Honorable Robert Dole

Office of the Minority Leader

United States Senate

Washington, DC 20510

July 9, 1994

Dear Senator Dole:

As the President of the Port Washington, New York Republican Club, I want to express my enthusiasm for your planned visit to Nassau County next Saturday.

Many will tell you, 'I was 'there' for you in '88'. Some were, many were not, but I was. FEC records bear out my maximum contributions. I did so as a long-time Republican activist, former Hill staffer, and current small businessowner on Long Island. I did so because I believed at that time that you were supremely qualified to be our next President, and I still feel this way. Events and the current occupant of the office are critical reasons crying out for your election; so much that better that you are superbly the Right Man For The Right Job. I look forward to enthusiastically supporting you for the 1996 Republican Presidential nomination.

A resume and other indicita of who I am, and how I can help you locally, will be sent upon request.

In the meantime, as a 'talking point' to establish local rapport with your audience on Saturday, you might want to mention how you came to help the local Helen Keller National Center for Deaf-Blind Youths and Adults in Port Washington in 1982. Your visit was effective in helping to obtain necessary budget relief at the OMB level. I worked on arranging this trip with your office, and accompanied you throughout the entire day that you spent in Nassau in October, 1982.

The goodwill and heartfelt empathy and concern shown by you that day is still widely remembered by all involved in your visit.

I want you to know that I will get to work on doing whatever I can do in my 'neck of the woods' to help assure a Dole victory in 1996.

Please feel free to contact me at the address on this stationery, or by calling me at 516-231-8888, etc. 208, or 516-944-7602.

Thank you, and I look forward to meeting you again on Saturday.

Sincerely yours,

SENATOR BOB DOLE

NASSAU COUNTY REPUBLICAN

COMMITTEE

JULY 16, 1994

THANK YOU.

I'VE TRAVELLED TO QUITE A FEW STATES THIS YEAR--CALIFORNIA, NEW HAMPSHIRE, OHIO, NEW HAMPSHIRE,
FLORIDA, NEW HAMPSHIRE, IOWA, NEW

HAMPSHIRE...AND NO MATTER WHERE I GO, I SENSE A NEW ENTHUSIASM IN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

BUT NO DOUBT ABOUT IT, THERE
IS NO GREATER ENTHUSIASM AND NO
GREATER MOMENTUM THAN RIGHT HERE
IN NEW YORK CITY.

IT STARTED WITH RUDY
GULIAIANI'S VICTORY. AND THIS
NOVEMBER, IT WILL CONTINUE, WHEN

NEW YORKERS GIVE GEORGE PATAKI A CHANCE TO LEAD NEW YORK IN A NEW DIRECTION, AND WHEN THEY GIVE
BERNADINE CASTRO A CHANCE TO HELP
LEAD WASHINGTON IN A NEW DIRECTION.

AND COME THIS NOVEMBER, NEW YORKERS WILL ALSO PUT ONE OF THE
BRIGHT YOUNG STARS OF OUR PARTY IN THE LT. GOVERNOR'S OFFICE.

IT WAS BETSY MCAUGHEY'S
(McCOY'S) ARTICLE IN THE NEW REPUBLIC LAST YEAR THAT REALLY
FIRST EXPOSED THE CLINTON HEALTH CARE PLAN FOR WHAT IT IS--AN ATTEMPT TO GIVE THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF ONE SEVENTH
OF OUR ECONOMY...AND AN ATTEMPT TO PUT A MOUNTAIN OF BUREAUCRATS
BETWEEN YOU AND YOUR DOCTOR.

BETSY TOOK A LOT OF HEAT FROM
THE WHITE HOUSE FOR THE ARTICLE--
AND THE WHITE HOUSE HAS CONTINUED
IN THE ATTACK MODE THROUGHOUT THE DEBATE....DOCTORS, PHARAMCEUTICAL
COMPANIES, INSURANCE FIRMS...ALL AT ONE TIME OR ANOTHER HAVE HAD THEIR MOTIVES QUESTIONED.

NOW, THE WHITE HOUSE HAS FOUND A NEW VILLAIN--PIZZA HUT.

PIZZA HUT IS THE LARGEST EMPLOYER IN KANSAS. IT CREATES
MANY PART TIME JOBS. AND IT WAS
THE FIRST MAJOR RESTAURANT CHAIN
TO OFFER ACCESS TO HEALTH CARE TO ITS PART-TIME EMPLOYEES.

BUT THE DEMOCRAT NATIONAL COMMITTEE HAS DECIDED THAT SINCE
PIZZA HUT IS HEADQUARTERED IN BOB
DOLE'S HOME STATE, AND SINCE THEY

OPPOSE THE CLINTON PLAN, THEY SHOULD BE PUNISHED.

NO, THEY'RE NOT PROPOSING A TAX ON PEPPERONI--THOUGH I
UNDERSTAND THEY HAVEN'T RULED
THAT OUT. WHAT THEY'RE DOING
INSTEAD IS ORGANIZING WHAT THEY
CALL "A NATIONAL DAY OF ACTION" AGAINST PIZZA HUTS ACROSS THE NATION/

IN WHAT IS LABELED "AN URGENT AND CONFIDENTIAL MESSAGE" THE
"HEALTH CARE REFORM PROJECT BOILER ROOM" EVEN OFFERS TO SEND PRE-
PRINTED PICKET SIGNS TO THEIR SUPPORTERS.

IN OTHER WORDS, SINCE THE
ADMINISTRATION IS HAVING TROUBLE
SELLING THEIR PRODUCT, THEY ARE ATTACKING A COMPANY THAT HAS

PROBLEMS IN SELLING THEIRS.

THESE NEXT THREE WEEKS ARE CRITICAL TO THE OUTCOME OF HEALTH CARE REFORM...CRITICAL TO THE
MEDICAL PROFESSION...AND CRITICAL TO THE WELL BEING OF ALL AMERICANS.

IT SEEMS TO ME THAT WE HAVE A
CHOICE OF TWO DIFFERENT ROADS WE CAN TAKE IN THE COMING WEEKS. THE FIRST ROAD IS GETTING HEALTH CARE

REFORM DONE FAST. AND THE SECOND CHOICE IS GETTING IT DONE RIGHT.

NOW, IF YOU WERE TO GO UP TO YOUR PATIENT BEFORE SURGERY AND SAY, "I CAN EITHER PERFORM THIS
SURGERY IN FIVE MINUTES WITH NO
GUARANTEES THAT IT WILL WORK, OR I CAN PERFORM IT IN ONE HOUR AND
GUARANTEE YOU THAT IT WILL BE A SUCCESS." DO YOU HAVE ANY DOUBT

WHICH OPTION YOUR PATIENT WOULD CHOOSE?

UNFORTUNATELY, IT APPEARS
THAT THE ADMINISTRATION AND THE DEMOCRAT LEADERSHIP WANT TO GET IT DONE FAST.

WE ARE SEEING A RETURN TO THE SECRET MEETINGS THAT BEGAN THIS
DEBATE. THE CLINTON ADMINISTRATION
AND THE DEMOCRAT LEADERSHIP HAVE

APPARENTLY GIVEN UP ON WORKING ON A BI-PARTISAN BASIS. INSTEAD, THEY ARE LOOKING FOR THE LOWEST COMMON
DENOMINATOR--A PLAN THAT WILL PASS
WITH 51 VOTES IN THE SENATE AND 218
VOTES IN THE HOUSE--AND THEY APPEAR
TO BE INTENT ON PASSING IT BEFORE
THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO STUDY THE PLAN, AND TO LET US KNOW WHAT THEY THINK.

