Dear Senator Dole:

We would be delighted if you would join us for a Congressional Roundtable luncheon on Thursday, March 24, from noon to 2:00 p.m., in the Grant Suite of the Willard Hotel. I have enclosed information about the program as well as a schedule from last year.

The meeting format includes a few minutes of opening remarks by you on the important issues before Congress and your committees, followed by Q&A and informal discussion over lunch. An honorarium of $2,000 will be provided to a charity of your choice.

We look forward to having you join us.

Yours sincerely,

As usual, you are the number one requested speaker and your participation means a great deal to us.

CONGRESSIONAL ROUNDTABLE

Congressional Roundtable is a unique issues luncheon group that brings together Washington representatives, business leaders and association executives with key congressional leaders from both sides of the aisle.

All meetings include a small, informal reception and luncheon that take place from noon to 2:00 PM in the Grant Suite of the historic Willard Hotel in Washington. At each session, members are seated with the congressional leader at a single round table. All luncheon meetings are informal, off-the-record sessions of timely discussion on topics of the members' choosing.

Membership in the group is limited to 20 subscribers that send only one representative to each session. Members may wish to send the same representative to all meetings or may send a different specialist or guest to each, depending upon the scheduled speaker. Congressional Roundtable will host 10 luncheon meeting sessions with government leaders in 1994.
