RE: American Warehouse Association
9:00 A.M.
Capitol Hill Hyatt Regency

*Approximately 80 small business owners and operators of public warehouses. You spoke to group last October.

*Looking for a few minutes of remarks on top issues of day, followed by Q&A.

*Their top three priorities:

1. Health care reform.
2. Striker replacement
3. S. 984: This is a bill, sponsored by Senator Simon, which places strict limits on electronic monitoring devices--cameras, motion detectors, etc. AWA members strongly oppose this bill, as most use some sort of surveillance as part of security protection.

The bill is in the Labor Committee, and Kassebaum's staff reports that it is likely to remain there absent drastic changes. Even Senator Kennedy has some concerns with the bill.

Dear Senator Dole:

The American Warehouse Association's (AWA) 1994 Legislative Conference will be held in Washington on June 14-15, 1994. Our members have specifically requested to have you once again be our keynote speaker on Tuesday, June 14.

As you may recall, AWA is the national association of small business owners and operators of public warehouses. Our members provide third party transportation, distribution and logistics services.

Word of your remarks and particularly the extra time you spent with individual attendees at last October's conference has spread throughout the association. As a result, we expect to double our attendance at this year's conference. We expect approximately 80 attendees from all over the country. In your position as Minority Leader, our members would like to hear your perspective on critical issues facing the country.

Currently our schedule calls for you to speak on June 14 beginning at 9:00 a.m. and concluding with questions and answers no later than 9:45 a.m. This portion of our program will be held at the Capitol Hill Hyatt Regency, located at 400 New Jersey Avenue, NW. Of course, if some other time better suits your schedule, we would be happy to once again work with your staff to rearrange our program. Also, AWA will be pleased to make a contribution to the charity of your choice.

I know our members will be delighted if your schedule permits you to accept our invitation. Please contact me at our Washington office (202/223-6222) if you or your staff have any questions or need additional information.

Sincerely,

Patrick C. O'Connor
Washington Representative