I'VE TRAVELLED QUITE A BIT SINCE
THE HEALTH CARE DEBATE BEGAN, AND MET WITH COUNTLESS AMERICANS--AND
I'VE YET TO HEAR ONE SAY "BOB, I
DON'T CARE WHAT YOU EVENTUALLY DO
WITH HEALTH CARE REFORM, I JUST WANT YOU TO GET IT DONE BEFORE THE AUGUST RECESS."

WHAT I HEAR INSTEAD IS THAT
THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WANT IS FOR

CONGRESS TO TAKE OUR TIME AND TO GET IN DONE RIGHT.

SENATOR PACKWOOD AND I
BELIEVE WE HAVE INTRODUCED A PLAN
THAT GETS HEALTH CARE REFORM
RIGHT. 40 REPUBLICANS ARE CO-
SPONSORING OUR PLAN--AND WE CONTINUE TO REACH OUT TO
DEMOCRATS, AS THIS IS NOT A
REPUBLICAN ALTERNATIVE OR A

DEMOCRAT ALTERNATIVE--RATHER IT'S AN AMERICAN ALTERNATIVE.

IF SOMEBODY HAS CANCER IN THE
FAMILY, SHOULD YOU BE DENIED
COVERAGE FOR THE FAMILY? THE
ANSWER IS NO. AND THE DOLE-PACKWOOD PLAN TAKES CARE OF IT.

IF YOU LOSE OR CHANGE YOUR JOB, SHOULD YOU ALSO LOSE YOUR HEALTH INSURANCE? THE ANSWER IS

NO. AND THE DOLE-PACKWOOD PLAN

TAKES CARE OF IT.

IF YOU CANNOT AFFORD HEALTH
INSURANCE, SHOULD THE GOVERNMENT
HELP? THE ANSWER IS YES, AND DOLE-PACKWOOD TAKES CARE OF IT.

JUST AS IMPORTANT AS WHAT'S IN THE DOLE-PACKWOOD PLAN, IS WHAT'S NOT IN IT.

WE DO NOT HAVE EMPLOYER
MANDATES. WE ARE NOT TRYING TO PUT PEOPLE OUT OF WORK. THE EMPLOYER MANDATE IS AN EMPLOYER
TAX. IT IS A TAX ON BUSINESS. AND
IN THE STATE OF KANSAS, WHERE 90
PERCENT OF YOUR EMPLOYERS HAVE 10
OR FEWER EMPLOYERS, SMALL
BUSINESSMEN, AND SMALL BUSINESS
WOMEN ARE THE BACKBONE OF OUR ECONOMY; THEY ARE DOING ALL THEY

CAN FOR THEIR EMPLOYEES, BUT THERE ARE LIMITS.

OUR PLAN ALSO DOES NOT HAVE ANY NEW TAXES. WE THINK THAT IS IMPORTANT. I HAVE NOT HAD ANYBODY
WRITE IN AND SAY TO ME, "WE WANT
MORE TAXES," AFTER THE $265 BILLION
TAX INCREASE IMPOSED ON THE
AMERICAN PUBLIC LAST YEAR. AND SOME SAY THAT IS WHY THE DOLLAR IS FALLING APART, BECAUSE OF THE BIG TAX INCREASE.

OUR PLAN ALSO DOESN'T CREATE
"ONE SIZE FITS ALL" HEALTH CARE. THE
ADMINISTRATION BILL AND THE FINANCE COMMITTEE BILL MANDATE "ONE SIZE FITS ALL" HEALTH CARE. YOU CANNOT
BUY ANY LESS. IF YOU ARE A 22-YEAR-
OLD AND DO NOT HAVE A FAMILY AND
WANT TO BUY A CATASTROPHIC PLAN,
YOU CANNOT DO THAT BECAUSE THAT IS LESS THAN THE STANDARD PLAN. THE
GOVERNMENT IS GOING TO TELL YOU
WHAT YOU CAN BUY. IT WOULD BE

ILLEGAL TO BUY ANY LESS. YOU CAN BUY MORE, BUT YOU CANNOT BUY ANY LESS.

CAN YOU IMAGINE THAT? IN A
FREE COUNTRY LIKE AMERICA, YOU HAVE
TO BUY THEIR PLAN. YOU CANNOT BUY
ANYTHING LESS IN AMERICA. NOTHING
LESS. YOU HAVE TO TAKE IT.

AND THAT'S WHY PEOPLE ARE TURNING TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY...THEY UNDERSTAND THAT PRESIDENT CLINTON AND THE

DEMOCRATS TRULY BELIEVE THAT GOVERNMENT KNOWS BEST.

REPUBLICANS BELIEVE OTHERWISE. WE BELIEVE YOU KNOW BEST. AND THE PEOPLE AGREE WITH US.

AND THROUGHOUT MY YEARS IN POLITICS, I'VE BEEN WORKING FOR THE
DAY WHEN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY
WOULD BE THE MAJORITY PARTY IN AMERICA.

AND WHILE WE'VE HAD OUR VICTORIES, AND WON 5 OF THE LAST 7

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS IN

LANDSLIDES, WE STILL HAVE NOT

REACHED MAJORITY STATUS.

THE FACT IS THAT THE

DEMOCRATS HAVE CONTROLLED THE

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES FOR THE

LAST 40 YEARS. THEY'VE CONTROLLED

THE SENATE FOR 32 OF THE LAST 40

YEARS. AND THEY'VE CONTROLLED

MOST OF THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICES,

STATE LEGISLATURES, AND CITY HALLS

ACROSS AMERICA.

BUT I BELIEVE THAT WHEN
REPUBLICANS MEET 10...15...20...YEARS
FROM NOW, WE'LL BE ABLE TO LOOK
BACK AND SAY THAT 1994 WAS THE
YEAR THE TIDE TURNED. 1994 WAS THE
YEAR THAT MADE IT POSSIBLE FOR THE
REPUBLICAN PARTY TO BE THE
MAJORITY PARTY--IN CONGRESS, IN NEW YORK AND ACROSS THE NATION.

THE BIG NUMBER THIS YEAR IS 47.
WHAT DOES THAT NUMBER MEAN?
WELL, FOR ONE, UNDER THE CLINTON

HEALTH PLAN, IT'S HOW MANY BUREAUCRATS YOU'LL HAVE TO TALK TO BEFORE YOU CAN SEE YOUR DOCTORS.

47 IS ALSO THE NUMBER OF POSITIONS THIS ADMINISTRATION HAS TAKEN ON THE SITUATION IN HAITI.

BUT MOST IMPORTANTLY, 47 IS
THE NUMBER THE REPUBLICANS NEED TO TAKE CONTROL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND THE SENATE.

A GAIN OF 40 SEATS IN THE HOUSE...AND A GAIN OF JUST 7 SEATS

IN THE SENATE WOULD MEAN THAT COME JANUARY, 1995, NEWT GINGRICH
WOULD BE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE, AND
BOB DOLE WOULD BE SENATE MAJORITY LEADER.

DON'T YOU THINK THAT'S A PICTURE THAT KEEPS LIBERALS UP AT NIGHT? I TELL YOU, I THINK IF IT HAPPENED, THE NEW YORK TIMES AND
THE WASHINGTON POST WOULD JUST SHUT DOWN.

BY CHANGING THE PARTY THAT CONTROLS CONGRESS, AMERICA WOULD GET CHANGE FOR THE BETTER IN A NUMBER OF AREAS.

