in 1993 during the six months after he entered the race....he raised $514,000 (from Tennesseans), compared to Cooper's $416,000 within the state....he had 456 more contributors than Cooper."

The Wall Street Journal (2/7/94) reported that during the same time period, 35% of Congressman Jim Cooper's contributions came from the health-care industry. Michael Podherzer of Citizen Action, the group that conducted the study, said: "Representative Cooper has taken a holier-than-thou position with regard to campaign financing. Yet without taking a penny from PAC's, Cooper has managed to raise more money from health insurance interests than any other member of the House."

The report states $196,000 of Cooper's $554,000 from large individual contributors came from the health-care industry.

"I was gratified to raise more Tennessee money than a 12-year incumbent," Thompson said in The Tennessean (1/30/94). "Tennesseans are frustrated and in many instances angry at the performance of Congress. My message to them is that we can stand up and stop the trend. I'll continue to talk about congressional reform, crime and runaway taxing and spending."

MEMORANDUM

FEBRUARY 23, 1994

TO: SENATOR DOLE

FROM: MIRA BARATTA

SUBJECT: TALKING POINTS FOR PHOTO OP WITH BOSNIAN PRIME MINISTER

Yeltsin proposal for a summit on Bosnia:

-- NATO is finally engaged; no need for a so-called "great" powers conference on Bosnia.

-- Hope the President will reject this idea.

-- Concern about Russian bias in favor of Serbia. Yes, there are close historic ties, but Serbia is the aggressor. This is one more sign of the lack of reform in Russia' foreign policy.

Bosnia is a U.N. member state with rights under the U.N. Charter:

-- High time to stop treating Bosnia as a colonial territory whose future will be determined by the U.S., France, Russia, and Great Britain.

-- Best course would be to lift the arms embargo -- restore balance on the battlefield, and in negotiations.

Congressional support for implementing a peace settlement:

-- The more just a settlement, the more support it will have.

-- Few favor imposing a settlement on the Bosnian government.

-- Ultimately, the U.S. goal should be a viable Bosnian state which can depend on itself. Therefore, an implementation plan should include arming the Bosnian government forces so that they can defend their own borders -- as soon as possible -- so that Bosnia won't be overrun again.
