Dear Bob:

In these hectic closing weeks of the One Hundred and Third Congress, I would not bother you with a routine luncheon invitation. But this one is not at all routine.

Our House Policy Committee holds a monthly luncheon meeting with our Leadership, our ranking Members, and our Freshmen, most of whom regularly attend. It allows for candid exchange of views and information between our most senior and most junior Members. It is entirely off the record, staff attendance is kept to an absolute minimum, and we have never had a leak.

Nor have we had any outside speakers, but I would like to make an exception through this invitation.

Our last meeting of the year will be on Wednesday, September 21, in HC-9 from 12:00 to 2:00. We would all be honored if you could join us to give us your insights, predictions, or whatever. I need not tell you how important this would be to our Freshmen, most of whom, I suspect, have had little personal exposure to you.

Besides that, we serve great sandwiches from the American Cafe.

Please let me know if you can make it.

Cordially,