WE'D CHANGE THE ECONOMY FOR THE BETTER THROUGH A BALANCED
BUDGET AMENDMENT, A LINE ITEM
VETO, A CUT IN THE CAPITAL GAINS TAX
RATE, AND BY CUTTING GOVERNMENT
SPENDING. THAT'S QUITE A BIT
DIFFERENT THAN WHAT TAXPAYERS
FROM A DEMOCRAT CONGRESS LAST

YEAR--THE LARGEST TAX INCREASE IN HISTORY.

WE'D CHANGE OUR CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM FOR THE BETTER BY
REPAIRING THE LOOPHOLES AND ARCANE
TECHNICALITIES THAT PLACE THE RIGHTS OF CRIMINALS ABOVE THE RIGHTS OF VICTIMS, AND BY
REMEMBERING THE SIMPLE FACT THAT THE QUICKEST AND SUREST WAY TO REDUCE CRIME IS TO KEEP REPEAT OFFENDERS BEHIND BARS.

WE'D CHANGE CAPITOL HILL FOR THE BETTER BY MAKING CONGRESS
ABIDE BY THE LAWS IT CREATES FOR
THE REST OF THE COUNTRY, AND BY CUTTING THE CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET
AND THE NUMBER OF STAFF MEMBERS.
IN THE PAST 15 YEARS, THE COST OF
CONGRESS HAS DOUBLED TO MORE
THAN $2 BILLION A YEAR...AND THE
NUMBER OF STAFFERS HAS INCREASED
BY 25%--TO MORE THAN 37,000.

AND YOU CAN BET THAT WE'D
ALSO CHANGE OUR NATIONAL SECURITY
AND OUR FOREIGN POLICY FOR THE
BETTER BY BRINGING BACK TWO WORDS
THE CLINTON ADMINISTRATION SEEMS TO HAVE FORGOTTEN--AND THOSE TWO WORDS ARE "AMERICAN LEADERSHIP."

REPUBLICANS KNOW THAT THE PENTAGON IS NOT A JOBS PROGRAM--
BUT WE ALSO KNOW THAT PRESIDENT
CLINTON'S BUDGET DOESN'T JUST CUT
OUR DEFENSE--IT GUTS OUR DEFENSE.

THIS IS STILL A VERY DANGEROUS
WORLD, AND REPUBLICANS UNDERSTAND
THAT WE MUST PROVIDE OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN UNIFORM WITH THE RESOURCES THEY NEED TO DEFEND OUR NATIONAL INTEREST.

AND REPUBLICANS WILL ALSO ENSURE THAT IT IS OUR NATIONAL INTEREST--AND NOT THE INTEREST OF BOUTROS BOUTROS GHALI AND THE
UNITED NATIONS--THAT SETS THE DIRECTION FOR OUR FOREIGN POLICY.

THERE WERE A LOT OF WORLD
LEADERS THERE. BUT MORE IMPORTANT
THAN THE PRESIDENTS AND PRIME MINISTERS WERE THE SOLDIERS WHO RETURNED...THE SOLDIERS WHO RISKED
THEIR LIVES FOR FREEDOM. AND, OF COURSE, THERE WERE ALSO THE SOLDIERS WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES...THE
ENDLESS ROWS OF WHITE CROSSES
THAT MARKED THE FINAL RESTING
PLACE OF THOSE WHO NEVER CAME HOME.

D-DAY MARKED MORE THAN THE
BEGINNING OF THE END OF WORLD WAR
II. IT ALSO MARKED THE BEGINNING OF
WHAT HAS BEEN--UNDER REPUBLICAN
AND DEMOCRAT PRESIDENTS ALIKE--A HALF-CENTURY OF AMERICAN
LEADERSHIP.

IT WAS AMERICAN LEADERSHIP
THAT REBUILT EUROPE AFTER WORLD WAR II.

IT WAS AMERICAN LEADERSHIP THAT STOOD FOR FREEDOM IN PLACES

LIKE KOREA AND VIETNAM.

IT WAS AMERICAN LEADERSHIP THAT STOOD GUARD IN EUROPE AND AROUND THE WORLD THROUGHOUT THE LONG COLD WAR.

IT WAS AMERICAN LEADERSHIP
THAT HAS KEPT ALIVE ANY HOPE FOR PEACE IN THE MIDEAST.

IT WAS AMERICAN LEADERSHIP THAT KEPT SADDAM HUSSEIN FROM CONTROLLING THE WORLD'S OIL SUPPLY.

HAS THIS LEADERSHIP BEEN EXPENSIVE? YOU BET IT HAS--BOTH IN
TERMS OF LIVES LOST AND MONEY
SPENT IN BATTLE AND IN STANDING
GUARD DURING THE LONG COLD WAR.

BUT HAS THIS LEADERSHIP BEEN WORTH THE COST? ABSOLUTELY. THE WORLD IS A SAFER, FREER, AND BETTER PLACE BECAUSE OF AMERICAN
LEADERSHIP.

WHEN AMERICA'S INTERESTS ARE AT STAKE, WHEN FREEDOM IS

THREATENED, THEN, LIKE IT OR NOT, WE ARE THE ONLY "COP ON THE BEAT." WE ARE THE WORLD'S ONLY ECONOMIC,
MILITARY, AND POLITICAL SUPERPOWER.
AND WE MUST LEAD. BECAUSE WHEN AMERICA LEADS, THE WORLD GETS CHANGED FOR THE BETTER.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH FOR WHAT
YOU ARE DOING FOR THE REPUBLICAN
PARTY...AND THANK YOU FOR ALL YOU WILL BE DOING TO BRING ABOUT THE

DAY WHEN WE WILL BE MEMBERS OF THE MAJORITY PARTY.

MEMORANDUM

July 13, 1994

To: Senator Dole
From: Bill Thorne, NRSC
Re: Background for New York Senate Race

Following is background information for your trip to New York:

CASTRO BIO ATTACHED

File Date	Primary Date	Coordinated
July 14	Sept. 13	$1,609,136

Race Update:

1. Political newcomer Bernadette Castro was recently chosen as the GOP Senate nominee over former Ambassador to France, Evan Galbraith, receiving the support of over 90% of the delegates at the state GOP convention. She is considered a rising star in the state and offers a strong contrast to Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan.
2. Castro has a great deal of personal resources and has the advantage of a united state GOP. In May, Castro hired Ed Rollins as a general consultant. Recently, when asked by the media how much of her own money she would be willing to contribute to the campaign, she responded "As much as it takes." It is important to note that the gubernatorial ticket also includes a woman while there is not a woman at the top of the Democrats' slate.
3. Politically in New York, most observers and political activists are focused on the gubernatorial race. Polls have consistently shown Governor Mario Cuomo as very vulnerable in his re-election bid; Republican state Senator George Pataki, the party's gubernatorial nominee (who has the backing of Senator Al D'Amato), is only seven points behind in a recent hallot survey, 48% to 41%. With Governor Cuomo's numbers very weak, Moynihan will have the problem of having to distance himself from both the state and national Democrats.
4. The Rev. Al Sharpton will challenge Sen. Moynihan in the Democrat primary on September 13 after petitioning to get on the ballot. In order to accomplish that goal, he had to collect 15,000 valid signatures on nominating petitions during a five-week period this summer.

BERNADETTE CASTRO U.S.SENATE

Bernadette Castro

Bernadette Castro first entered public life at the age of 4, when her father, Bernard Castro, made her the star of his soon-to-become legendary television commercials for the family business product, Castro Convertibles.

