Dear Bob:

This is just a short note regarding the invitation you received from the Disability Rights Education and Defense Fund (DREDF) to attend a luncheon/briefing about DREDF's public awareness campaign on November 9 in the Indian Treaty Room of the Old Executive Office Building.

I realize your schedule is already tight, but knowing of your strong support for this effort, I wanted to extend my own invitation to appear for at least part of the program. I cannot myself attend the entire luncheon, but I will be there to welcome everybody and to say a few words. I am certain that any comments you might want to make would go a long way toward convincing these Washington representatives from Fortune 500 corporations to get more directly involved in this vital cause.

I hope to see you then. With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

George Bush