After earning her undergraduate degree, Bernadette Castro was elected to the Phi Kappa Phi honor society for her work in winning her Masters degree in Secondary School Administration, both at the University of Florida.

Following her stewardship of the family business, Bernadette crafted the 1993 sale of the Castro furniture division. She then turned her attention to management of the family real estate holdings.

Bernadette Castro has remained in the public eye, as a spokesperson for Castro Convertibles and as a sought-after motivational speaker to students, on the subject of attaining success in business life.

Bernadette Castro is married to Dr. Peter M. Gulda. She has four children: daughter Terri is an Assistant District Attorney; son David is in law school; sons Jonathan and Bernard are in college. The family resides in the town of Huntington.

SUBJ: THIS SATURDAY'S EVENT FOR CONGRESSMAN DAVID LEVY

Dave Levy called me to discuss your appearance at his fundraising event in New York this Saturday, with 3 specific points:

- (1) He has no way of predicting how many people may show up; it could be 30, or it could be 300. The Mondello event is giving him stiff competition, since it's so near by and they draw from the same donor base. Also, his people have a tendency to not RSVP, and simply show up. Regardless of the size of the event, he wants you to know how much he appreciates what you're doing, and that he derives a very substantial boost simply by your appearing on his behalf.
- (2) Many of the people attending his event will be physicians, so comments on your health care plan would be appropriate.
- (3) A good number of those attending are Jewish, and you get "mixed reviews" from them -- he believes because the press doesn't give you a fair shake on your support for Israel. It would be beneficial for you to make some comments on this issue, perhaps leading into it by congratulating Levy for his support for Israel as a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee.

MEMORANDUM TO SENATOR DOLE

FROM: SUZANNE HELLMANN SH
RE: NEW YORK BRIEFING MATERIALS

NY FILING DEADLINE: July 14
NY PRIMARY DATE: September 13

NASSAU COUNTY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE

Nassau County consists of the 3rd, 4th and 5th Congressional Districts of New York. It is a very conservative area, however each one voted for Clinton in 1992 --

CD 03	Clinton	44%
	Bush	42%
	Perot	14%
CD 04	Clinton	47%
	Bush	41%
	Perot	12%
CD 05	Clinton	52%
	Bush	34%
	Perot	12%

It is expected that both Reps. King (R) and Levy (R) will face primary opposition from 1992 opponents. The filing deadline is July 14 (yesterday). Rep. Gary Ackerman of the 5th CD has no primary opposition, however, there are three Republicans vying for the opportunity to defeat him. Yet the GOP nominated candidate for the 5th is Allen Binder who also ran in 1992 and got 45% to Ackerman's 52% (3% went to a third party candidate). The other two Republican candidates are Edward Elkowitz and Grant Lally.

Reps. King and Levy are expected to be in attendance at the luncheon as is Allen Binder. You should probably avoid backing Binder, however, since there are other Republicans running. As you know, the NY Republican Party is quite powerful in the selection of candidates. The Executive Committee of the County meets at their own convention and nominates a candidate, to the dismay of many other GOPers who run. In fact, I recently received a call from a disgruntled Republican in NY 21 CD, Albany, who was angered by the fact that the committee selects and endorses their own candidate. His concern is that the establishment of a third party is looming which could harm the GOP.

As you also know, the nominated candidate for the 1st congressional district, a Michael Forbes, requested your presence at his evening fund-raiser in Remsenburg, NY. We have told him this will not be possible with your tight schedule. I believe Mo told you about this candidate and the many who do not think too highly of him. Besides, Forbes will likely have Republican opposition. For your information they expect 60-70 people and it will take place at the home of Ms. Diane Imbert, 10 Mallard Lane.

Issues -- the County Republican Party has indicated that this will be a highly political crowd. Your remarks should focus on the 1994 elections and the GOP successes we've had so far since Clinton's election. U.S. Senate candidate Castro and gubernatorial candidate, State Senator George Pataki, are both expected to attend.

A mention of the Chairman of the Nassau County GOP, Joseph Mondello, would be greatly appreciated by the Party. Mondello has served in that position for 11 years and is also the Republican National Committeeman for NY. He has held this position since August of 1992. (See enclosed bio for additional information on Mondello.) Mondello was an early backer of Pataki, by the way, which probably helped to ensure Pataki's nomination on the first ballot.

Another potential topic of concern to the group or the press would be the cut-backs in defense spending. Unisys, a maker of high-tech defense systems and the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy are located in the 5th district; Grumman (Northrop) Industries are the largest employers in the 3rd CD.

U.S. SENATE RACE

Cook Ratings from July 13 keep this race in the "Solid Dem" slot.

One controversy with the Castro campaign was the hiring of Political consultant Ed Rollins. The Moynihan campaign called for the dismissal of Rollins saying Moynihan "deplores the hiring of a political operative who thinks it is appropriate to slander African-America clergy order to inflate his own ego and reputation." But Castro manager Howard de Martini responded with "The real issue is not whether Ed Rollins should continue to represent Bernadette, but whether Senator Moynihan should continue to represent New Yorkers."

(NOTE: Sharpton did file for this seat).

The most recent poll (6/16-19) reveals that Moynihan continues to be very strong:

GENERAL	ALL	LONG I.	MEN	WOMEN
Moynihan	64%	56%	67%	62%
Castro	21%	30%	22%	19%

DEM PRIMARY	ALL	NYC
Moynihan	67%	60%
Sharpton	15%	21%

OPINION OF	FAV/UNFAV
Moynihan	65%/18%
Castro	19 / 12
Sharpton	14 / 61

GUBERNATORIAL RACE

Gov. Cuomo continues to plummet in the polls. The following four polls show the slide:

6/2-5 Harris Poll

TWO-WAY		THREE-WAY	CUOMO JOB
Cuomo	48%	Cuomo 47%	Approve	45%
Pataki	41	Pataki 40	Disapprove	49

Pataki	40%	Positive	29%
Cuomo	35	Negative	69

7/5-7 Luntz Research Poll

TWO-WAY		FOUR WAY
Pataki	47%	Cuomo	39%
Cuomo	42	Pataki	37
Undec.	11	Stern	6
		Walsh	5
		Undec.	13

NOTE: We do not yet know if Rosenbaum filed. The Board of Elections office in Albany thinks he may have mailed in his forms. Another Republican, Robert G. Relph, Sr., filed against Pataki under the Conservative Party label.

CAMPAIGN ISSUES

- Abortion -- Sen. Pataki has moderated his pro-life position and is now under attack from both ends of the political spectrum.
- Death Penalty -- As you probably read, Gov. Cuomo has proposed that the state legislature approve a state constitutional amendment that would give voters three options for murder penalties: the death penalty, life without parole or life with the possibility of parole. In the past, Cuomo has been militantly opposed to the death penalty. However, since polling indicates that the New York electorate strongly supports the death penalty, Cuomo is trying to distance himself from his earlier position. (Those who favor the death penalty are now about 3-1 over those who oppose it -- Pollster Zogby.) See enclosed pieces on the debate.
- Cuomo commercials -- One features Cuomo's support in '84 for the nation's first mandatory seatbelt law. The other is the Roswell Park Hospital with Roswell Park IV taking about how Cuomo has saved that institution by spending state money. Number one, New Yorkers do not favor the seatbelt law and they also know that Cuomo had nothing to do with the law's passage. Secondly, people do not want to hear about how Cuomo has been spending all their hard-earned money. These are strange messages for the Cuomo ad campaign.

Congressman David A. Levy
Fourth District, New York

Vital Statistics

Education:

J.D., Hofstra University School of Law,
Hempstead, NY, 1979

B.A., Communications,
Hofstra University, 1974

Personal:

Born December 18, 1953.

Resides in Baldwin, N.Y.

Married to Tracy Burgess Levy.

Two children from a previous marriage.

Prior Elected Offices:

Councilman, Town of
Hempstead, New York
1989 1992

David A. Levy (R-Baldwin) arrived in Washington on January 5, 1993 to represent southwest Nassau County (Long Island) in the United States House of Representatives. In doing so, he succeeded Raymond J. McGrath, who retired from Congress after 12 years of service.

Congressman Levy enters the federal arena after serving with distinction in a variety of local political and governmental posts. Among them: press secretary to a former town supervisor, counsel to his local Republican committee, executive assistant to a town supervisor and Councilman in America's most populous town, the Town of Hempstead.

Enroute to his congressional seat, Mr. Levy turned back a primary challenge by a once-popular member of the New York State Assembly and, in the general election, defeated the chief aide to a well known Member of Congress from California.

A radio news reporter before entering government service, Congressman Levy was affiliated with stations WGHB (Freeport), WHN (New York City) and WINS (New York City). He covered a variety of stories in the New York and Long Island areas. He also served as counsel to the New York State Assembly and as Associate Director of Public Affairs for one of the nation's largest electric and gas utilities, the Long Island Lighting Company. In the late 1970's, he was a member of the adjunct Communications faculty at two of Long Island's institutions of higher learning.

As an attorney, he is admitted to practice before all of New York State's state courts and before the federal courts for the eastern and southern districts of New York.

A strict fiscal conservative, Mr. Levy is proud of the fact that, despite tax hikes at virtually every other level of government, taxes in his town remained frozen during his tenure as Councilman. He also takes pride in his outstanding record of service to the more than 700,000 residents of Hempstead.

As a freshman in Congress, Mr. Levy fought for -- and won -- appointment to two key panels: the Committee on Foreign Affairs and the Public Works and Transportation Committee. On Foreign Affairs, he has been assigned to subcommittees dealing with Europe and the Middle East and with International Operations. On the public works panel, he sought and received appointment to the Surface Transportation and Aviation Subcommittees.

Mr. Levy's committee assignments will provide ample opportunity to serve his constituency. Nassau County's educated and ethnically diverse voters maintain keen interests in international affairs. With two large airports bordering his district, and tens of thousands of daily road and rail commuters, Congressman Levy will have a substantial interest in voicing his constituents' concerns on national transportation policy.

In Congress, Mr. Levy will advocate policies to stimulate economic growth to help his recession-weary district. He will also maintain an active constituent service operation to ensure Long Island voices are heard by Washington policymakers.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Senator Dole
FROM: Randy Scheunemann
SUBJECT: Middle East Information

The King Hussein-Rabin meeting for July 25 is the biggest news. There is, however, already some controversy over Clinton's proposed debt forgiveness for Jordan -- up to $1 billion. Congress has not yet been consulted, and there is concern that such forgiveness has been (or is being) offered before Jordan actually signs a comprehensive peace treaty. The other major concern is the potential deployment of American peacekeepers to the Golan Heights as part of a comprehensive Israel-Syria agreement. The conservative Likud party opposes such peacekeepers as do some conservatives in the United States (led by Frank Gaffney).

I have attached a summary of Congressman Levy's accomplishments prepared by his staff.

TALKING POINTS

- ISRAEL HAS SIGNED A HISTORIC PEACE AGREEMENT WITH THE PLO. IMPLEMENTATION WAS DELAYED, BUT HAS BEGUN. ARAFAT HAS GONE TO GAZA AND PALESTINIAN POLICE HAVE DEPLOYED. NOW THE BURDEN OF GOVERNING IS ON THE PLO.
- KING HUSSEIN HAS NOW AGREED TO MEET WITH PRIME MINISTER RABIN. IT APPEARS REAL PEACE IS CLOSER THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE THE CREATION OF ISRAEL.
- SYRIA WILL BE A TOUGH NUT TO CRACK. THE ISSUE OF AMERICAN PEACEKEEPERS IN THE GOLAN HEIGHTS IS SENSITIVE. BUT IT MAY BE THAT ASSAD CAN FINALLY SEE PEACE -- NOT WAR -- AS HIS BEST LONG-TERM INTEREST.
- IT IS CLEAR THAT PRIME MINISTER RABIN AND FOREIGN MINISTER PERES ARE SERIOUS ABOUT PEACE. AND IT IS CLEAR THAT ISRAEL IS SERIOUS ABOUT PEACE BECAUSE IT IS SECURE ENOUGH TO MAKE PEACE.
- AMERICAN SUPPORT FOR ISRAEL IS A VITAL ELEMENT IN ISRAELI SECURITY. AND AMERICAN SUPPORT WILL BE CRUCIAL FOR FUTURE PEACE JUST AS IT HAS BEEN FOR THE CAMP DAVID PROCESS.
- WITH DAVID LEVY ON HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS, YOU CAN BE SURE AMERICAN SUPPORT FOR ISRAEL HAS A VOICE IN CONGRESS.

LEGISLATIVE HIGHLIGHTS 103RD CONGRESS
CONGRESSMAN DAVID A. LEVY, 4TH DISTRICT, NEW YORK

LOCAL CONCERNS

Procured military housing units in East Meadow and Garden City, insuring military presence on Long Island. Units were scheduled to close due to defense downsizing; Congressman Levy, however, was able to sway Pentagon to keep facilities open and refurbished.

Active participant in Long Island Breast Cancer study currently taking place at the National Institutes of Health. Dave Levy has urged federal researchers to utilize local volunteers for study and insure that study focused on any and all possible links to breast cancer in Nassau County.

Championed increased funding for breast and cervical cancer research. In light of high breast cancer incidence on Long Island, House passed measure authorizing $150-million for early detection examinations.

Secured funding for Mineola grade crossing project, appropriating the final round of federal revenue for the $50 million project to make crossings safer for pedestrians and automobile traffic.

Spoke out in strong opposition and voted against the president's tax increase package, a proposal which will have a detrimental affect on Long Island business and residents, especially senior citizens.

Worked in coalition with the New York-New Jersey Port Authority, to make air noise a primary concern of the Federal Aviation Administration at JFK.

Fought for and won approval of Hempstead's application to the Justice Department for additional police officers.

Called for congressional oversight hearings on the recent rash of arrests in connection with fake aircraft parts. Representing an area adjacent to one of the world's largest international airports, the safety concerns of this problem are enormous.

Prodded NY-NJ Port Authority to cease the practice of open-air fire training at JFK Airport. At the urging of Congressman Levy, Port Authority has agreed to implement a safer, cleaner alternative to fire training at the airport.

Worked with other members of the Long Island congressional delegation to overturn federal statistical status for Long Island. Long Island originally included in plan to clump area with New York City, Suburban New Jersey, and Eastern Pennsylvania for statistical purposes which decide eligibility for federal funding.

Advanced tax fairness plan, where federal taxes would be assessed depending on an area's cost-of-living. Levy tax plan would be boon to Long Island residents and businesses.

Obtained $6 million in federal funds for improvements to Jericho Turnpike. Project was included in national highway system bill at the insistence of Congressman Levy.

Reached accord with federal Transportation Department head to abolish plans to re-route flights bound for Newark in an effort to relieve New Jersey of air noise. Representative Levy charged that Long Island could not bear the brunt of more jet noise.

DOMESTIC ISSUES

Cosponsored tough anti-crime legislation that puts the onus on the criminal and not the victim. Bill calls for stiffer penalties in relation to drug dealing and capital punishment for those accused of dealing in mass quantities. Measure also cuts back on the now seemingly endless appeal process for those criminals on death row.

Supported measure designed to prod states to toughen laws against domestic violence, provide grants for law enforcement efforts to prosecute and prevent crimes such as rape, and make interstate stalking or domestic violence a federal crime.

Voted for legislation that would prohibit companies from permanently replacing striking workers, nullifying a Supreme Court ruling allowing employers to replace workers striking for economic reasons, such as wages and benefits.

Implored president to develop an effective method for reviewing regulations which impose billions of dollars in costs to American consumers each year. Urged president to determine the most effective regulations at the lowest possible cost to businesses and consumers.

Helped develop welfare reform plan with other House Republicans which is based on reducing long-term costs by instituting mandatory work requirements for recipients.

Backed health care reform, but a less bureaucratic alternative to the president's plan. Levy supported bill focuses attention on fixing existing problems rather than redesigning the entire health care system, complete with new federal regulations and bureaucracies.

Reinforced veterans health programs by backing bill calling for a near $1 billion increase in veterans' medical care programs. Levy also called on president to insure that the veterans' health care system not be abolished but strengthened in any health care reform proposal.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Led Republican support of passage of the North American Free Trade Agreement, designed to eliminate tariffs in the United States, Mexico, and Canada. Long Island region rated as one of the top areas in the country to benefit from the trade pact.

Met with foreign leaders to discuss initiatives to restore stability to many of the world's hotspots, most notably Somalia, Bosnia and Haiti.

Insisted president withdraw U.S. troops from Somalia following sneak attack on American forces. Levy claimed original mission in Somalia had been completed and it was definitely time to remove U.S. troops from the region.

Maintained funding levels committed to Israel as prescribed in the Camp David accord.

Participated in meetings of Israel's top government officials on the eve of the Israeli-PLO peace agreement.

Demanded that Arab nations respond to the Middle East peace developments by lifting their long-standing economic boycott of Israel.

Submitted resolution, later supported by dozens of lawmakers, urging the U.S. Board for International Broadcasting (BIB) to start transmitting Radio Free Europe in the former Yugoslavia. BIB, in initiating broadcasts in the Balkans, claimed wide Congressional support motivated decision.

Introduced legislation designed to cut-off U.S. funding to the United Nations if that body recognizes rogue-nations bent on international terrorism. Language was unanimously passed by the House.

JERUSALEM, July 13 — While attention has been focused largely on the Palestinians and the start of their self-rule, peace talks between Israel and its Arab neighbors are at a potentially decisive stage on more fronts than at any moment since they began three years ago.

News Analysis This week Israel began a new round of negotiations with the Palestine Liberation Organization. In a few days it will enter a new phase in its dialogue with Jordan, and at the same time it will also welcome Secretary of State Warren Christopher, who will try to breathe fresh life into stalled talks with Syria. Wherever the Syrians go, Lebanon can be expected to follow.

In fact, some Israeli officials say these efforts will, as they develop over the next few months, determine whether Middle East peace negotiators ultimately succeed or fail. And though others caution against such do-or-die forecasts, they, too, agree that the multi-track talks have reached a critical point.

One reason, they say, is the inexorable reality of Israel's political calendar.

A Year for Labor's Talks

Having celebrated its second anniversary today, the Labor-led Government of Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin has two years left. That gives it perhaps another year to come to terms with the Arabs before turning its complete attention to domestic politics. And should Labor then be ousted by the rightist Likud Party, it is a fair bet that negotiations as they are now known, with Israel prepared to give up land for peace, will become a thing of the past.

For the moment, the talks commanding Israel's greatest interest are those with Jordan, which will take on a new look next week with the two sides holding their first open meetings in each other's country.

Negotiations on longstanding border and water disputes are supposed to begin on Monday in a tent set up along the border between the two countries, starting on the Israeli side at a point 10 miles north of the Gulf of Aqaba.

As part of this new direction, Foreign Minister Shimon Peres is scheduled next Wednesday to become the first top Israeli official to cross publicly into Jordan. Also, King Hussein told the Jordanian Parliament last Saturday that he planned to meet with Mr. Rabin, an encounter that Israeli officials say may take place in the fall.

In fact, the King is known to have met both Mr. Rabin and Mr. Peres, and other Israeli leaders, in secret sessions going back three decades. But his decision to go public — in good part to please the United States in the hope of obtaining military aid and debt writeoffs — is a significant shift, as is his readiness now to talk peace in the region itself.

Since negotiations began in October 1991, Jordan and Israel have confined their meetings to Washington.

By agreeing to bring them home, officials here say, King Hussein has signaled that he is prepared for bolder strides toward normal relations with the Israelis, without looking over his shoulder every minute to see if he is falling too far behind or getting too far ahead of Syria and other Arab countries.

Bracing for Change

The King himself leaves no doubt that, after watching Syria and the P.L.O. each follow its own best interests in talks with Israel, he feels it is time for Jordan also to worry less about pan-Arab coordination and to look out for No. 1. He is particularly blunt about wanting to climb back into Washington's good graces after falling into disfavor for having supported Iraq in the Persian Gulf war in 1991.

"If the meeting between me and the Israeli Prime Minister is a price to change the picture of this country, I will not hesitate at all and I consider it a service for my country, which is facing threats from all directions," he said in remarks to Parliament on Saturday. Significantly, his speech was broadcast live, apparently to brace his people for big changes.

How fast the King wants to go is a perennial question. In Amman, Prime Minister Abdel Salam Majali affirmed today that while certain agreements may be reached with Israel, Jordan would not sign a formal peace treaty ahead of Syria and other

That leaves Israel's talks with Syria, or, to be more accurate, its non-talks.

Visit by Christopher

Without progress on that front, there can be no hope for true regional peace, but the two sides have not met face to face since February, just before the massacre of 29 Palestinians in Hebron by an Israeli settler. (Israel is also trying to negotiate a treaty with Lebanon, but the Lebanese are in effect wards of Damascus and will follow its lead.)

This weekend, Secretary of State Christopher is scheduled to arrive here in an attempt to revive the Syrian-Israeli dialogue, but neither side offers much hope for a quick breakthrough. In Damascus, a Government newspaper said bluntly this week that "Syria has nothing new" to say.

If that proves to be the case, even nonaction could become a turning point. It may raise questions about how much longer Mr. Christopher is prepared to keep coming to the region on diplomatic shuttles that go nowhere.

And while some senior Israeli officials complain that the Secretary is too timid for their taste about banging diplomatic heads together, they also worry about the consequences should he withdraw from the scene entirely.

Golan Heights the Key

Without an active United States role — perhaps including American peacekeepers on a demilitarized Golan Heights — there will be no Israeli peace with Syria, they argue. Lately, Mr. Rabin has gone so far as to warn of war in a few years unless agreements are reached now, pronouncements that the rightist opposition waves off as a tactic to scare the public into supporting Government policies.

As ever, the key is the Golan Heights, captured by Israel from Syria in 1967 and long considered by Israelis to be indispensable to their security. For peace, Mr. Rabin says he is willing to give up most of the heights and to withdraw Israeli forces and settlements there over several years. But first he wants Syria to spell out its peace terms. In turn, the Syrians say they want peace, but first Israel must declare its readiness to leave the Golan — all of it.

"Everybody knows exactly what the stand of the other side is and what is required," a senior Israeli official said. "But nobody wants to be the first to make the move."

The frustration over this deadlock has begun to show.

"The gaps between Syria and ourselves are still very wide, but we were never, ever, closer to peace with Syria, ever," Deputy Foreign Minister Yossi Beilin said last week. He added, "The end of 1994, beginning of 1995 are the coming months that will make it or break it."

Arab countries.

"Jordan has to carefully calibrate how much normalization it can pursue with Israel to make the Americans happy but without antagonizing the Syrians," said Dore Gold, a senior researcher at the Jaffee Center for Strategic Studies of Tel Aviv University.

As a way to hold the King's interest, Israel has begun dropping hints that it is willing to consider new arrangements for Muslim and Christian holy sites in Jerusalem. Those places were in Jordanian hands before they fell to Israel in the 1967 Middle East war, and Jordan still considers itself responsible for Muslim shrines.

What exactly the Israelis mean is far from clear, and in any event they insist that Jerusalem must remain completely under their sovereignty. But by raising the possibility of a new status for non-Jewish sites, officials say, Israel both offers a conciliatory gesture to Jordan and sends a message to the Palestinians that, no matter what they say, they have no monopoly on Arab interests in the holy city.

On the Palestinian track, Israel and the P.L.O. began talks this week in Cairo on how to extend self-rule beyond its first stage, Jericho and the Gaza Strip, to encompass the entire West Bank.

P.L.O. negotiators say the discussions should move briskly, with Palestinians across the occupied territories taking charge of their own lives in a broad range of civil affairs and then holding area-wide elections in the fall.

Israelis are not so sanguine. They see months of arduous work ahead, more complicated in key respects than the Gaza-Jericho deal if only because the patchwork of Arab towns and Jewish settlements across the West Bank requires weighty security, cultural and religious considerations.

If the past is a guide, the Israeli-P.L.O. discussions will be studded with four-hanky crises and mutual charges of bad-faith bargaining. But the point for now is that both sides have decided that the start of Palestinian self-government in Gaza and Jericho should be a springboard for still more action and not an excuse to pause and tote up gains and losses.

JOSEPH N. MONDELLO

CHAIRMAN, NASSAU COUNTY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE

MARCH 1994

Joseph N. Mondello is serving in his eleventh year as Chairman of the Nassau County Republican Committee, which has long been acknowledged as one of the premier Republican county committees in the United States. He is also the Republican National Committeeman for the State of New York, the first Nassau Republican Chairman to be so honored.

Chairman Mondello has enjoyed a long and distinguished career in government and politics.

From 1979 to 1987, Chairman Mondello served as a Councilman of the Town of Hempstead, New York. In January, 1987, Mr. Mondello was appointed Hempstead Presiding Supervisor, and was successfully returned to office by wide margins in 1987, 1989, and 1991. In this capacity Mr. Mondello served as the chief executive officer of the nation's largest township and, as Vice Chairman of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors, he served as majority leader of Nassau County's legislative body.

Known as a strict fiscal conservative, one of Mr. Mondello's proudest achievements in office was his ability to steer Hempstead Town through the recession of the late 1980's and early 1990's by cutting costs, reducing the size of the town workforce, and holding the line on taxes without resorting to reductions in public services.

In April 1993, Mr. Mondello left the office of Presiding Supervisor to assume the reins of Nassau Downs as its Chairman of the Board and President.

A dean's list student at Hofstra College, Mondello earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1962. After graduating, Mondello worked as a teacher in the East Meadow school system and later became a probation officer in Nassau County.

His activities as a probation officer spurred him to return to the study of law, and in 1966, Mondello entered The New England School of Law. Mondello distinguished himself during his tenure in law school; he was named to law review after his first semester (an honor rarely accorded a freshman law student) and continued to serve on law review during his entire law school career. In addition, Mondello received the New England School of Law's American Jurisprudence Award, one of the school's highest academic honors.

In 1969, Chairman Mondello graduated from law school and passed the bar examination. He then helped found the Levittown based law firm of Flaum, Imbarrato and Mondello.

Chairman Mondello utilized his legal skills as counsel to the New York State Legislature, serving the New York State Senate Majority and the New York State Assembly Majority and Minority, the State Committee on Labor, and as a former Assistant District Attorney serving in the Complaint, Felony and Trial Bureaus. He also served as a Special Agent in the U.S. Office of Naval Intelligence.

He ran and was elected to the proposed Nassau County Legislature in 1975 but, due to the fact that the electorate failed to approve a referendum setting up a legislative form of government in the County, he never served in that capacity.

Locally, Chairman Mondello is active in many civic and fraternal organizations. He's a member of the Nassau County Bar Association, the former District Attorney's Association, the Nassau Lawyers Association, the Columbia Lawyers Guild, the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council of Nassau County, New York State District Attorney's Association, and Criminal Bar Association.

He is a charter member and former orator and member of the Board of Directors, Sons of Italy, Marco Polo Lodge; Ushers Society of St. Bernards Roman Catholic Church; Epsilon Sigma Fraternity of Hofstra University; Ancient Order of Hibernians; Knights of Columbus, Holy Innocents Council; the Knights of the Holy Sepulcher; Long Island Area Development Association; the Levittown Chamber of Commerce and the Uniondale Hispanic Association.

He is a member of the Nassau County Criminal Justice Coordinating Council, the Kiwanis and Lions Clubs and the Massapequa Park Post of the American Veterans. He also served as Levittown District Chairman of the Boy Scouts of America and a coordinator of Catholic Charities.

His military record included service in the Air National Guard as an airman from 1953 to 1956, United States Army as Corporal in the infantry from 1956 to 1958, and he presently serves as a Brigadier General in the New York Guard. He is currently a member of the Reserve Officers Association.

Chairman Mondello has received a host of awards and recognitions from various civic, professional and fraternal organizations, including: The Good Scout Award for Community Service from the Nassau County Council of the Boy Scouts of America; the Law Enforcement Man of the Year Award from the Detective's Association of the Nassau County Police Department; Certificate of Merit from the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States; the Youth Service Award of the Levittown Athletic Club; Community Service Recognition from the Marco Polo Lodge of the Order of Sons of Italy; Merit Award from the Hispanic Committee of Nassau County; Citation of Merit from the Grand Lodge of the State of New York, Order Sons of Italy; Certificate of Achievement from the American Committee on Italian Migration; the Frank A. Gulotta Criminal Justice Award; Certificate of Merit from the Adjunct Faculty Association of Nassau Community College; the Touch of Freedom Award from the Nassau County Conservative Committee; and he has been honored by both the Long Island Committee for Soviet Jewry and the Anti-Defamation League of B'Nai B'Rith.

Born in Brooklyn in 1938, Mondello is married to the former Linda Elizabeth Crabtree. They have three children, Joseph, Elizabeth and Lisa. They have lived in Levittown for the past 26 years.

*15 NEW YORK: CUOMO GIVES HIS REASONING ON DEATH PENALTY ISSUE

In a N.Y. DAILY NEWS op-ed, Gov. Mario Cuomo (D) gave his reason for asking voters to decide on the death penalty. Cuomo: "I have always believed ... that if the people of New York were given a real choice and a chance to consider the issue they also would conclude that imposing a death sentence is neither the best nor the only way to satisfy our thirst for justice." Cuomo refers to a recent Quinnipiac Poll which he says shows "a clear majority, 55% percent of the people, would prefer an option besides the death penalty" (7/13). Balto. SUN's Germond & Witcover write, the issue "may give Cuomo some flexibility on the controversial issue -- and ammunition to his foes who know that his consistency has been one of his strongest suits" (7/13). State Sen. George Pataki (R) "has accused Cuomo of backpedaling, when in fact Cuomo flaunted his opposition to the death penalty during his state convention speech last month" (Lombardi, N.Y. DAILY NEWS, 7/14). N.Y. DAILY NEWS' Sleeper: "He hasn't really changed his position; he just can't give up being the paterfamilias of New York" (7/14). W. POST's Cohen: "His message -- conventional liberalism -- seems out of date, quaint. But he can be very persuasive" (7/14). Cal Thomas: "When Mr. Cuomo says that capital punishment is an irreversible act of retribution, he probably is confusing retribution with revenge" (W. TIMES, 7/14).

INTERVIEWED: Cuomo, interviewed by CNN's Shaw, on Pataki: "He used to be supported by Right to Life and now he's pro-choice. He was a mayor who raised taxes 30%, and now he's against taxes. He used to say he was for a ban on assault weapons, but then he voted not to ban assault weapons. I know what his bosses in the Republican Party say about him. They say, the way we chose a candidate was to find somebody who calls himself a Catholic who is also for the death penalty and for abortion" ("IP," 7/12).

RESPONSE: Pataki, interviewed by CNN's Shaw: "I think it's really sad when you have someone like Mario Cuomo that's been noted for his rhetoric that really has elevated the debate now ... talking the way he's talking about his opponent is a Catholic ... If you want to talk about flip-flop, my support for the death penalty and his opposition is something that has characterized the debate in this campaign right up until this week. ... It's simply an attempt to put the issue into 1995, to get past another election" ("IP," 7/12). Others: Ex-NY GOP Chair Richard Rosenbaum (R), C.O.R.E. head Roy Innis (D), radio jock Howard Stern (L) and right to life hopeful Robert Walsh (I).

*12 NEW YORK: CUOMO SUGGESTS REFERENDUM ON DEATH PENALTY

He has vetoed 12 different death penalty bills as Gov., but Mario Cuomo (D) yesterday proposed the legislature approve a state constitutional amendment, "giving voters three choices for murder penalties: the death penalty, life without parole or life with the possibility of parole" (Lombardi/Browne, N.Y. DAILY NEWS, 7/8). Cuomo said he thought the voters would opt for life without parole, but said he was "willing to abide by the decision of the people of New York on this issue." He added that it was academic for him because he would no longer be in office before anyone was sentenced under it. The earliest the issue could come before the voters is 11/95, after two successive state legislatures had approved it. And that timing requires the current legislature to act by 8/11 (7/8).

GOP REACTIONS: State Sen. George Pataki (R) called it "a gimmick ... four months before the election." Ex-NY GOP Chair Richard Rosenbaum (R): "It shows Cuomo's running scared." Both said they would sign a death penalty bill once in office (N.Y. DAILY NEWS, 7/8). NY GOP Chair Wm Powers: "Mario Cuomo is scared. He's afraid New Yorkers will send him off to Oklahoma this November." Sen. Maj. Leader Ralph Marino (R): "The people of New York want the death penalty, and Governor Cuomo is solely responsible for having denied it to them" (N.Y. TIMES 7/8).

CUOMO: "I think the Republicans will not do it. I think they're afraid to do it ... They don't want to give up the issue" (NYDN 7/8). "Don't you see the hypocrisy of it? They say this will make you safe, but for 12 years we've denied you the right to vote for it ... I'm trying to get rid of the death penalty, and I'm trying to do it constitutionally because the Constitution will live longer than I do" (N.Y. TIMES, 7/8).

THE POLLS: A DAILY NEWS poll (874 NY voters, by Louis Harris, 6/2-5) showed 74% favor the death penalty, 23% oppose. A Gallup poll (1263 NY voters, released 6/23) also found 74% support for the death penalty. But Cuomo cited a poll by Quinnipiac College in Hamden, CT, showing that when given a specific choice 44% favored life without parole and 40% favored the death penalty (N.Y. DAILY NEWS, 7/8).

NEW YORK

Status of Incumbent: Gov. Cuomo (D) Eligible to seek reelection.

Filing Date: July 11-14

Primary Election: Sept. 13

REPUBLICANS

George Pataki, State Senator

Richard Rosenbaum, Former GOP Chairman

DEMOCRATS

Mario Cuomo, Incumbent

Early Summary

State Senator George Pataki won "official candidate status" of the New York Republican Party on May 23. NYU Dean Herb London missed the opportunity to be placed on the ballot when he received 22% at the GOP convention, 3 points short of what conservatives said London would need to be taken seriously at the Conservative Party convention. Then, as expected, on June 6 Senator Pataki was nominated by the Conservative Party. Former Republican State Chairman Richard Rosenbaum will continue to try to obtain enough signatures to be on the primary ballot September 13.

A Putnam County state Senator, George Pataki has a history of defeating popular and powerful incumbents. His first political victory was in the Democratic city of Peekskill over the three term Democratic Mayor. He then beat the Democratic Assemblyman from his area. His most recent upset was over an incumbent Republican state Senator in a primary.

He grew up on a farm and graduated from Yale and Columbia Law School. He worked in the Legislature before he ran for Mayor of Peekskill. To this day he manages his farm and sells fruits and vegetables at a family stand in Peekskill. Over the years in the Assembly and Senate, he has been forced to spend much of his time trying to slow Democratic legislation. His connections to a New York low-tax group have, in the past, strained relations with GOP Senate Leader Ralph Marino. Marino had been a target of this group. (However, Marino had tried to recruit Senator Pataki to run for Governor in 1990.) Senator Pataki has been a favorite of fiscal conservatives, but environmentalists as well.

He has called for deep tax cuts, reduced government spending and the death penalty in this campaign. He is also pro-choice, but favors restricting Medicaid funding of abortions.

In addition to the strength at the top of the ticket, the rest of the ticket is very strong. The coup of the Republican convention was the selection of Manhattan Institute Senior Fellow Elizabeth P. McCaughey as the Lieutenant Governor candidate. She recently came to the public's attention with her scathing criticism of the Clinton Health Care Plan in the New Republic. After losing the Republican nomination for governor, NYU Dean and economist Herb London decided to join Senator Pataki as the nominee for State Comptroller.

As a Rye fireman told The New York Times, the state needs somebody who can "shake the tree a little." He went on to say, "we're a little too complacent. A little change is good." Cuomo aides fear this sentiment more than any other. The feeling is borne out in recent polls. A New York Daily News poll, from June 2-5 shows that 65% of those surveyed feel that it is time for a change. His approval rating is only 45%. Cuomo leads Senator Pataki 48% to 41%. With Libertarian nominee and radio shock jock Howard Stern included, Cuomo receives 47%, Pataki receives 40% and Stern receives 7% (margin of error +/- 3.3%). People see crime throughout New York and yearn for the return of the death penalty which Cuomo opposes. They perhaps more than anything are just tired of the misplaced priorities. As a suburban general contractor noted in the New York Times, you can receive many kinds of non-health related nonessential surgery on state aid, "but the average guy can't get his teeth cleaned. They pay $3,000 a month for putting homeless people in hotels. Who's in charge? Mario wants the kudos, but he doesn't want to make the hard political decisions."

Many of the statistics continue to mount against Governor Cuomo as well. From July 1990 through September 1993 for example, New York has realized a decrease of 6.94% of its payroll jobs. This places New York 47th in the country for that period. By the 1992-1993 school year, New York students scored about 15 points below the national average on SATs. New York has one of the lowest graduation rates and one of the highest adult illiteracy rates in the nation.
